Leone Johnson to Speak At YW Women's Breakfast

"The Quality of Leadership is the Answer" is the topic of an address to be given by Leone M. Johnson, Memorial Union program consultant at Oregon State college.

She will speak at the YWCA junior-senior women's breakfast Sunday morning in the Student Union ballroom. The breakfast will be held from 9:15 to 10:30 a.m.

Mrs. Johnson has a master of science degree in personnel and guidance at Oregon State college, and also has a B.S. degree from North Dakota State college.

She started a leadership training course at Oregon State in 1948, which has since gained national recognition. The Intercollegiate Press Bulletin published an article about the course last year. She has had inquiries about it from college presidents and counselors from all over the United States.

At Alpha Phi

Alpha Phi's will be honoring their housemother, Mrs. Anderson, this Saturday morning at 10 o'clock with a coffee hour at the chapter house. Mrs. Anderson will be retired following this spring term, after serving as housemother for the sorority 17 years. Hostesses for the coffee hour will include all Alpha Phi's on the campus and Eugene alums.

Patty Teale, a former Alpha Phi at Oregon now attending school at Oregon State, has announced her pinning to Pete Overton. Overton is a member of Sigma Chi at OSC.

At Delta Delta Delta

Gretchen Klomhouse has revealed her pinning to her Tri-Delt sorority sisters. She is pinned to Al Reynolds, Pi Kappa Phi.

At Delta Gamma

New freshman pledge Mary Beth Larpenter announced her pinning to Greg Liningner, Phi Delta Theta, at the house April 20. They became pinned April 14.

At Kappa Alpha Theta

Two Thetas have revealed their pinnings to members of SAE. Marcia Tamasi is pinned to Dave Chapman and freshman Betty Lou Boehm is pinned to Bruce King.

At Pi Beta Phi

A pinning and an engagement took the romantic spotlight at the Pi Beta Phi house during the past weekend. Much to the delight of visiting senior guests and Pi Phi sisters, Nita Hamilton announced her pinning to Art Greisser, Phi Delta Theta, at a fireside after closing hours Friday evening. Sunday evening Marcia Cook announced her engagement to Don Gartrell, Phi Delt. A color scheme of mauves and purples was carried through, with a centerpiece of foil wedding bells and snapdragons of the same shades. Wedding date for the couple has been set for September 11.

At Sigma Kappa

April 11 was the date of Anne Boettcher's engagement announcement. With bunches of violets and printed cards, Sigma Kappa's learned the name of her fiancée, Donald Thurber, Lambda Chi Alpha.

Four UO Women Chosen For Honor Study in France

Four University of Oregon women have been honored by having been selected from colleges throughout the nation to study in France during the school year of 1955-56. The two senior women, Elena D. Horn, Zeta Tau Alpha, and Diane David, Delta Gamma, have been awarded fellowships which will allow them to study at special schools in Paris. Sally Allen, Pi Beta Phi, and Sally Calkins, Eugene, have been chosen from the hundred of applicants to Sweetbriar college in Virginia to spend "The Junior Year in France."

Miss Horn, who received a Fulbright Fellowship, will study French literature and language at the Cler Mont-Ferrand. She will spend a whole year in residence and plans to travel over Europe during her vacations. Miss Horn will sail in September.

Miss David will study at the Ecole du Lovur, the leading art school of France, under a French Government Fellowship. This will make Miss David's second year of study in France. She spent her junior year studying with the Sweetbriar group. Miss David will also sail in September.

Miss Allen and Miss Calkins will be part of an 80 student group from Sweetbriar college which annually sponsors a year of study in France under the name "The Junior Year in France." They will make the sixth delegate from the University since 1948 giving us the largest representation from all the colleges in the west. Both young women are French majors and Miss Allen and Miss Calkins will study French literature.

ZTA Reunion Is Set for Saturday

An annual reunion of all Zeta Tau Alpha alumnae residing in the state of Oregon will be held in Eugene Saturday, April 30. Alumnae from all parts of the state will be guests at the social gathering. Official hostess for the State Day is Mrs. Mortimer Turnbull, president of the Eugene Delta Zeta Alumnae association. Province President Mrs. Gunder Lydig will also be in attendance.

First on the agenda for the day is a luncheon at the Laurelwood Country club, at which Eugene alums will serve as hostesses. Les Anderson will speak to the gathering concerning alumni affairs.

Kwama Scholarship Applications Due May 3

Applications for Kwama scholarships are due May 3, according to Helen Ruth Johnson, president.

Any freshman women may apply. Awards will be made on the basis of need, scholarship, activities and character. Applications should be turned in to Mrs. Golda Wickham at Emerald hall.

Neither the amount of each award nor the number of awards has been announced as yet, according to Miss Johnson. Last year Kwama gave ten 100-dollar scholarships.
