Mysties to Go On Sale In Booths Wednesday

Mysties will go on sale Wednesday in black and pink booths located at various points on campus.

Sponsored by Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's honorary, and run by freshman women, the sale proceeds will go for scholarships for University students.

Outside booths will be open at 9 a.m. Booths will be located in front of Commonwealth, Friendly, the library and the Student Union from 9 to 5, and will be open from 11:30 to 1:30 and 5:30 to 6:30 in front of Straub hall, Carson, Susan Campbell and Hendricks.

All living organizations have been invited to order mysties to serve as Wednesday night dessert. The dessert mystie will be different from the booth-sales mystie.

Deliveries of the mysties will be made at dinner-time by freshman women. Sales in women's living organizations will be carried on between 10 and 11 p.m. Wednesday.

Although the identification of the mystie is not made until the day of the sale, price has been announced as 10 cents. Sales will end Thursday.

General chairmen of the event are Darlene Leland and Helen Hughes. Chairmen include Arlene Clark and Bev Chamberlain, promotion; Mary Jo Fourier, publicity; Evelyn Nelson, decorations; Ann Petterson, booth sales; Jeri Muire and Anne Henderson, house sales; Frances Heitkemper and Sue Ramsby, collections, and Sue Jewett and Anne Curry, distribution.

Africa to Be Topic Of Student Forum

A joint forum on "Colonialism: Does the United States Have a Stake in Africa?" will be held by members of NAACP, Anthropology club and Cosmopolitan club Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Student Union.

Mervin Cadwallader, a recent graduate in sociology, will serve as moderator.

Panel members include Bert Collins, graduate in political science from British Guiana; Vishnu Wassiamal, junior in economics from Africa's Gold Coast; and Steve Talbot, graduate student in anthropology.

Wilkinson's Work Shown Nationally

Jack Wilkinson, assistant professor of drawing and painting, has had color engravings accepted by the Library of Congress for the current exhibition of American Graphic Arts.

Wilkinson has also been invited to participate in the the 1955 exhibition of abstract painting at the Museum of Modern Art, Paris, France.

Cressman to Attend Archeologists' Meet

L. S. Cressman, head of the anthropology department, will be in Bloomington, Ind., May 4-7 where he will attend a meeting of the Society for American Archeology.
