

UO Divoters Set Corvallis Jaunt

The final dual match of the 1955 campaign is in store for Oregon's golf team Saturday when the determined Duck squad plays Oregon State at Corvallis. Oregon will be heavily favored after the strong Webfoot team downed the Beavers, 19-2, in the first match between the old rivals earlier this year.

Beavers on Home Course

Coach Jim Barrett's OSC team will have the advantage of their home course, a hilly nine-hole layout, and should give the Ducks a stiff test. Monday the Beavers downed a strong University of Columbia squad, 11 1/2-9 1/2, in a warmup for the week-end match.

Both the Beavers and Webfoots ran into tough competition in the Inland Empire last week-end and emerged with only a win and a tie out of four matches. A surprising Idaho team, host for this year's ND tournament, beat both OSC and Oregon while the Ducks beat WSC, who tied OSC.

Ducks Tied for Lead

Oregon currently is tied for first place with Idaho in the dual match standings and must win over Oregon State to be assured of a share in the title, which it has not lost since 1948. Idaho has only a match with weak WSC remaining. OSC is in the cellar in the standings.

Webfoot Coach Sid Milligan will probably use his full squad in the 36-hole match in an effort to find the right combination for the four-man conference tournament scheduled for Moscow May 20-21.

Cloniger OSC Ace

Captain Neil Dwyer, the Ducks only two-year letterman, will probably take the Number One spot as usual. He will likely play against Jerry Cloniger, the Beaver junior who last summer won the Idaho and Montana open crowns.

The rest of the Oregon team will include ace Sophomores Don Bick, Bob Norquist, Barry Ott and Chuck Huggins along with Letterman Howard Zenger and Bob Takano and veteran Justin Smith.

The rest of OSC's team will include Bob Donnelly, the long-ball hitter from Portland and the ND medalist in 1954 as a sophomore, Larry Trogen, the only Beaver senior, Ray Lindquist, Neils Reimers and Al Wood.

Sigs Slam ATO With Slugfest

Forfeits marred two softball games and both track meets in intramural action Tuesday, but the eight houses did get in softball play made up for the lack with some rousing performances.

In one of the featured contests of the day, Sigma Chi kept its unblemished league record intact with an 18-6 pasting of Alpha Tau Omega.

Second Big Inning

Rich Butler for the Sigs and Jerry Hamilton of the ATO's held their opponents to one run apiece in the first inning, but the ATO's went wild with five in the second and the winners countered with a tremendous 17-run effort. Keith Barker for the Sigs and Bill Moore of the ATO's both connected for grand slam home runs.

The tightest game of the Tuesday slate saw Sigma Nu edge Sigma Phi Epsilon, 5-4, in six innings with good pitching performances by both squads' hurlers. Larry Blanc of the winners and Gene Bowles of the Sig Eps limited both teams' batsmen to singles.

Beta's Top Delt's

Len Overholser contributed a home run in his own behalf, but was unable to salvage the Delta Tau Delta contest with Beta Theta Pi, as the Beta's turned in a 7-5 victory. Alan Dale got a triple for the Deltas.

The French hall softballers used a good pitching job by Ed Forbes to hand the Straub Frosh their first league loss, 5-3. It was the third French win against two defeats.

Two Get Forfeits

Phi Kappa Psi took a forfeit triumph from Delta Upsilon and Hale Kane and the Dorm Counselors each took forfeit losses as neither fielded enough men to gain a non-playing win.

Philadelphia house and Cheryne hall were credited with 50-0 forfeit victories in track when Nestor hall and the Yeomen failed to show up.

Oregon's highest finish in an NCAA track meet came in 1939 when the Ducks scored 16 points for seventh place.

Frosh Cindermen Down WSC Runners

Paced by the double victories of Jack Morris, the Oregon freshman cinder squad downed Washington State's Cougar Cubs, 82 1/2-45 1/2, Wednesday in a telegraphic dual meet.

Morris, ex-Medford national low hurdle champion, bettered the Hayward field record for the 220-yard low hurdles by one-tenth of a second with a 23.3 time, but the mark will not be registered as a new standard as the competition was in a telegraphic instead of regular meet.

The time is the second best of the year in national collegiate action. Joel Shankle of Duke has run a 23.2, and Joe Gorham of Memphis State and Mickey Maramonte of San Jose State share 23.3 times with Morris.

In addition to capturing the low stick win, Morris raced the 100-yard dash in 9.8 for one of the top performances of the year in the Northern Division.
