Several Prizes Of $1000 Offered

The Scholarship Loan and Fellowship Fund Board of Trustees, acting as agent for the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, has made available three or four fellowships of $1000 (minimum) for women interested in studying in Latin America.

General eligibility requirements for these awards are as follows: 1. Must be a citizen of Oregon, 2. Must hold a bachelor's degree from an American college or university, or meet this requirement by the summer of 1955. 3. Have a good academic record and capacity for independent study. 4. Have ability to read, write and speak Spanish or Portuguese. 5. Have good moral character, personality and adaptability, and 6. Must present a certificate of good health.

Any women interested in applying for these fellowships should contact Karl W. Onthank, director of graduate placement, in Emerald hall. Applications must be submitted by May 10.

Traffic Court to Meet; Three Sessions Left

The Student Traffic court will meet tonight at 7:30 on the third floor of the Student Union.

Any students who have university-issued tickets which they think are unjust may present their case at this meeting.

The Wednesday evening meetings for the remainder of the term are as follows: April 27, May 4 and May 18.
