

British Politics

A special three-day United Nations seminar will be held this summer in San Francisco in conjunction with the commemoration of the tenth anniversary of the founding of the UN.

This seminar is sponsored by the YW-YMCA and is open to any interested students or faculty member. The seminar has been set up by the Y groups in California for student participation in the UN celebration.

Seminar Session

The seminar session will be held June 19-22 and will offer an opportunity for students to meet as a group with delegates from various countries in informal sessions, attend UN sessions, interview members of the UN Secretariat, and visit with members of the United States mission to the UN.

Present in some of these bodies will be Dag Hammarskjold, Madame Pandit, Van Kliefens, Lester Pearson, John Foster Dulles and Henry Cabot Lodge.

Art exhibits and special cultural events related to UNESCO, UNICEF, and other UN agencies and activities will be offered.

Costs Listed

Anticipated costs for the trip include registration $4; room for three days $4.50; meals from $9-$12. Registration can be done through the Y groups on campus and the registration fee and the first night of lodging should be paid then before final week is over.

Conference headquarters will be the San Francisco YMCA, three blocks from the site of the UN Meetings.

Government Lab Jobs Now Open to Applicants

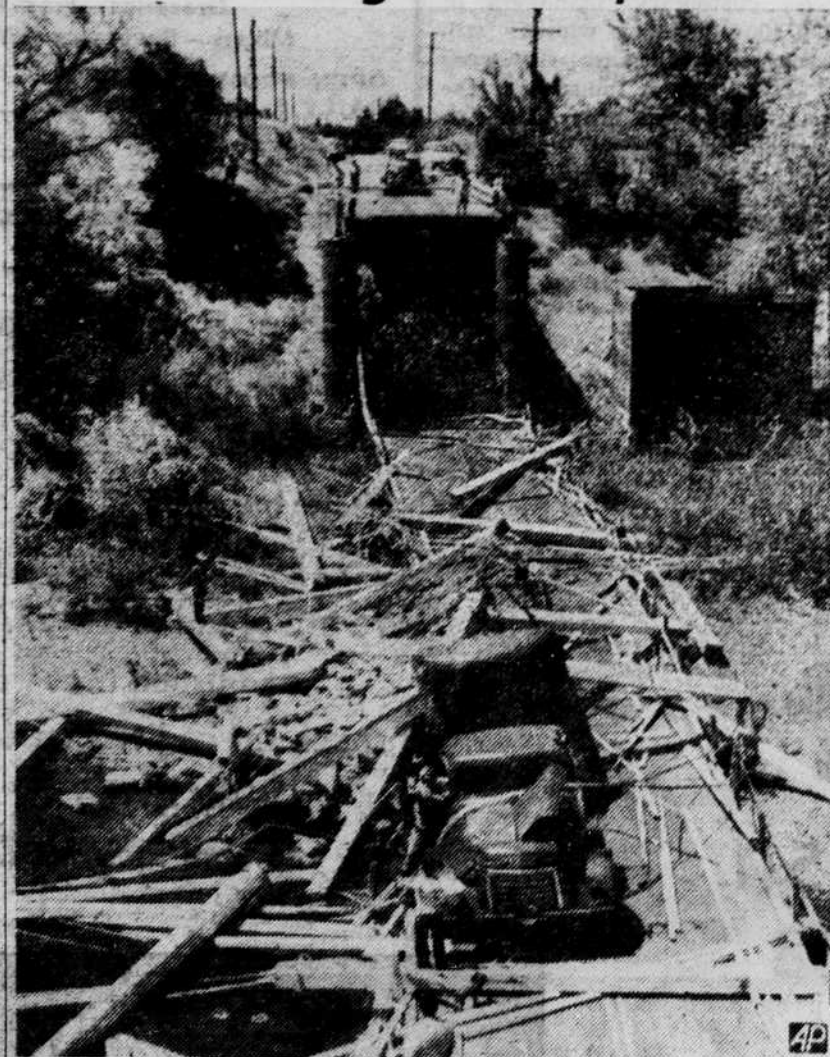

Applications are now being accepted by the U.S. Civil Service Commission for various government laboratories in Washington, D.C. and vicinity.

The positions pay salaries ranging from $2950 to $5940 and require no written test from applicants.

To qualify, applicants must have had experience in the operation and repair of laboratory electronics apparatus, or education pertinent to the field.

Applications will be accepted until further notice. They must be filed with the Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners, at the National Bureau of Standards in Washington, D.C.

Old Bridge Collapses

BUILT IN 1902 at a cost of 13,000 dollars, the old Orange Blossom bridge over the Stanislaus river near Oakdale, Calif., collapsed recently as a heavily loaded truck reached the mid-point. Albert Morris, 40, of Fresno, Calif., the driver, suffered injuries on the downward trip. (AP Wirephoto)
