8000 Spectators Expected For Tonight's Canoe Fete

By Sue Lamb
Emerald Reporter

Tonight—8:15 — an expected 8000 people will witness the opening of the 1955 Canoe Fete on the Millrace.

The University Singers and symphony orchestra will open the show with "As I Sit and Dream at Evening," the general theme of the Fete. Fifteen floats will flow down the millrace before the audience. Leading the parade will be the float carrying the Queen and her court, built by Campbell Club and Kappa Alpha Theta.

The other non-competitive float, built by Alpha hall and Delta Delta Delta, is a comic float which will be the last float down the race.

All floats for the Fete must be completed by 10 a.m. today. Participants in the parade must have their special passes to enter the float construction area.

Living organization chairman who have not yet obtained passes for those riding on the floats may get them by contacting Sally Jo Greig at Pi Beta Phi or Darrel Brittsan at Sigma Phi Epsilon. Floats must be lined up and ready to go by 8 p.m. tonight. Following is the order in which the floats will appear in the parade:

Floats Listed

1. Queen's float.
2. "Forest Fantasy" Lambda Chi Alpha, Chi Psi, Alpha Gamma Delta and Ann Judson house.
3. "Spirit of the Sea" Sigma Phi Epsilon and Pi Beta Phi.
4. "The Lure of the East" Sigma Alpha Mu, Alpha Omicron Pi, Phi Kappa Sigma and Kappa Sigma.
5. "La Fete Moderne" Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Kappa and Zeta Tau Alpha.
6. "Venetian Nights" Sigma Chi, Chi Omega and Highland House.
7. "La Fete Fantastique" Phi Gamma Delta, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Carson hall and Alpha Xi Delta. 8. "Where Rolls the Oregon," Phi Kappa Psi and Gamma Phi Beta. 9. "Float of Songs" Sigma Nu, Phi Sigma Kappa and Alpha Delta Pi. 10. "Babes in Toyland" Alpha Tau Omega, University house and Kappa Kappa Gamma. 11. "Alice in Wonderland" Theta Chi, Delta Zeta and Orides. 12. "Arabian Nights" Beta Theta Pi and Alpha Phi.

13. "Of Thee I Sing" Alpha Chi Omega, Delta Tau Delta and Delta Upsilon. 14. "Float of the Present" Philadelphia house, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Delta Gamma and Rebec house. 15. Comic float.

Floats appear in chronological order, according to the dates of past canoe fetes from which the individual themes have been taken.

While judges are choosing the winning floats, the William Frager Skull and Dagger award, and the Burt Brown Barker Scholarship will be presented.

Sixteen Houses to Compete In All-Campus Sing Sunday

Sixteen campus living organizations will compete in the two divisions of the 15th annual All Campus Sing Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in Mac Arthur Court.

Permanent trophies will be awarded to the top three in each division and the first place winners will also be awarded possession of the traveling trophy. The two first place awards have been donated by University jewelers.

Competing in the women's division are Ann Judson House, Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Delta Zeta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Pi Beta Phi, Sigma Kappa, Delta Zeta, and University House.

Men's organizations singing are Beta Theta Pi, Campbell

Franklin Blvd will handle six-lane traffic tonight for the Fete. Street blockades will be erected on Onyx at 13th and at Franklin, and 11th street at Kincaid. Traffic on 11th Ave. will be re-routed down 13th. Blockades will also be set up on 11th at Franklin.

City and state officials will cooperate in manually directing the traffic. The Army ROTC Guard under the command of Carl Groth will direct pedestrian traffic. Pedestrians may cross the highway at Onyx Street and the east end of 11th Ave.

The Lane County Sheriff's posse will guard the area. No one will be permitted inside the roped areas without official passes or tickets.

Gates will open at 7:15. Parking facilities on campus will be open to all attending the Fete. There will be no parking on Franklin Boulevard from Agate to Hilyard Street.

Club, Delta Tau Delta, Phi Delta Theta, Philadelphia House, Sigma Chi, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Theta Chi.

Judges will be Mr. David White of Albany, Norman K. Whitney of Bend, and Mr. Don Gleckler from Willamette University in Salem.

While the judges are deciding the winner four annual awards will be made. Dr. Carl Hintz will present the Harpam Cup; Mr. William Russell will make the Maurice Hunter Harold award; Mr. Leo Harris will present the Emerald Athletic trophy; and Bob Summers will present the Friars Scroll. Summers will also act as master of ceremonies.

Junior Weekend Luncheon To Be Held Today at Noon

One of the oldest features of Junior Weekend, the all-campus luncheon, will be held from 11:45 a.m. to 1:45 p.m. today on the old campus lawn, weather permitting. In case of rain, it will be held in McArthur court.

The luncheon dates back to the days when Junior Weekend was University Day. In 1908, when the first annual Junior Weekend was held, the luncheon was designed primarily to feed men busy on campus improvement.

A program for the weekend states "while the work is progressing on the campus, athletic field and the Butte, the women of the University will be busy preparing the luncheon in the Dormitory kitchens. The reception room of the Dormitory will be utilized for the tables of the different classes, decorated appropriately in the different class colors.

"The menu, although simple, will be substantial and abundant, consisting of sandwiches and coffee made by the Freshman girls, cold meats and potato chips supplied by the sophomores, salads and pickles by the Juniors and ice cream and cake by the Seniors."

Much has been added to the luncheon over the past 47 years. Now the food is prepared by a private contractor and served by members of Phi Theta Upsilon, Kwama and Skull and Dagger. The menu is even more simple: (?) hot dogs, potato salad with punch, pickles, potato chips and all of the trimmings.

The program, too, has changed during the years. The queen and her court, dressed in formals, preside over the picnic. They will make their entrance with their escorts through an arch of crossed sabres. Members of the Scabbard and Blade sabre squad will form the arch.

On the program before the queen's recessional at 1:35 are tappings by Kwama, Skull and Dagger, Friars and Mortar Board.

Music for the luncheon will be furnished by Doug Ruhlman.

Luncheon tickets will be on sale for 45 cents at the luncheon site.

Germaine LaMarche, Vahey Awarded Cups

Betti Fackler was crowned Junior Weekend queen by University President O. Meredith Wilson during intermission of the prom Friday night.

Miss Fackler, who is a junior in history from Long Beach, California, was sponsored in the queen race by Chi Omega, Phi Kappa Psi and Sigma Phi Epsilon.

The active brunette is president of Chi Omega, a member of Phi Theta Upsilon, a member of the Bon Marche college board, chairman of the YWCA membership committee and a member of AGS.

She was co-chairman of this year's homecoming weekend, and was a member of the YWCA sophomore cabinet last year.

Gerlinger Cup

Germaine LaMarche was recipient of the Gerlinger cup, which is awarded annually to the outstanding junior woman on campus.

Recently elected general YWCA president, Miss LaMarche has served at an ASUO senator-at-large during this school year and has been president of Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's honorary.

She served as a member of the AWS executive council, and is a counselor at Susan Campbell hall. Her YWCA activities this year include being chairman of the International Affairs Commission, conference chairman, senior cabinet member, regional finance and resources chairman, and delegate to National Student Assembly and Seabeck conference.

The junior in Far Eastern studies is originally from Hurley, Wisconsin, and her parents now make their home in Springfield.

Koyl Cup

The Koyl cup, for outstanding junior man, was awarded to Sam Vahey, newly-elected ASUO vice-president.

Extremely active in Emerald and ASUO positions, Vahey has been sports editor, assistant managing editor and chief make-up editor of the Emerald.

He was vice-president of last year's sophomore class, and has served as a senator-at-large during this school year.

A member of Druids, junior men's honorary, he has been both president and vice-president of his living organization, Campbell Club. He was also a member of Skull and Dagger, sophomore men's honorary.

He has served as publicity chairman of the rally board during the year, and is currently promotion co-chairman for Junior Weekend.

Vahey's inter-school activities have been concerned with the regional Independent Students' association, of which he is currently vice-president.

Vahey's home is in Gresham, and he is a junior in business-architecture.

Doyle Higdon Award

The Doyle Higdon award, given jointly by Druids, Skull and Dagger and Order of the O, was presented to Phil McHugh, who was also tapped for membership in Druids.

McHugh is a sophomore in English from Portland, and lettered this year in football and basketball.

As a sophomore he was a regular end on the football team for part of the season, and tied for seventh place in the coast league for pass receptions.

McHugh was a regular guard on the basketball team, and placed nineteenth in Northern Division scoring for this basketball season.

He is a member of Skull and Dagger, and has above a 3.0 cumulative grade-point average.

The Higdon award is presented to the memory of Doyle Higdon, who was killed last summer and who was a football and track letterman, and a member of Druids, Skull and Dagger and Command Squadron.

The award was presented to McHugh by Higdon's mother, Mrs. Philip Higdon, of Cottage Grove, Oregon. It is for a sophomore man who combines athletic ability, high scholarship and campus leadership.

Druids Tap

New members of Druids, junior men's honorary, tapped at the prom include Doug Basham, Darrel Brittsan, Phil McHugh, Don Peck and Bill Mainwaring.

Basham is newly-elected junior class president, and served as senator-at-large during this school year. He was class representative during his freshman year, and is a member of Skull and Dagger.

Brittsan, newly-elected ASUO senator-at-large, served as president of the sophomore class this year. He is currently president of Sigma Phi Epsilon, and is also a member of Skull and Dagger.

McHugh is Higdon award recipient, and a football and basketball letterman as well as being a member of Skull and Dagger.

Peck, newly-selected business manager for next year's Oregonian is likewise a Skull and Dagger. He served as Oregonian sales manager for this year's book.

Mainwaring, another Skull and Dagger member, is currently a member of the traffic court and is advertising manager of the Emerald.
