Ransom Explains Election Plans

With the ASUO primary elections scheduled for Wednesday, ASUO Vice-President Hollis Ransom has issued a list of voting procedures to be followed by campus voters.

The preferential system will again be in effect for the elections and the steps of specific importance that all voters should be sure to follow are:

1. You will be given one ballot for each party.
2. You can vote on only one ballot.
3. All voters: You will be able to vote for ASUO officers, using the preferential system (voting according to your preference, 1, 2, 3, 4, etc.)

4. Freshmen, sophomores and juniors: You will be able to vote for class officers for next year in the section indicated by a number circled with red pencil. You will also use the preferential system.

5. You vote in the sections of the ballot which are indicated by an encircled number and in the ASUO section.

6. Ballots marked other than with numbers are invalid.

7. When you have voted—fold both ballots and give them to the booth attendant telling the attendant which ballot you have marked. The attendant will then place the ballots in the appropriate boxes.

Ransom's release went on to explain the preferential system a little more fully. It said, "the preferential system is a system of voting by which a voter expresses his choice with a number one (1) for his first choice, number two (2) for his second choice, number three (3) for his third choice and so on for as many candidates as he wishes.

Captains Named For Primary Polls

Eight poll captains for the coming primary elections have been announced by ASUO Vice-President Hollis Ransom.

The eight are made up of four members of the Associated Greek Students and affiliates of the four United Independent Students. They will be stationed with one at each of election voting booths.

The four AGS poll captains are Betti Fackler, Agnes Thompson, Marcia Webb and Leighton Wilbur. The four from UIS are Constance Drury, Ray Westinghouse, Janet Ferris and Mary Alice Allen.

Among the duties of the poll captains will be to make sure that two poll clerks are at each booth at all times, to instruct all poll clerks as to their specific duties and to turn in a list of their clerks to Ransom at the ASUO office not later than 6 p.m. today.

The eight polling places for the election are at Fenton hall, Friendly hall, the Men's pool, Commonwealth hall, the Student Union, the library quad, the Cop and the area between Straub hall and Gerlinger hall.

Government Essay Contest Disclosed

A first prize of $20 will be awarded to the winning entry in the ASUO senate-sponsored essay contest, according to John Whitty, contest chairman. Second and third prizes of $10 and $5 will also be given.

Subject of the essays is to be "The Role of Student Government on the University of Oregon Campus." The essays are due Wednesday.

All students enrolled in the University are eligible to participate in the contest. The essays may be from 1000 to 5000 words long. Entries should be typewritten, double spaced on one side of the paper.

The first-place essay will be printed in the Emerald.

The three faculty members of the Senate, Donald Du Shane, director of student affairs; R. D. Horn, professor of English, and Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business administration, will serve as judges for the essay contest.
