•Stock Market•

NEW YORK (AP) — Defense stocks were in the forefront of the market's advance Monday.

Aircrafts were heavily purchased at higher prices. That buoyancy accompanied reports that the Chinese Reds were building up their air strength opposite Formosa.

The defense issues, however, weren't alone in their good showing.

Gains ran to around 6 points at the best in key sections. Losses of 2 to 3 points were found at the outside.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up $1.20 at $166.00.

Volume at 3,080,000 shares compares with 3,180,000 shares traded Friday.
