

Oregon Athletes Bring Home Bacon

Ducks Champions In Track; Baseball

By Jerry Claussen
Emerald Co-Sports Editor

Oregon spring sports teams captured two team championships and tied for second in another event in Northern Division competition Friday and Saturday.

Coach Don Kirsch's baseball team won its third straight conference title as the Ducks beat out Oregon State by a narrow margin. The two teams played two double-headers Friday and Saturday and Oregon's two wins were all that was needed.

A strong Webfoot track team also repeated its Northern Division first place of 1954 in the annual league meet at Seattle. The Duck team won by less than three points over Washington, with Australian sophomore Jim Bailey's winning finish in the mile relay sealing the victory for Coach Bill Bowerman's team.

Tennis Team Ties

The Oregon tennis team improved over its third-place finish of last year as it tied for second with OSC in the ND tennis meet, won by Washington for the 16th time since 1937. The Duck golf team was fifth in the tournament at Moscow, an event also won by Washington.

The baseball championship gave Oregon the right to meet USC in Los Angeles this weekend in the Pacific Coast Conference playoff. The track team will host the PCC meet Friday and Saturday here at Hayward field.

The main star in Oregon's two victories in four games with the OSC baseball team was pitcher Terry Maddox, who was the winner of both Oregon victories and pitched in three out of the four.

Five Winners

Oregon had five first place winners in the division track meet. Ken Reiser, Bill Dellinger, Bailey, Martin Pedigo and the relay team brought home blue ribbons in leading the Webfoots to the victory.

Reiser was the top performer of the day when he broke both the meet and Oregon school marks in the two-mile run with a clocking of 9:11.3. He and Dellinger were repeaters as winners, Dellinger taking the mile for the second year in a row. Bailey won the 880 and Pedigo captured the high jump.

The baseball victory was decided in the second inning of Saturday's game when the Ducks exploded for seven runs. Oregon had won Friday's first game, then lost the next two. But the final 10-4 win was decisive.

Details on sports pages.

Brittsan Elected To Senate Position

Darrell Brittsan, senator at large, was elected ASUO Senate parliamentarian at the first meeting of the Senate held Thursday night. Brittsan is serving his third term on the Senate.

Also elected was Richard McDaniels as sergeant-at-arms. McDaniels is also a senator at large.

BILL DELLINGER
Wins Another Mile

Honorary Initiates 23 Frosh Women

Twenty-three freshmen women have been initiated into Alpha Lambda Delta, scholastic honorary for freshmen women.

Grade requirements for the honorary are a 3.5 grade point average for the first two terms.

Initiates are Lee Blaesing, Alice Cashman, Sharron McCabe, Mary McCroskey, Jean McPherson, Sandra Wurtz, Marion Baum, Sandra Schori, Marsha Meyers, Shirlee Warren, Mary Jo Fourier, Myrtle Johnson, Lela Lorenzen, Dorothy McBroom, Mollie Monroe, Donna Nickols, Susan Ryder, Loretta Schelske, Esther Strom, Margery Ziniker, Annette Rowland, Donna Bell and Helen Ann Knight.

NAACP Legal Council Speaks in SU Today

Thurgood Marshall, legal counsel for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, will speak at the 1 p.m. assembly Tuesday in the Student Union ballroom.

Segregation will be the subject of his talk.

Marshall has appeared before the U. S. Supreme Court and federal and state courts, particularly in the South. He has won 11 of 14 cases in which he has appeared before the Supreme Court.

His recent victory was the Court's decision of May 17, 1954, which held that "separate but equal" facilities in education were unconstitutional.

Dean Gordon Sabine to Take Over Deanship at Michigan State College

Gordon A. Sabine, dean of the journalism school, has resigned to go to Michigan State university as dean of the school of communication arts.

Sabine's resignation which was announced Friday will become effective July 1.

Charles T. Duncan, professor of journalism, will be acting dean until formal action can be taken, according to President O. Meredith Wilson.

Included in the Michigan program are the fields of journalism and speech. Enrollment this year in the department is 902 majors and 1829 pre-professional majors.

Ninth largest in the nation, the university has a total enrollment over 15,000.

Dean of journalism at Oregon since 1950, Sabine came to the University in 1948. Before that he taught in journalism schools at the Universities of Minnesota, Wisconsin and Kansas.

Sabine graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1939 and got his master's degree there in 1941. He received his doctorate from the University of Minnesota in 1949.

While on the Oregon campus Sabine was successful in his efforts to build a new journalism building. Eric W. Allen hall was finished last summer and dedicated during fall term.

This year Sabine has been president of the American Association of Schools and Departments of Journalism, and he is a past director of the Advertising Association of the West. He is a director of the Oregon Newspaper Publishers association, the Oregon State Broadcasters association, the University of Oregon Alumni association, and an executive officer of the Oregon Scholastic Press and the Oregon Association of Journalism Advisers.

Emerald Petitions Due Tuesday at 12

Gordon Rice, junior in journalism, is the only petitioner so far for next Emerald editor. Petitioning for business manager are John Radich, sophomore in business, and Birger Brandt, sophomore in liberal arts. Petitions will be accepted until Tuesday noon for both Emerald positions.

The two new executives for the campus daily will be chosen by interviews at the Publications Board meeting Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the board room.

Rice, who is currently news editor, has been a reporter, member of the night staff, night editor, sports writer, assistant news editor and sports editor of the Emerald.

Winner of Award

He was sophomore class representative, junior class vice-president, vice-president of Campbell club and associate editor of this year's Pigger's Guide. He was recipient of this year's Maurice Harold Hunter scholarship award.

given at the All-Campus Sing.

Dadich has been a member of the Emerald sales staff and advertising staff. He is on the membership of Newman club.

Brandt has served on the advertising staff of the Astorian Budget and was advertising manager of the Astor Post, the high school paper. He is organist for the Central Lutheran church and a member of the Student Union recorded music committee.

5 More Emeralds

Regular publication of the Emerald for spring term ends at the end of this week. Friday's edition will be the last regular publication for the year.

One Emerald will be published next week on Thursday. The June 2 paper will be the special Commencement edition.

Music School Schedules Chamber Music Program

Tonight at 8:15 in the school of music auditorium, the school of music will present a chamber music program. The program is dedicated to the eminent American composer, Willingford Riegger, on his 70th birthday. He visited and lectured here 3 years ago.

"Invocation," written by Dr. Arnold Elston of the school of music faculty, will be the first number and is dedicated to Riegger.

George Broughton, associate professor of violin, will conduct students Clarissa Berning, Patricia Riehl, Larry Sowell, Sharron McCabe, Bob Groth, Nelson Tandoc, and Lee Harper in the presentation of this number and Exine Anderson, assistant professor of voice, will be soprano soloist.

Boughton, violinist, and William Woods, pianist, will play 2 movements from Riegger's "Sonatina for Violin and Piano," followed by Riegger's "The Cry," with Woods and George Hopkins, professor of piano, performing a piano duet.

Next, the world premier of "Scherzo for Two Pianos," by Riegger will be played by students Mary Louise Hudson and Ailene Hudson.

Following an intermission the program will resume with "Four Lyrics of Machado," by Luigi Dallapiccola, a contemporary Italian composer. The next of these songs was taken from the writings of Antonio Machado, a modern Spanish poet. Woods will accompany soprano Anderson in this selection.

Students Marshall Pallett, James Albert, Vondis Miller, Marian Cass, Alan Casebourn, Glenn Benner, Gary Donnell, Don Adamson and Gary de Broekert, will be led by Ira Lee in the concluding number, Riegger's "Nonet for Brass."

The program should provide special entertainment for those music lovers who are interested in the presentation of modern music.

Cuthbert President Of UO Professors

Fred A. Cuthbert, professor of landscape, has been re-elected president of the university chapter of the American Association of University Professors.

Named as secretary for the 1955-56 offices is Martin Schmitt, curator of special collections in the university library, and treasurer is John Soha, associate professor of business administration.

Freshmen Wanted As YW Counselors

Lists will be up in freshman dormitories immediately for women to sign up to be YWCA Duckling counselors, according to Shirley Parmenter and Joan Kraus, co-chairmen of the program.

Women selected as counselors will write to incoming freshman women during the summer, and tell them about the University and some of its activities and projects.

One training meeting will be held, in the Student Union dads' lounge, during the last week of classes. Full information for procedure will be given.

Honorary Selects Outstanding Soph

Richard Connett, sophomore in business administration, has been selected by Beta Gamma Sigma, national honorary for business administration, as the outstanding sophomore pre-business student at the University for 1954-55.

Connett's name will be inscribed on a plaque which is displayed near the business school office in Commonwealth hall. He has maintained a 3.75 GPA in his two years at the University and plans to specialize in the field of merchandising.

Tyler Attends Meeting

Leona E. Tyler, associate professor of psychology, left Friday to attend a meeting of the American Psychological association in Chicago.