

Queen Voting Begins Wednesday

Voting on the five final candidates for Junior Weekend Queen will begin Wednesday morning and continue all day at the Student Union and Co-op. Students must present their student body cards to vote.

The winner of the election will become Junior Weekend Queen, and will be presented and crowned at the Junior Prom Friday night. The four finalists will serve as the Junior Weekend court.

The five candidates are:

Barbara Bailey

Barbara Bailey, a member of Alpha Phi, is a blue-eyed, brown-haired co-ed from Albany. Miss Bailey came to Oregon to major in general social sciences. She is minoring in education and plans to teach high school social living and history.

The attractive junior has been extremely active on campus this year. She is vice-president and junior adviser of the YWCA, vice-president of her sorority, chairman of collections for the Bunion Derby and chairman of theme selection for Homecoming.

Miss Bailey keeps busy with her various activities, and in her spare time enjoys swimming. She plans to return to Oregon to work for a master's degree in her major.

The Canoe Fete is high on the list of Miss Bailey's favorite events of Junior Weekend. She is looking forward to seeing how it will turn out, as it is "something new and a major interest on campus right now."

Betti Fackler

Betti Fackler, a Chi Omega, is from Long Beach, Calif. Miss Fackler is majoring in history and hopes to teach junior high social studies in California when she graduates from Oregon.

The green-eyed, light brown-haired junior is president of her sorority, was co-chairman of Homecoming, and is on the Bon Marche college board. Miss Fackler is also a member of Phi Theta Upsilon and chairman of the YWCA membership committee.

Reading, cooking, and watching sports are the main interests of the pretty co-ed when she is not busy with activities.

One of the events of Junior Weekend especially enjoyed by Miss Fackler is the All-Campus luncheon. She likes it "because everyone on campus is there and it's so much fun!"

Phyllis Pearson

Phyllis Pearson, a member of Alpha Chi Omega, claims Portland as her home town. Miss Pearson is majoring in elementary education and plans to teach the first grade when she graduates.

Serving as president of her sorority, secretary of the Student Union Board and co-chairman of the Junior Weekend luncheon, Miss Pearson is busy on campus this year. She is also a member of Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's honorary.

The brown-eyed, brown-haired co-ed loves to sew, ski and participate in "almost any sport."

Her most time-consuming hobby at the present is Andy Berwick, to whom the pretty Miss Pearson is pinned.

The All-Campus Sing is Miss Pearson's favorite Junior Weekend event. She enjoys it because "it's always so nice to hear both the men's and women's voices, and the songs are so pretty and impressive."

Jackie Robertson

Jackie Robertson, a Pi Beta Phi, is from Portland. Miss Robertson, a hazel-eyed, brown-haired junior has been active at Oregon this year.

Jackie was co-chairman of hospitality for Dad's Weekend, is on the Bon Marche college board and is pledge supervisor for her sorority. She was also a junior adviser for the YWCA this year and served on the cabinet.

The attractive junior is majoring in elementary education and plans to teach the first grade upon graduation from Oregon. She likes to draw and golf in her spare time.

The busy co-ed likes every event of Junior Weekend, but is looking forward especially to this year's newly inaugurated Canoe Fete.

Gail West

Gail West, a member of Alpha Delta Pi, is also from Portland. Miss West is majoring in education and plans to teach the second or primary grades when she graduates from Oregon.

Miss West is the only blond member of the 1955 Junior Weekend court and has been extremely active this year. She is past treasurer of the YWCA, vice-chairman of Religious Evaluation Week, president of her sorority, president of heads of houses and on the student-faculty discipline committee. She is also vice-president of Phi Theta Upsilon.

The blue-eyed junior likes to swim and sew in her spare time and is looking forward to the Canoe Fete this year. She is especially interested in the success of the new event.
