At University house

Two marriages have taken place spring term at University house. Marlys Dalgren was married to Lee Triplett during spring vacation at the Eugene Episcopal church. Both Mr. and Mrs. Triplett are attending school here now. Sharon Finchum became the bride of David Meeker May 7. The couple was married in Klamath Falls and are now living in Eugene.

Registration This Week for YW-YM Seabeck Confab

All students interested in attending the YWCA and YMCA-sponsored Seabeck conference on Hoods canal in Washington this summer must register this week.

Local, national and international affairs will be discussed at the conference with Christian perspective. All colleges in the Pacific Northwest will be represented at the interdenominational conference.

Registration material may be obtained at the YWCA and YMCA offices. The fee for the conference is $10 until June 1.

Sling-shot Prank Injures UO Coed

A six-foot sling-shot mounted on an old model auto catapulted eight University of Oregon students into the arms of the law Monday.

The students, names withheld, decided to test their "weapon" as they drove past the Alpha Phi house. They fired a water-filled balloon from the slingshot and it crashed through a window. Carolyn Heckman, sophomore in liberal arts suffered a minor cut from the flying glass.

Eugene police persuaded the students to dismantle their "artillery" and no charge were preferred.

YWCA Executive Visits UO Campus

Mrs. Gladys Lawther, executive secretary of the YWCA for the Pacific Northwest, arrived Tuesday to visit the University's YW and will be on the campus through Thursday, according to Germaine LaMarche, YWCA president.

Mrs. Lawther is meeting with all the various groups within the Y organization while she is here and is also available for any individual conferences by appointment.

She is a graduate of the University and was vice-president of the Y when she was a senior.

Parallel Look

MEN'S FASHIONS will follow the parallel look this fall according to the Men's Apparel Guild in a California show held May 22 in Los Angeles. Here Rochelle Ades and Pat Paddock wear fall beach attire featuring bold stripe and solids in harmonizing colors for leisure wear. Tailored of heavy cotton chambray both outfits feature the new three-quarter sleeve "Acapulco shirt" worn with beachcomber pants of three-quarter length also. (AP Wirephoto)

Workshop Class Gives First Show

Students in the television workshop class in the Radio and TV section of the speech department will produce the first television program channeled from the studios in Villard over a closed circuit.

The program will be channeled through this circuit to the television room in Allen hall where an audience will be able to view it on the set.

"The Valliant," the show chosen to be produced for this program, will be student-directed, and there will be student technicians and actors.

The program is being produced as an example of the type of classwork and activity connected with this school in the speech department.

Theta Sigma Phi Will Hold Formal Pledging

All old and new members of Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary, will meet at 1 p.m. Thursday in Eric Allen hall's seminar room.

Formal pledging for the new pledges tapped last week will be held.

Alpha Lambda Delta Initiation Is Today

Initiation for Alpha Lambda Delta, women's scholastic honorary, will be held at 4 p.m. today in Gerlinger, according to Jean Fay, president.

Old members are asked to meet at 3:45. Short silks will be in order.

Idaho has never finished higher than third in Northern Division baseball. The Vandal diamond teams have been last 18 times in 22 years of play since 1930.

Petitions for Chairman Of Bunion Derby Due

Petitions for general chairman of next fall's Bunion Derby are due next Wednesday in the ASUO petition box on the third floor of the Student Union.

Sponsored by Associated Women Students, the annual Bunion Derby provides a get-acquainted mixer held early in fall term. Mary Gerlinger is adviser for the event from the AWS cabinet.
