of Beta Theta Pi. Berwick wanted to know why the Greek houses shouldn't get credit for the Oreg. or be able to put it out, if they pay for it. The booklet costs from $600 to $900 a year.

An IFC committee of Bob McCracken, President Kent Dorwin, Jack Socolofsky, Jerry Farrow, Jim Martin and Leighton Wilbur, some of whom have already been working on the problem, scheduled further discussions with DuShane for 10 a.m. today.

Dorwin promised some decision by the time of the IFC meeting next Thursday.
