Oregon tripped the University of Washington in two crucial Northern Division baseball contests Friday and Saturday and vaulted into the ND lead with a perfect 3-0 record. The wins were the Ducks' eighth and ninth straight.

Coach Don Kirsch's club won by 13-12 and 8-5 margins and used big innings in each game. Both the Huskies and the Ducks had on their hitting clothes and the pitchers wilted before the onslaught of base hits.

The Webfoots hit the road this weekend for six games in eight days. They face Washington State at Pullman Friday and Saturday, Idaho at Moscow Monday and Tuesday, and Washington at Seattle Friday and Saturday after that.

Play the Emeralds

The home schedule takes up again May 17 when they are scheduled against the Eugene Emeralds at Emerald park. Oregon State will be here for a doubleheader on May 20, and the Ducks will journey north to Corvallis for another twinbill on May 21. That winds up the Northern Division season.

In the Friday game Washington jumped to a 5-0 lead in the first inning, but Oregon pecked away until they assumed a 10-5 edge. After the first, pitchers Bill Garner and Terry Maddox held the Huskies to one hit until the ninth.

Oregon's big blows were a three-run pinch homer by Norm Forbes in the fourth and a bases loaded triple by Jerry Ross in the seventh.

But in the ninth the Huskies rallied for seven runs with two-out to snatch a 12-10 lead. Then in the Oregon half Ross singled, Neal Marlett got life on an error, Terry Maddox walked, and John Keller walked to force in one run. Jim Johnson then powered a long double over the centerfielder's head to score the winning runs in the 13-12 Oregon victory.

Webfoots Slug

The Saturday game was a little drab after a big eight-run Oregon splurge in the second inning. Pete Williams smacked a two-run homer to get things going, and Forbes hit a triple for an equal distance.

Johnson hit well in both games and raised his season's average to .356, top mark on the Oregon team. Close behind are Shaw at .348 and Williams at .347.

Varsity, Frosh Nab Tennis Wins

A sweep in the doubles brought Oregon's varsity tennis team from behind to take a close 4-3 decision from Oregon State Saturday, as the Ducks won their first Northern Division match. And the freshman team completed an all-winning weekend by dropping the OSC Rooks and Springfield high.

Bob Baker and Ron Carlson teamed to defeat OSC's sophomore pair of Norm Merrill and Bob Jensen in the final doubles match to give the Ducks their victory. The final set scores were 7-5, 3-6, 6-4. Don Bonime and Dick Gray had previously beaten Dick Jacobson and Pete Overton 6-3, 6-3 to tie the match.

Frosh Triumph

Coach Hilbert Lee's Frosh team saw action both Friday and Saturday, bouncing the preppers by a 6-1 count and defeating the Rooks by the same score.

Frosh Trackmen Take 3-Way Meet

With the aid of four spring football players, Coach Bob McCollum's Duckling cinder team swamped the Oregon State Rooks and the Portland Track and Field team to the tune of 74, 49, 38, Saturday at Hayward field. The mainstay in Oregon's behalf was workhorse Jack Morris, who won the century dash in 10.1, captured the 220-yd. low hurdles in 25.4, and anchored the winning mile relay team.

The most outstanding effort of the day was OSC's Wayne Moss's high jump of 6'4". He completed his share of blue ribbon finishes when he won the shot put at 43' 3/4". Ex-Oregon distance expert Pete Mundle was up to snuff in the mile and two mile. He toured the four lap race in 4:29.1, and the two mile in 10:12. Don Meskimen of Oregon finished second in both events.

Stewart Jones suffered the only singles loss to the Millers and Stan Kalapus dropper the only match to the Rooks.

Carlson opened the Beaver match with a 7-5, 1-6, 7-5 win over Merrill, but Overton countered by overcoming Baker, 3-6, 6-1, 7-5. Gray defeated Jensen by 6-3, 6-3 and Jacobson tipped Bonime, 6-3, 6-4. And State's Emory Keolanui topped Oregon's Dick Hamilton in the final singles match, 4-6, 6-4, 8-6.

Gary Boedigheimer of the Rooks registered the only OSC win in the Frosh meet by downing Kalapus, 1-6, 6-4, 6-4. In other singles action Marv Woods beat Charles Cook of OSC, 6-2, 6-3; Jones whipped Jan Jackson, 6-1, 6-2; Brian Booth outlasted Allen Frazier, 4-6, 6-3, 6-3; Don Robinson won from Lee Stevens, 6-1, 7-5.

Take Doubles

Kalapus and Woods teamed to defeat Boedigheimer and Frazier 6-4, 6-2 and Phil Lowthian and Robinson whipped Jackson and Cook, 6-3, 7-5 in doubles action.

Kalapus defeated Bob Smith of Springfield high in a marathon-like match of 10-8, 11-9 to lead the Frosh to their Friday afternoon win. Woods topped Tom Bourgeois 7-5, 6-1; Bob Stewart of the Millers upset Jones 10-8, 6-1; Booth drubbed Jerry Leek, 6-2, 6-2, and Robinson beat Don Williams 6-2, 6-0, in singles action.

The team of Woods and Lowthian beat Leek and Williams in the only doubles match by a straight-set score of 6-4, 6-2.

Next action for the varsity squad is against Idaho in Moscow May 6.

Ducklings Open Against Eugene

With half the schedule already washed out, Oregon's Frosh baseball squad will make still another effort to open the season against Eugene high school today at 3:30 on the EHS diamond.

A scheduled game with the Oregon State Rooks Saturday was cancelled.

Eugene's Axemen are young but boast one of the top prep squads in the state. Although weather conditions have prevented the Axemen from opening their district 5-A-1 season, pre-league action has proved them tough to beat.

The Frosh have plenty of action billed for this week, with McChord Air Force base slated for a doubleheader Wednesday and Clark college scheduled for single games Friday and Saturday.

Wilson, Williams Place In Billiards Tourney

Oregon placed two men high up in the finals of the National Intercollegiate Billiard championships, held at Michigan State college Saturday.

Stan Williams finished second in the three-cushion faceoff, and John Wilson placed third in straight rail billiards.
