

Socolofsky Is SU Board Chairman

Dick Gray to Be Assistant Chairman

By Loretta Meyer
Emerald Reporter

Jack Socolofsky, junior in political science, was elected Student Union board chairman for next year at the board meeting Wednesday. He succeeds Andy Berwick, senior in business. Socolofsky stated that with the possibility of an increased tee and a member of the directorate.

The new directorate chairman is Lucia Knepper, junior in English, replacing Donna Schafer. She served as regional secretary of the Association of College Student Unions, was chairman of the music committee and a member of the directorate.

New appointments to the board by President O. Meredith Wilson were announced. They include Don Peck, appointed for two years from the college of liberal arts; Jody Rogers, a two year post from the school of mu-

'Kiss Me Kate' To Open Friday

Friday will mark the opening of the University Theater spring musical. This year's offering will be the Spewack-Porter Broadway musical comedy, "Kiss Me Kate." The performances, which will play Friday and Saturday, will continue their run May 23 through 28.

The story of the production of the musical version of the Shakespearean comedy, "Taming of the Shrew," is being directed by Horace Robinson, associate professor of speech.

Claire Fry, in her first University Theater appearance, is doubled in the leading role, the part of Kate (Lilli), with Mary Lou Teague. Audiences will remember Miss Teague for her performance two years ago in "Brigadoon."

Howard Is Tamer

The tamer of the shrew and the producer of the play within the play, Petruchio (Fred Graham), will be played by Gordon Howard, a veteran of long standing in the University Theater.

Bianca, lovely younger sister of Kate, is also double-cast for the production. Gloria Lee, who is also one of the choreographers for the show, will share the part with Dalece Peterson. Miss Peterson was Jenny, the flirtatious maid, in "The Contrast."

Dick Barbour, UT musical veteran, plays the role of Bill Calhoun and Lucentio, the winning suitor for Bianca's hand. Kate's father, Baptista, is played by John Powell, who is well known on campus for his many activities in the Speech department, and Bruce Emmons plays Lilli's elderly statesman suitor, Harrison Howell.

Colored Servants

Donna Barrick and Mark Tapscott, who many theater audiences will remember, have captured the roles of the colored servants to Fred and Lilli, Hatti and Paul.

Bianca's other two suitors, Gremio and Hortensio, will be played by Bill Veatch and Scott Lehner. Both of these performers have played many roles in both musical and non-musical productions.

The two gunmen, who supply perhaps the comic scenes in the production, will be played by Tom Gaines and Bob Chambers.

Risinger Trains Chorus

Choreographer and dance directors for the production have been John Jensen and Gloria Lee, who also appear in the performances. The pre-production training of the chorus and principals has been handled by M. D. Risinger, assistant professor of music. R. G. Cunningham, instructor in woodwinds, will conduct the chorus and orchestra for the show.

Daniel Krempel, instructor in speech, designed the settings that were constructed by UT's technical director, Howard Ra-me and his crew. Wilma Sundahl designed and made the costumes for the production.

Tickets, which will sell for $2, can be reserved by calling ext. 401 or 5-1511. Season ticket holders will be able to purchase tickets with $1 and a stub from their season ticket.

Receipts Due Co-op Friday

Students are reminded by G. L. Hensen, Co-op manager, to turn in their Co-op receipts by 5 p.m. Friday. There are 3000 Co-op members this year, the highest percentage of students in history. The dividend is to be determined by the board of directors in June.

Senate Will Elect, Approve Nomination

Election of a parliamentarian and approval of the ASUO cabinet appointees and rally board nominations for yell king will occupy the ASUO Senate at its first meeting tonight at 6:30 in the Student Union.

The agenda for the meeting includes:

Roll call.

Explanation of Senate and ASUO organization.

Selection of Senate parliamentarian.

Old Business—Millrace report, test files report, student body card report, rifle team report, athletic hall of fame report.

New business—approval of yell king, approval of appointive officers of cabinet.

Members of the Senate were officially installed at the ASUO banquet last week. Holdover members include Bud Hinkson, ACUO president; Sam Vahey, ASUO vice-president; Doug Basham, junior class president; Jim Lynch, sophomore class president, and Darrell Brittsan, Brian Booth, Louie Blue, Anne Ritchey and Rob Roy, senators at large.

Attending their first senate meeting will be Martin Brandenfels, senior class president; Kip Wharton, senior class vice-president; Patty Fagan and Sam Frear, senior class representatives; Carl Groth, junior class vice-president; Sally Jo Greig and Charlsie Parker, junior class representatives; Dale Bajema, sophomore class vice-president, and Jim Hilands and Betty Herrman, sophomore class representatives.

Creative Arts Show Tonight

The The University's Creative Arts Workshop will be presented in the Student Union ballroom at 7:30 tonight.

Included on the program will be several entertainment features presented by University students. All work on the program has been done by students.

One of the features of the show will be a radio drama entitled "Bright Lights and Heavy Hearts," directed by Jean Smith. Another highlight will be the appearance of Roger Middleton's quintet and its interpretation of progressive jazz.

Among other things on the program are a ballet, a play, a string quartet, some fairy dancers and the reading of several poems. In addition there will be literature and art exhibits in the SU browsing room.

New senators at large include Chuck Mitchelmore, Ann Erickson, Mary Claire Allen and Richard McDaniel.

Band to Give Pops Concert

A Pops Concert will be presented in the outdoor theater on the east side of the music school this evening by the University Concert band if the weather permits. In case of inclement weather, the concert will be 7 p.m. Tuesday.

Paul Creston's new overture for band, "Celebration Overture," will be the first selection for the group, to be led by Robert Vagner and Ira Lee, assistant director.

"Buglers Holiday" by Leroy Anderson will be performed next, with Marshall Pallett, James Albert and Vondis Miller featured on the cornets, and Larry Meyers, Jack Sluss and Jack Murphy playing the trumpets. "Aztec Dance" and "Carnival" from "La Fiesta Mexicana," by H. Owen Reed is next.

Following this number is the love scene from the Opera "Boris Godounov" by Moussorgsky; "Two Etudes," featuring the clarinet and cornet sections by Rose and Arban, several Jerome Kern selections and "Italian Polka" by Rachmaninoff.

Concluding the program will be three marches, "Michigan" by Goldman, "Nutmeggers" by Ostling and "Mighty Oregon" by Perfect.

JACK SOCOLOFSKY, named next year's Student Union Board chairman at Wednesday's meeting of the group.

DICK GRAY, junior in business administration, was selected assistant SU Board chairman Wednesday. Gray has been SU publicity chairman this year.

University enrollment in the near future, plans are being made to study SU building expansion and improvement and expansion of the entire building program.

Appointed as a representative from the college of liberal arts, Socolofsky has served as assistant chairman of the board, chairman of special attractions and personnel chairman. He has also been a member of the dance committee and was on the SU directorate.

Gray Assistant

Dick Gray, junior in business, will replace Socolofsky as assistant chairman. He was chairman of the publicity committee this year and served on the directorate.

Newly-elected secretary is Lolly Quackenbush, sophomore in history. She was public relations chairman and a member of the directorate this year. She replaces Phyllis Pearson.

Don Peck, sophomore in history, is the new treasurer, succeeding Sonia Edwards. He was chairman of the dance committee; Helen Ruth Johnson, two year post from the school of health and physical education, Edward Fadeley, one year post from the school of law; Lucia Knepper and Dick Gray, junior members-at-large for one year and Lolly Quackenbush, sophomore member-at-large for two years.

Other members for next year include Donald DuShane, director of student affairs; Sonia Edwards, member-at-large; A. L. Ellingson, SU director; Bud Hinkson, ASUO president-elect; Phyllis Pearson, representative from the school of education; Sally Ryan, representative from the school of journalism; John Shaffer, representative from the school of business, and Sam Vahey, ASUO vice-president-elect.

Plans Announced for Armed Forces Day

Plans have been announced for the Armed Forces Day Parade, which will be held Saturday morning. All Air Force and Army ROTC units will be included.

Eight other military units will march in the service section, which will be combined with the Register-Guard annual pet parade.

ROTC cadets will form on campus at 9 a.m., following staff meetings for officers at 8:45. All units will be inspected before the cadets move out.

Military units will lead the line of march, which is east on 13th to High street, south on High, east on Broadway to Willamette, north on Willamette to 14th, and then back to the campus.

Three Air Force F-89 jet fighters will fly over Eugene at about 10 a.m. in conjunction with the parade. One will land at Mahlon Sweet airport and be on display until 3:30 p.m.

The order of march for ROTC units is Army ROTC Little Colonel, Army ROTC band, Army corps of cadets, Army drill team, massed colors, Air Force drill team, Air Force ROTC Little Colonel, Air Force ROTC band, and Air Force ROTC cadets.

Other groups in the military division include the Springfield high band, Marine Corps Reserve, Eugene high band, Army Reserve, National Guard units, veterans groups, civil defense and ground observers, Gold Star Mothers and other patriotic groups.