Eldon L. Johnson, dean of the college of liberal arts and the graduate school, has accepted a position as president of the University of New Hampshire.

He will be the thirteenth president of that university, which has an enrollment of approximately 3100 students.

Johnson regards the position as "a real opportunity professionally," but he leaves the University "with many regrets."

Takes Over in August

He and his family will leave sometime in July, and he will take over the new position August 1.

Johnson's responsibility here has been the administration of the largest collegiate division on campus, and he has been at the University since 1945.

He was head of the department of political science originally, and in July, 1947, he received the double appointment as dean of the liberal arts and graduate schools, which position he has held since.

He was acting director of the 1946 summer session.

Born in Indiana

Johnson was born in Indiana and educated at the Indiana State Teachers college. He received his Ph.D. at the University of Wisconsin, in 1939.

He has devoted his entire career to the field of education, serving as a teaching assistant and fellow in the University of Wisconsin's political science department following his graduation.

Later he taught in secondary schools in Indiana and Wisconsin.

Directs Graduate School

Between 1941 and 1945 he was director of the graduate school of the Department of Agriculture in Washington, D.C.

He took a two-year leave of absence during his service with the Agriculture department, to study at the University of Chicago.

His first trip to the University of Oregon campus was through an inspection trip of the 25 schools connected with the Department of Agriculture.

Has Taken Tours

He has a wife and two daughters, with whom he traveled to Europe in 1951. During the seven-month tour they visited eleven countries in western Europe and he did extensive research and study at the London School of Economics and Political Science.

At the University of New Hampshire he will work with a faculty of 400 and a student body which requires upper 40 percent scholastically from prep school.

The university is located in Durham, New Hampshire, and is 70 miles from Boston. It is a land-grant institution, publicly and privately supported.

Main courses of study are liberal arts, agriculture, technology and the natural sciences.

Wolf Hunting

DOCK LEE, HUGO, COLO., rancher and his son Tommy, 10, went wolf hunting recently and Lee says he dropped the huge beast with one shot. The wolf, first killed in the area in many years, weighed 89 pounds and measured six feet three inches from tail tip to nose. (AP Wirephoto-

Sure I want to fight Communism - but how?

With "TRUTH DOLLARS"—that's how!

Your "Truth Dollars" fight Communism in it's own back yard—behind the Iron Curtain. Give "Truth Dollars" and get in the fight!

"Truth Dollars" send words of truth and hope to the 70 million freedom loving people behind the Iron Curtain.

These words broadcast over Radio Free Europe's 29 transmitters reach Poles, Czechoslovakians, Hungarians, Romanians and Bulgarians. RFE is supported by the voluntary, cooperative action of millions of Americans engaged in this fight of good against evil.

How do "Truth Dollars" fight Communism? By exposing Red lies... revealing news suppressed by Moscow and by unmasking Communist collaborators. The broadcasts are by exiles in the native tongues of the people to whom they are beamed.

Radio Free Europe is hurting Communism in its own back yard. We know by Red efforts to "jam" our programs (so far without success). To successfully continue these broadcasts, even more transmitters are needed.

Every dollar buys 100 words of truth. That's how hard "Truth Dollars" work. Your dollars will help 70 million people resist the Kremlin. Keep the truth turned on. Send as many "Truth Dollars" as you can (if possible, a dollar for each member of your family). The need is now.
