

H-Bomb Shelter

THIS IS INTERIOR of H-bomb steel shelter erected in Garden City, N.Y., whose developers say will take care of a family 3 to 5 days. This deluxe model is equipped with five bunks and air mattresses. At rear of tank is fan which draws purified air through special filter. The handle is used only in event of power failure, which would also necessitate use of battery-powered lanterns. Shelter also has radiation detector, electric battery radio, protective clothing, blankets, crowbar and shovel, first aid equipment plus other apparatus and supplies needed to sustain family. Chorus Line

EIGHT PRETTY GIRLS, all congressional secretaries, strike a leggy pose (May 19) before the Capitol as they kick up a routine from their forthcoming variety show. The young ladies, members of the Congressional Secretaries Club, will entertain legislators who employ them June 21 at a show for the benefit of retarded children. (AP Wirephoto)

Naval, Air Force Exam Scheduled

Competitive examinations for appointments to the 1956 classes of the United States Naval and Air Force Academies will be held in Portland by the Civil Service Commission on July 11.

Applicants who reside in the Third District who wish to take this examination are to inform Congresswoman Edith Green by May 28.

According to Mrs. Green, no West Point nominations can be made by her from this district for the 1956 beginning class.

Applicants must be residents of Multnomah county between the ages of 17 and 23 by July, 1956. However, examination arrangements also will be made for applicants temporarily out of the district, she announced.

Letters concerning these pre-nomination exams should be addressed to Congresswoman Edith Green, 312 House Office Building, Washington 25, D.C.
