

Vaccine Withdrawn

DR. E. J. DENNENHOLTZ, second from left, polio advisory committee chairman for the Stanislaus county medical society, gives members of a special polio immunization squad the shocking news that the vaccine with which they had just inoculated 350 Modesto school children had been withdrawn from use by the federal government. Ten cases of paralytic polio among school children inoculated with the Salk vaccine made in the Cutter laboratories in Berkeley, Calif., have been reported. Action by the government brought to an immediate halt all inoculations with the vaccine. (AP Wirephoto)
