Monday's Results
Oregon 7, Idaho 3.
Oregon moved into a commanding position in the Northern Division baseball race over the weekend, downing Washington State twice at Pullman. Scores were 9-5 on Friday and 7-2 on Saturday.
The losses were the first of the season for the Cougars and put a definite damper on their pen-

Kirsch Nine Tips Idaho Vandals, 7-3

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP)—The University of Oregon Ducks made it six in a row Monday afternoon by landing on three University of Idaho pitchers for 11 hits, seven runs and a 7-3 baseball victory over the Vandals.
The Ducks are undefeated in Northern Division action.
Terry Maddox gave up five hits to Idaho and pitched one hit ball until he was reached for three hits in the seventh inning.

nant hopes. The twin wins were the 10th and 11th straight for the Ducks and their fourth and fifth in ND play.

Game Today
Besides today's game with Idaho there is a Tuesday clash with the Vandals Thursday and Friday games with the Washington Huskies.

Friday's win over Washington State was featured by the superb pitching of Bill Garner. After starter Terry Maddox had given up five runs in the fourth to cut the Ducks' lead to 6-5, Garner came in to pitch six scoreless innings, allowing just three hits and striking out seven.

Righthander Bill Blodgett took command on Saturday, giving up but two runs in the ninth for a 7-2 win. The Cougars managed only four hits in the second game and six in the first. Oregon clubbed out 11 hits Friday and 12 Saturday.

Johnson Homers
The main batting punch was furnished by Pete Williams and Jim Johnson. Williams hit four-for-nine, including a double and triple. Johnson socked a two-run homer in Saturday's contest, his first four-master of the season. Maddox smashed a long homer on Friday, and Jerry Ross, Norm Forbes and Neal Marlett slugged triples, as the extra base hits rolled off the Webfoot bats.

Football Players Pass Beers, But Cops Intercept

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Police tackled four husky Yale football players behind the line of scrimmage early Sunday and slapped 'em under arrest.
It wasn't the Ivy league rule against spring practice the Bulldogs were breaching, said the cops, it was the peace.
Actually, Sgt. John Boyle said, it wasn't a football they were throwing around at a Central New Haven corner, it was beer. So if nobody won, at least everybody got wet.

Award Winners To Be Named This Weekend

Two outstanding Oregon athletes will be chosen for annual awards today when a senior and sophomore are picked to receive the annual Emerald athletic trophy and Doyle Higdon memorial trophy.
The two awards will be announced this weekend during Junior weekend ceremonies. The Higdon award, established this year in memory of the former football and track letterman who was killed last summer in a logging accident, will be given Friday. The Emerald award, the fifth annual one, will be announced Sunday at the all-campus sing.
Basis for both awards is excellence in athletics, scholarship and citizenship. All finalists for the award must have competed in varsity athletics, have at least a 2.5 GPA and have contributed something other than their athletic ability to general student activities.
Although this is the first year for the Higdon award, four past Oregon athletes have been chosen for the Emerald Athletic trophy award. Basketball star Jack Keller won the first year—1951—and winners since have included Jack Hutchins, track, 1952; Jim Livesay, baseball, 1953, and Ron Lowell, tennis, 1954.
Nominees for the Emerald award, all seniors, include:

- Football—LeRoy Campbell, Walt Gaffney, Don Holt, Keith Tucker, Dick Mobley, Jack Patera, Ron Pfeister, Hal Reeve, Dave Lowe, George Shaw, Chuck Greenley, Lloyd Powell and Dean Van Leuven.
 - Basketball—Howard Page and Jim Loscutoff.
 - Baseball—Bernie Averill, Jim Archer, Bill Blodgett, Pete Williams, Bob Wagner, Norm Forbes, Jim Johnson, Walt Badorek, Ken Hickenbottom, Bruce Springbett, Ken Reiser, Russ Mannex, Ben Lloyd and Jim Jones.
 - Golf—Neil Dwyer and Bob Takano.
 - Swimming—Harry Fuller and Phil Lewis.
 - Wrestling—Darrell Klamp and Bob Williams.
- Nominees for the Higdon award, all sophomores, include:
- Football—Chuck Austin, Gene Carpenter, Reanous Cochrane, Tom Crabtree, Steve Danchock, Gerald Dixon, John Hendrickson, Spike Hillstrom, Don Jacobs, Jim Laughton, Hank Loumena, Nick Markulis, Bill Moore, Wally Russell and Les Wolfe.
 - Basketball—Bob Anderson, Ed Bingham, Berge Borrevik, Rich Costi, John Lundell, Don McLain, Phil McHugh, Jack Sherman and Frank Werner.
 - Baseball—Ken Bond, Tom Bowen, Jim Lehl, Terry Maddox, Jack Nance, Sam Noto and Jim Pingree.
 - Track—Jim Bailey, Doug Basham, Arden Christensen, Jack Moad, Dave Newland, Martin Peligo and Terry Sullivan.
 - Tennis—Jim Larpenteur.
 - Golf—Don Bick, Chuck Huggins, Bob Norquist, Barry Ott and Mike Starling.
 - Swimming—Jim Bowles, Jim England, Bob Hays, Howard Hedinger and Phil Richter.
 - Wrestling—Ken Kesey.

Webfoots Nab Track Relays

Capturing 11 first places and topping three records in the process, Oregon's powerful track team swept to the Vancouver relays championship in Vancouver, B.C. Saturday, overwhelming the field with 156 points to 76 by runnerup Vancouver Olympic club, defending champ and host group.
A crowd of over 1500 braved rain and cold winds to watch the more than 400 cindermen from United States and Canada turn in some outstanding performances despite the conditions.
Oregon's half mile ace Jim Bailey raced to victory in the featured Roger Bannister mile run, turning in a record 4:15.0 time and edging teammate Bill Dellinger and ex-Washington ace two-miler Denny Meyer. Dellinger finished in 4:15.4 and Meyer was clocked in 4:21, all under Dellinger's mark of 4:23.4 set last year.

Awarded Trophy
Bailey also ran on the winning Webfoot sprint medley foursome and was awarded the Eilers trophy as the outstanding performer of the day.
Also setting new standards were the Ducks' two talented sophomore field men from Medford. Shot putter Jack Moad made the best effort of his career with a 50' 3" heave, bettering both the relays record and the Oregon school mark.
The broken meet record stood at 49' 10", set by Oregon State's Duane Eby in 1952. Bill Foskett was the old owner of the school standard at 49' 11", which had been good since 1937. Ed Bingham threw the javelin 195' 3" to top Bob Hall's heave of 188' 6 1/2" set for Willamette in 1950.
A third sophomore standout, Martin Pedigo, took both the broad jump and the hop, step and jump. His broad jump distance was 21' 8" and he covered 43' 11-4" in the hop, step and jump, a new event to him.

Oregon completely dominated the running relays, walking off with the 440, sprint medley, mile, and distance medley quartet contests.
Sweep Medleys
With Bailey on the sprint medley foursome were Arden Christensen, Hank Loumena and Dave Talbot. The Ducks won in 3:35.6. Loumena, Christensen, Pedigo and Bruce Springbett composed the quarter-mile team that took a 43.4 victory.
Springbett, Talbot, Christensen and Gordon Dahlquist each ran 440-yard legs on the winning mile relay, which the Webfoots took in 3:26.6. Talbot Dahlquist, Doug Clement and Ken Reiser made up the distance medley four that triumphed in 10:53.9.
Chuck Phillips high jumped 5' 11" for second place in that event, and Frosh standout Don Steen, competing not far from his home town of South Barnaby, B.C., was second in the javelin behind Bingham with 165-foot effort.
Springbett was third in the 100-yard dash, won by Henry Nelson of Long Beach, Cal., in 10.0. Alice Whitty, Vancouver girl attending Oregon, took the women's high jump with 4' 10".
