Tedro Croley Busily Plans July Wedding in Portland

By Darlene Leland
Emerald Reporter

"I had never realized all that was involved in getting married," said Pi Beta Phi senior Tedro Croley happily.

"Teddy," Croley, as everyone calls her, met her future husband, Sam Skillern, at a party her freshman year. Their wedding will be held in Miss Croley's home church, St. Michael's and All Saint's Episcopal Church in Portland.

Trip to Las Vegas

A trip including Las Vegas, the Payette Lakes and the Wallowa Mountains will follow their wedding on July 9.

Lewiston, Idaho, Skillern's home town, will be the couple's destination until they go to his assigned post. Skillern is in the Army transportation corps and his future bride replied, "we hope we will be traveling to Fort Eustis, Virginia, sometime next fall."

Christmas 'Their Day'

Christmas seems to have been an important point in their romance, as they were pinned on Christmas day, 1952, and engaged the following Christmas.

Dinners Scheduled For Senior Women

Dinners for senior women on campus will be given by the American Association of University Women April 27 and 28 from 7:30 to 9 p.m. The purpose of these dinners is to acquaint all University women with the AA-UW.

On April 27 the dinners will be given at the home of Mrs. A. A. Esslinger, 2163 Harris St., and Mrs. C. S. Gregg, 960 Hilyard.

Dinners April 28 will be given at the home of Mrs. Ray Hawk, 1899 Longview Ave., Mrs. Carl Webb, 1959 Onyx St., and Mrs. William C. Jones, 1807 Alder St.

Representatives from the different living organizations are being asked to call Mrs. Jones at 5-4197 as soon as they know how many are planning to attend the dinners.

The YMCA church visitation group will meet at Carson hall Sunday at 10 a.m. before attending services at the Unitarian church.

Miss Croley has found time in addition to her campus work to make her own going-away coat and a dress for her trousseau.

Active In Activities

She has been active in campus activities, as evidenced by her membership in Kwama as a sophomore. She is majoring in speech correction and spending time working in the speech clinic.

Her fiancé is a business major and a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

"Rose Point," by Wallace, is Miss Croley's choice of silver pattern and "Starburst" by Franciscan is her china.

Campus Briefs

Phi Theta Upsilon members must be at McArthur court tonight at 6:50 p.m. in uniforms. Members who cannot attend to usher for the concert should send substitutes.

All semi-finalists for Junior Weekend queen must have their pictures taken at Fehly's studio sometime today or before noon Saturday. Women may wear campus clothes. Each sitting will take approximately half an hour.

Junior Honorary Calls for Petitions

Sophomore women with a 2.4 grade average for winter term and a 2.4 cumulative GPA are eligible to petition for Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's service honorary.

Activities on the petitions should be listed in order of importance, and should be done on regular ASUO petition forms.

The petitions are due April 20, and should be given to Germaine LaMarche at Susan Campbell or Sally Ryan at Carson 3.

You . . . a living dream?

Once upon a time, you dreamed of loveliness . . . the shimmering elegance of satin . . . fragile clouds of veiling . . . the glow of pearls . . . and of a beautiful you, on your wedding day! But this is the present, and your dreams are about to come true! To you, The Bon Marche extends an invitation to see our collection of bridal gowns.

Pictured . . . an original by Cahill, styled of imported satin in antique white. The scalloped boat neckline is lavishly trimmed in hand-pearled Alecon lace. The long sleeves taper to the traditional point. The full, gathered cathedral-length skirt swishes gracefully, with its two layers of delicate tulle underskirts. Truly the ultimate in loveliness . . . for the happiest day of your life.
