

Adjutant General to Attend University Governor's Day

The University's first annual Governor's Day has been planned for May 31.

Events will center around the military department. Military graduation ceremonies are scheduled for Hayward field at 1 p.m. At this time all Army and Air Force ROTC cadets will be reviewed by graduating seniors and a special party representing the governor.

Gov. Paul Patterson will be unable to attend, but he designated Oregon's adjutant general, Major General Thomas E. Rilea, to represent him.

Awards given annually to outstanding cadets will be presented at the Tuesday ceremony. Army and Air Force drill teams will give a short exhibition.

A luncheon in honor of the adjutant general is planned for Tuesday at noon. Gen. Rilea's party, University President O. Meredith Wilson and a number of invited guests will attend.

Following the graduation ceremony, a reception will be held to allow Air Force and Army ROTC seniors to meet Gen. Rilea and his party.

Keefe Wins Outfit In ROTC Drawing

Paul Keefe, senior in business, is the winner of a "class B" Army uniform from Weiner's in Portland, according to Lt. Col. William Thomas, assistant professor of military science and tactics.

Weiner's held a uniform display for seniors in ROTC last week in the ROTC building and Keefe's name was selected from those who attended the display.

Lieutenant Colonel Thomas stated the uniform's value is about $50.

Beach Poem Wins $25 Poetry Award

Robert Paul, senior in philosophy, was awarded the Julia Burgess Poetry Prize of $25 in a recent contest, according to P. W. Souters, head of the English department.

Paul's poem was entitled "The Dead Romantic on the Beach at Noon."

Honorable mention went to Valeria Cowls Govig, junior in art.

The committee who judged the entries included Ernest G. Moll, professor of English; S. N. Karchmer, assistant professor of English, and Roland Ball, instructor in English.

Spicer President Of Phi Eta Sigma

Ron Spicer, sophomore in music, was elected president of Phi Eta Sigma Wednesday.

The freshmen academic honorary chose Spicer to succeed Dick Van Allea. Other officers elected for next year were Al Jones, vice-president; Jim Lynch, secretary, and Jim Noble, treasurer.

Adviser Brad Blaine spoke briefly on the honorary's program for the past year and its future plans.

Big Four Talk Favored by Poll

Seventy-five percent of the students polled by the Associated Collegiate Press think that the United States should participate in a Big Four talk in the near future. Participation will be helpful even if nothing results from the talk, they feel.

A Big Four talk is opposed by 14 percent of the students. The talk will not do any good because "the Russians break their promises as fast as they make them," the students said. Others argued that "the talk will yield nothing but propaganda favorable to the Russians." Students who were undecided on the question numbered 12 percent.

According to another poll of student opinion conducted by the ACP 79 percent of the students interviewed approved of the State Department's decision to allow Russian college newspaper editors to visit the U.S.

Many students say that they are proud of this country and welcome any opportunity to show it off to the Russians. "We have nothing to hide," others said. "The visit might help some of the Russian editors to see and believe in freedom of the press," claimed the students in favor of the trip. Thirteen percent of the students polled were undecided while eight percent disapproved.

Cadets Give Performance

Forty-four members of the Air Force ROTC band and drill team flew to Portland Sunday for participation in the Armed Forces Day program at the Portland International airport.

The band, under the command of James Misner, played martial music for an hour on the flight line at the beginning of the program. Philip O'Keefe commanded the drill team in a series of close order drills.

Both groups combined for the retiring of the colors at the retreat ceremony.

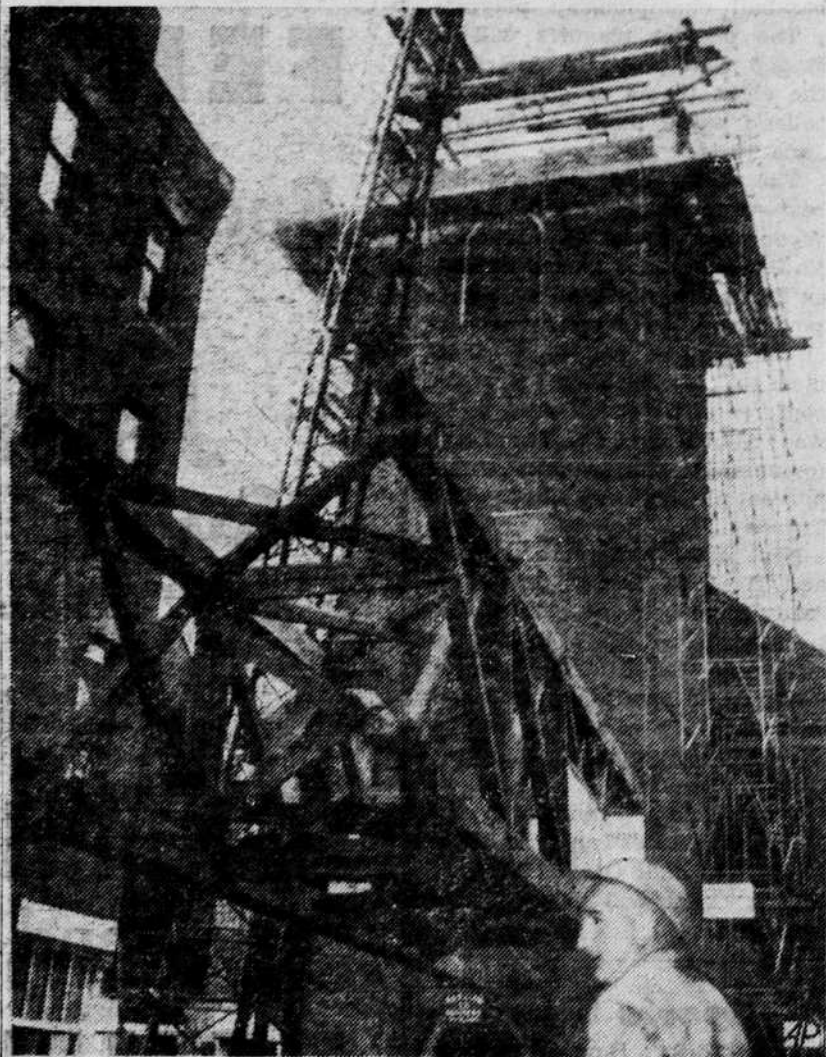

The cadets flew to Portland and back in a C-118 flown from McChord Air Force base, Washington, for the purpose. Major Lewis Tiffany accompanied the group as adviser.

Adenauer Plans Counter Move

BADEN BADEN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer Wednesday planned a counteroffensive against the neutralization of Germany as the Soviet price for its reunification.

He conferred at the Black Forest health resort of Buehlerhoehe with his top ambassadors from the Western capitals.

They were urgently summoned home to report on Western opinion and receive fresh instructions. Adenauer was said to be worried at the rate at which the idea was gaining ground that big industrial Germany could be neutralized like tiny Austria.

The ambassadors are Heinz Krekeler, Washington; Hans von Herwarth, London; Vollrath von Maltzan, Paris, and Herbert Blankenhorn, permanent representative to NATO in Paris.

Also present was Christian Democrat floor leader Heinrich von Brentano, who soon will take over the foreign ministry from Adenauer.
