

Army and Air Force Units to be in Parade

With nine armed forces units on hand, Saturday's Armed Forces Day Parade, including Air Force and Army ROTC cadets and personnel from the campus, will be one of the largest ever held in Eugene.

The parade will be held in conjunction with the Register-Guard-sponsored Pet Parade. Armed forces units will lead the line of march, beginning at 10 a.m., turning onto Willamette street from Broadway and marching north on Willamette to 14th.

As an added feature a flight of three Air Force F-89 jet fighters will fly over the city at 10 a.m. One of them will land at Mahlon-Sweet airport and be on display until 3:30 p.m.

Order of Parade

The marching order is Springfield high school band, Marine Corps Reserve, Naval Reserve, Eugene high school band, Army Reserve, National Guard, ROTC units (with bands), Veterans groups, Ground Observers and Civil Defense, Gold Star Mothers, and other "patriotic groups."

The ROTC order of march is Army ROTC Little Colonel, Army ROTC Band, Army Corps of Cadets, Army Drill Team, Massed Colors, Air Force Drill Team, Air Force Little Colonel, Air Force ROTC Band, Air Force ROTC Wing.

Cosmo Club Plans Dinner

A Chinese dinner will be given Friday night by Cosmopolitan club. Following the dinner will be a program of music and folk dancing.

Dress for the dinner is semi-formal or national costumes.

Tickets are now on sale for $1 in either the YWCA office in Gerlinger hall or the YMCA office in the Student Union. Tickets must be purchased by Wednesday.

The dinner will begin at 8 p.m. at the Plymouth house.

Agriculture Major Named OSC Editor

CORVALLIS (AP)—James E. Lattie, Medford, last Saturday was named editor and Robert C. Scott, Salem, business manager, of the Barometer, Oregon State college student daily newspaper.

Lattie, a junior in agriculture, has been news editor the past year. Scott, a junior in business and technology, has been advertising manager in charge of national advertising.

The appointments were made by the publications committee.

Emerald Petitions Due This Week

Petitions for the editor and business manager positions on next year's Emerald are being called for this week.

Deadline for submitting the petitions is Friday at 5 p.m. They should be turned in at 308 Allen.

The Publications board will meet at 7 p.m. May 24 to choose the two executives.

Papers Read At Joint Meet On Psychology

Two instructors and one graduate student from the psychology department presented papers at a joint meeting of State of Washington and Oregon Psychological associations, held at the University of Portland May 13 and 14.

Allen Parducci, instructor, and Kenneth Brookshire, graduate student, collaborated on "Figural After-effect with Tachistoscopic Presentations." Parducci also gave a paper on the "Direction of Shift in the Judgment of Single Stimuli."

Norman Sundberg, assistant professor of psychology, discussed the "Estimation of Intelligence by Interview and by Test."

New president-elect of the Oregon Psychological association is Leona Tyler, associate professor of psychology here.

Six staff members and 10 graduate students from the University attended the conference.

Teams to Compete For Drill Trophy

Today at 2 p.m. the Army and Air Force ROTC drill teams will compete for the Master Sergeant Walter Ledbetter trophy, awarded annually to the winning group.

The Air Force drill team will perform first, followed by the Army team. The judges decision and the awarding of the trophy will complete the ceremony.

M-Sgt. Ledbetter donated the trophy last year. It was won by the Air Force drill team then.

Judges for the event will be Captain Gordon Lippman, Captain John O'Connell and Major Charles Wiper, officers of local reserve units.

'Prior Claim' To Be Shown

"The Prior Claim," a 45-minute sound-color movie, will be shown tonight at 7 in the science building auditorium.

The film, which is being sponsored by the Inter-varsity Christian fellowship, was produced by the Moody Institute of Science in Los Angeles. It deals with a comparison of the modern day inventions of man and the lower forms of animal life and attempts to show that the two operate on the same principles.

The movie is open to all faculty members and students and there is no admission charge.

Tryouts Tonight For Rally Squad

Rally Squad tryouts will be held tonight at 6:30 in Gerlinger annex for both men and women applicants.

Girls trying out for the squad are to wear shorts and will dance to the Oregon Fight song.

The men are to give one yell of their choice and then give the D-U-C-K chant.
