

Baseball Nine On Road Trip

Oregon starts its annual "suicide swing" of six games in eight days this afternoon when they play Washington State college at Pullman.

The Ducks will follow up with another game against WSC on Saturday, move to Moscow on Saturday, move to Idaho Monday and Tuesday. Wednesday will be spent in travelling to Seattle where they will take on Washington Thursday and Friday.

Coach Don Kirsch figures Oregon will have to win five games

Frosh Baseball Team Edges Rook Nine, 7-6

By Jack Wilson
Emerald Sports Writer

Don Lane socked a three-run homer in the second inning and struck out eleven batters while allowing only eight scattered hits to lead the Oregon Frosh to a 7-6 win over OSC's Rooks Thursday.

First game of the season for the Frosh diamondmen, it saw Duckling hitters collect 12 safe blows and bunch their runs in the second and fifth innings.

Second sacker Twink Pederson of the Rooks had a home run and two doubles in his four attempts. The Little Beavers scored three in the third, and single runs in the fifth, sixth and ninth innings.

Ron Dodge started off the big second stanza with a dump single into left, his opposite field. Jerry Urness sacrificed him to second, and Left Fielder George Simpson clipped a hard single to left to bring him around, advancing to second on the peg. Dale Dickey kept the rally going with another single through shortstop. Then Lane stepped up and clouted his circuit blow over the bank in left field.

The Rooks came right back in the third, however. Lane issued walks to the first two men to face him, then found the plate only too well as Pederson slammed his round-tripper.

Oregon State picked up another run in the fifth after two were out. Pederson pounded out the first of his doubles, and Tommy Bowen brought him home with a single into center. Lane put out the fire by wringing cleanup man Larry Brown for the second time.

The Oregon fifth went thusly: Lane walked. Bob Cellers was safe on an error. Terry Burke beat out an attempted sacrifice to load the bases. Jim Pifher popped out. Jerry Waldrop walked, scoring Lane, and Dodge whacked his double into left scoring Cellers and Burke as the ball went past the catcher. Dick Jarvis and Simpson flew out to end the inning.

Gene Stott and Pederson scored the final runs for the Rooks. Pederson started off what might have been a game-winning rally in the ninth by doubling and scoring on a passed ball. But Lane took care of Brown on a dribbler to the mound, and LeRoy Hanley ended the game by grounding out to Shortstop Jimmy White.

Top-Rated Golfers To Face ND Foes

The conference-leading Oregon golf team will go into action at Moscow today in a Northern Division match with Idaho in the first of a weekend pair of meets.

The Ducks are riding atop the standings after two fairly easy wins over up-and-coming Washington and tough Oregon State. Idaho, as well as Washington State—who the Webfoots play Saturday—is not expected to give Coach Sid Milligan's team any trouble.

The Ducks took along a highly-rated group of divoteers to match strokes with the Vandals and Cougars, Captain Nell Dwyer, first man and the only double letterman in the squad, will lead the team composed of Bob Takano, Bob Norquist, Barry Ott, Justin Smith and Howard Zenger.

The Idaho team, which lost to Washington 20-7 but beat WSC 14½-12½ in their only two conference starts, is short of experienced swingers. First man is Bob Adamson, the school intramural champ of last year. The only two lettermen are Dave Powell and Bob Campbell. Other team members are Tom Lindsey, Bill Summers and John Benzin.

The WSC team is also short on letterman golfers. The Cougars feature Larry Graft in the first slot who shot a low of 74 in the WSC-Idaho match.

Sig Ep, Phi Psi Nines Get Softball Victories

Extra-base hits were the order of the day in Thursday intramural softball action, and Sigma Phi Epsilon, Phi Kappa Psi, the Legal Eagles and Alpha Tau Omega emerged victorious. In addition, Phi Delta Theta was awarded a forfeit win over Delta Tau Delta.

The Sig Eps massacred Delta Upsilon pitching and ran up a 24-4 winning margin. Five home runs were included in the carnage and Mike O'Hara stifled the DU bats with just one base hit.

Theta Chi tallied six runs in their half of the first inning, but the Phi Psi nine came right back to get seven tallies in both the second and third innings, and took an eventual 15-6 decision.

Larry Anderson outpitched Art Weatherford for the win and Everett Stiles led the way for the winners at bat by pounding out three hits, including a home run.

Marc Anderson's 2-for-2 hitting led the ATO's to a 4-1 win over Beta Theta Pi. Winning pitcher Jerry Hamilton spaced four Beta hits to overcome Dick Van Allen in a hurling duel.

And in the final game Max Ingerson pitched his Legal Eagles to a one-sided 9-2 win over the Dorm Counselor nine.

WSC, Vandals On Net Schedule

With a warm-up win over the Oregon Medical school Wednesday on their record, the Duck tennis team headed for the Inland Empire to meet the Idaho Vandals in Moscow today. Saturday, the Webfoots move over to Pullman to face Washington State.

Coach Hilbert Lee's netmen are strong contenders for the second spot in the division behind champion Washington. The Ducks took a 4-3 decision from Oregon State last weekend, but previously lost a 7-0 nod to the powerful Huskies.

In the Med School match, three former Northern Division stars almost led the losers to an upset win. Ex-Oregon star Ron Lowell and former OSC stand-out Pete Carter, along with another ex-Duck player in Martin Magi, were instrumental in the Medics fine showing.

It took a final doubles win by Dick Gray and Dick Hamilton to turn the tide to an Oregon victory. Gray and Hamilton downed Magi and his partner in straight sets, 6-2, 6-1.

All the points for the Medics were earned by Carter and Lowell. Carter beat Bob Baker in a singles match 1-6, 6-4 and Lowell polished off Ron Carlson, 6-3, 6-4. Gray, Hamilton and Don Bonime all won their singles contests, while Carter and Lowell teamed to defeat Baker and Carlson in the doubles.

For the WSC and Idaho matches, the usual five of Carlson, Baker, Bonime, Hamilton and Gray made the trip. The Idaho team has yet to score a point.

An all-junior team leads WSC, composed of Al Ostness, Gary Clifford, Bill Meyers, Tom Trimble and Jack Bannister. The Vandals claim four lettermen—Barry Rust, Sonny Long, Jim Richardson and Roy Clements—and Keith Spencer.
