Stanford and Southern California dominated the list of outstanding track and field performances of the Pacific Coast Conference as released by the PCC Commissioner's office Wednesday.

Southern California boasted the best marks in six events. Stanford had the top marks in

Webfoots Leave For Six Games In Eight Days

"We must win five of six games to remain in contention." That was the word of baseball Coach Don Kirsch Wednesday as the Ducks prepared to depart on a six games in eight days jaunt to the Inland Empire and Seattle.

The team left by chartered bus at 5 p.m. Wednesday for Pullman, Wash., where they will meet Washington State Friday and Saturday. From there they move the nine miles to Moscow, Idaho, for games with Idaho on Monday and Tuesday. Wednesday will be spent traveling to Seattle where the Ducks will challenge Washington on Thursday and Friday.

Pennant Formula

In the past the pennant formula has been for a team to "win all its home games and split on the road." At present WSC has a 4-0 record, and Oregon and OSC are 3-0.

But Washington State has the advantage in playing all home games from here on, but for a single road encounter against Idaho.

"Ordinarily, we would only have to win four, and maybe three," Kirsch stated. "But WSC's rained out road games against Oregon and Oregon State make it necessary that we win five to stay in the race."

Hurlers Tough

"The Cougars have the best pitching in the league in Ron Webb, West Stock and Jerry Bartow, and are always tough to beat at home. Washington and Idaho are also likely to give us plenty of trouble," the coach continued.

As for Oregon pitching, Kirsch said he would probably use Terry Maddox in the first WSC game and Bill Blodgett in the second. He intends to follow them up with Bill Garner, John Lundell and Pete Williams.

The complete 17 man traveling team follows: pitchers — Bill Blodgett, Bill Garner, Jim Lehl, Terry Maddox and John Lundell; catchers—Neal Marlett, Tom Bowen; infielders — Dick Schlosstein, Jim Johnson, Pete Williams and John Keller; and outfielders—George Shaw, Jerry Ross, Norm Forbes, Bernie Averill, Bob Wagner and Jim Pingree.

Lundell and Shaw can both be moved to the infield, and Maddox can play outfield.

Reds Bid for Games With Big Expenditures

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet Union, in an apparent bid for the 1960 or 1964 Olympics, announced Wednesday it is spending $62,000,000 this year to expand athletic facilities in Moscow.

Frosh Tie Rooks In Divot Meeting

Oregon's Frosh golf team and the OSC Rooks proved evenly-matched Tuesday as the two freshman divot teams battled to a 9-9 tie on the Corvallis country club course.

Earlier in the season the Frosh beat the Rooks in a three-way match at the Eugene country club. But the Rooks picked up playing on their own course and pulled out a tie.

Keith Gubrud and Don Anawalt, two ex-Eugene high school aces, tied for low score on the Frosh team with three-over-par 75's. First man Bob Prall, Salem, had a 76 for the Duckling team.

Washington's tennis team scored a perfect sweep in the 1953 Northern Division tennis tournament by racking up 20 points. The Huskies won both the singles and doubles titles.

Ducklings Bill Season Opener Against Rooks

Another season's opener for Bob Basich's Frosh baseballers is scheduled for Howe field this afternoon and chances are good that the Ducklings will finally get to play it. Rain has stymied all previous efforts to get the season under way, but this week's "bluebird weather" makes it probable that today's three o'clock tilt with the OSC Rooks will go off as scheduled.

The Rooks opened their season Tuesday with a 2-1 win over Linfield's jayvees, and the Staters managed only two hits in their squeaky victory. Dave Gambee, the Ducklings' unstoppable nemesis in basketball, was on the mound for the Rooks for five innings.

Basich will lead with his stand-out lefty, Don Lane, who blanked the varsity in three innings during a Monday scrimmage.

The Ducklings will face Clark JC's Penguins, undefeated defending champs of their southern Washington junior college league, in single games Friday and Saturday. Basich plans to start Ron Whittaker in the first game and Don Delbon in the second, with John McCall, Jim Sittser and Don Beck available for relief duty.

IM Golf Enters Second Round

Intramural golf entered its second round of play this week as eight teams won matches to join eight others in the battle for quarter-final positions.

The four-man teams from living organizations had a little difficulty in getting first-round matches finished because of rain. Spring sunshine has apparently arrived, however, and play should wind up on schedule.

The final match is slated for Tuesday, May 17, when the two surviving teams from an original field of 24 will play for the championship at Oakway golf course. Phi Delta Theta is defending champion.

Three forfeits were produced among first-round matches originally scheduled. Delta Upsilon won a forfeit victory from Cherney hall, Sigma Alpha Epsilon won over Straub Frosh, and Pi Kappa Alpha got an easy win from Gamma hall.

In the five matches played, Phi Kappa Psi defeated Sigma Phi Epsilon, Chi Psi topped Sigma Nu, Sigma Chi beat Kappa Sigma, Delta Tau Delta trounced Tau Kappa Epsilon and Hale Kane downed French hall.

Gaining byes in the second-round golf action were Phi Delta Theta, Beta Theta Pi, Campbell club, Phi Gamma Delta, Legal Eagles, Theta Chi, Phi Kappa Sigma and Alpha Tau Omega.

Second-round matches in the bracket tournament pit Phi Delta Theta against Phi Kappa Psi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs. Beta Theta Pi, Campbell club vs. Chi Psi, Delta Upsilon vs. Phi Gamma Delta, Legal Eagles vs. Sigma Chi, Delta Tau Delta vs. Theta Chi, Phi Kappa Sigma vs. Pi Kappa Alpha and Hale Kane vs. Alpha Tau Omega.

Oregon had four individual track champions in the 1954 Northern Division meet. Bob Faucett won the high jump, Bill Dellinger the mile, Ken Reiser the two-mile and Fred Jacobs the 440-yard dash.

Nashua Tops Derby Picks

By ORLO ROBERTSON

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Without exception and without hesitation, the trainers of the leading Kentucky Derby candidates Wednesday named Nashua as the horse to beat when nine, and perhaps ten, 3-year-olds battle it out in the $125,000 added turf classic at Churchill Downs Saturday.

And the seven trainers participating in the Associated Press poll almost were unanimous in the selection of Summer Tan to finish second and Swaps third.

Here and there, however, a few hedged on whether it'll be Mrs. John W. Galbreath's colors on Summer Tan or the silks of Rex Ellsworth on Swaps in the runner-up spot at the end of the mile and one-quarter.

Post time is 4:30 p.m. EST with the broadcast and television scheduled for 4:15 to 4:45 CBS.

Nashua remained the firm choice at 4 to 5 to register the fourth Derby victory for the Bel-air stud. However, it would be the first for the present master of the stable, 34-year old William Woodward Jr. Gallant Fox, Omaha and Johnstown won in the famous white and red polka dot silks when Woodward's father was alive.

Neither was there any shift of odds on Summer Tan, who has bowed to Nashua four times in five clashes with the son of Nasrullah. Mrs. Galbreath's slim-barrelled colt was held at 2 to 1.

Swaps, rated by many as the horse of the field off his 1 minute 10 1-5 seconds for six furlongs last Saturday, was quoted at 6 to 1. The big question was whether the California-owned son of Khaled can carry his speed the full Derby distance.

The three leading candidates were out for gallops this morning but trainer Meshach Tenney said he plans to work Swaps either a half-mile or five-eighths of a mile Thursday or Friday. Summer Tan also may get a speed test.

Grid Workouts 'Enthusiastic,' Notes Casanova

Oregon's spring football practice—"the most enthusiastic in years," according to Head Coach Len Casanova—swung into high gear this week, pointing for the wind-up game scrimmage May 14.

Casanova praised the enthusiasm of his youthful squad, and added that the team was also one of the roughest in years. Scrimmages so far have been mostly on fundamentals.

Ends Needed

The search continued this week for ends to pair with Phil McHugh, only letterman receiver. Transfers Bruce Brenn and Bill Tarr, and J. C. Wheeler and Mel Flohr up from the Frosh have shown good blocking ability, but so far no one has matched McHugh.

The young and light, but speedy, backfield could be stronger than last year. Tom Crabtree has been improving fast at the quarterback spot, and now has the edge over veteran Wally Russell. Letterman halfback Dick James has also been working at quarter but has so far avoided scrimmages, as his arm is just out of a cast.

Two freshmen, Jim Shanley and LeRoy Phelps, have looked good at the halfback posts. Both men are on the stubby side, but both are fast, rough and tricky. Chuck Osborn, Jack Brown and Pete Lopez give the Ducks depth in that position.

Morris Back

Jack Morris, back at Oregon after a stint in the Army, is currently leading the rush for the fullback job. Transfer Fred Miklancic has also looked sharp in the role of linebuster.

Lettermen Lon Stiner and Harry Johnson are strongest at tackle, while Spike Hillstrom and Reanous Cochrane are the leading guard candidates. At center, veterans Art Weber and Nick Markulis and Freshman Norm Chapman will battle it out.
