GRETCHEN KLOMHAUS, sophomore member of Delta Delta Delta, was crowned the Rose Queen of Pi Kappa Phi at the fraternity's annual Rose Ball April 30. Miss Klomhaus was selected for the honor by house members from girls attending the dance.

AWS to Present Awards, Tributes

A wide array of honors, tributes and awards will be announced next Tuesday at the AWS honors assembly, according to Jeanne Scales, chairman of the event.

The honors assembly will be held at 1 p.m. in the Student Union ballroom and all students, faculty members and friends are invited to attend.

The event is sponsored by AWS but all women's organizations awards will be presented. Presentations will include those awards usually presented at the AWS recognition dessert and those awards which were presented at the all-campus sing and luncheon.

Anyone wishing to present an award to an individual or a group at this assembly should contact Miss Scales at 5-7662.

The lowest score ever posted by an individual in the Northern Division golf tournament was Dick Yost's 133 for 36 holes in 1949. His two rounds were 11 under par.

Thetas to Present Miss Davis Award

Kappa Alpha Theta has announced that the annual Janet Davis scholarship will be presented at the AWS Honors Assembly May 17.

Application forms are available at the office of Mrs. Golda Wickham, associate director of student affairs, and are due in that office May 16. Award of the scholarship will be based upon need, merit and scholarship. The amount of the scholarship is not yet determined.

Miss Davis was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta at the University of Oregon before her fatal plane crash in 1948.

Outstanding Fresh In Math Picked

David Moursund has been selected by the University mathematics department as the outstanding freshman in math.

Moursund will be the recipient of the "C.R.C. Standard Mathematical Tables" donated by the Chemical Rubber company.

At Alpha Chi Omega

Alpha Chi's feted their house-mother, Mrs. McKenny, Sunday evening at a Mother's Day Fireside. They presented her with an Alpha Chi Omega mother's pin.

Cecily Ley was pinned to Bob Helber following his Sigma Nu house dance Saturday night.

At Alpha Delta Pi

Carol Baldwin announced her engagement to Walt Lovell, Chi Psi, at the house Monday night. The secret was revealed with the traditional A D Pi custom of individual announcements at the dinner table. The couple plan to be married this fall in Eugene.

At Delta Delta Delta

Sunday was the date of the traditional Pansy Ring Tea when engaged senior girls from the entire campus are honored by the Tri Delt chapter.

Saturday evening was doubly eventful for the members of Delta Delta Delta and Sigma Nu. Besides the pinning of Joan McKinzie to Bob Crail which took place at the Sigma Nu house dance, the Sigma Nu's also awarded a white star of flowers to the Tri Delt for the second consecutive year for having the most girls in attendance at their dance.

At Delta Gamma

Joan Kerr announced her pinning to her Delta Gamma sisters last Thursday at dinner. She is pinned to graduate student Bob Smith, Sigma Chi.

At Delta Zeta

Shirley Fintell, a Delta Zeta here last term, will be married May 21 at the Albany Evangelical United Brethren church to Ronald Gordon Hammack, Albany.
