Petitions Called For RE Week

Petitions are being called for members of the executive committee for next year's Religious Evaluation week, according to Bill Swenson, general chairman of the week.

Positions to be filled at this time include a vice-chairman, secretary and treasurer. They will be due next Monday in the ASUO petition box.

Students who formerly petitioned for general chairman will be automatically considered for the executive spots, Swenson said.

Duties of the vice-chairman will include sharing the total responsibility of the planning. The secretary will take minutes of all executive and general meetings, and the treasurer will handle an appropriate budget of $1000, Swenson said.

Other sub-committee chairmen will be chosen later through petitions.

Reading Lists Due Thursday

Thursday is the deadline for reading lists from campus living organizations which are in competition for the Josephine Evans Harpham library cup.

The trophy is given annually by Mrs. Everett E. Harpham, Eugene, to promote living organizations to stimulate reading interest among members by means of a house library program.

Reading lists should be turned in to Miss Bernice Rise, browsing room librarian. The cup will be awarded during Junior Weekend.

The last American League pitcher to win 30 games in a single season was Lefty Grove of Philadelphia, in 1931.

Swedish Blonde Found Dead in LA

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A Swedish blonde bookkeeper, daughter of a Stockholm building contractor, was found dead in her apartment Saturday. Police said after an autopsy Sunday that death was due to an air embolism apparently caused by an attempted abortion.

The victim was Miss Birgit Johansson, 25. Last Dec. 12, the Stockholm newspaper Aftonbladet said Miss Johansson would marry Mal Whitfield, U.S. Negro track star.

Whitfield denied it, and after that Miss Johansson said the report was due to a misunderstanding.

Whitfield's brother-in-law, Horace P. Clark, said the runner left three days ago for a track meet in Trinidad. Clark said Miss Johansson and the two-time Olympic 800-meter champion met during the 1952 Olympics in Europe but that they never dated.

Police said nothing has been found in the case to involve Whitfield.

Detective Sgt. E. V. Jackson said a friend of Miss Johansson, identified as Sam Lanier, 25, found her dead when he visited her flat. Detective Sgt. Herman Zander said Lanier, who was questioned and released, told officers he had known her about two months.

She was employed by a Hollywood bank and was a kindergarten teacher in Stockholm before coming to the United States.

The county coroner's chief autopsy surgeon, Dr. Frederick D. Newbarr, performed the post-mortem. He said she was "five to six months pregnant."

There have been no arrests in the case.

Noted Evolutionist Will Speak Here

Ernst Mayr, noted evolutionist and professor at Harvard university, will speak on "The Origin of the Species" Tuesday at 8 p.m. in 123 Science.

Author of several books on evolution, Mayr was formerly assistant curator of the Berlin Zoology Museum before he came to America. He was made curator of the Whitney-Rothschild Collection in the American Museum of Natural History in 1944.
