

Duck Tracks

Summer brings an end to college newspaper publication, but not to news of college athletes which keeps piling up, necessitating some sort of review at summer's end.

Coach Bill Bowerman's Oregon track men provided a good share of the summer headlines, capping one of their most successful seasons with individual triumphs in additional open meets.

The Duck cindermen copped fifth place in the Pacific Coast conference meet on Hayward field, then moved to Los Angeles and snared fourth place in the NCAA meet, their highest national finish in history. Previous best Oregon high was seventh in 1939.

Distance Stars Shine

Performances by Bowerman's talented distance trio — Bill Dellinger, Ken Reiser and Jim Bailey — highlighted scoring action for the Webfoots.

Dellinger won the mile, Reiser the two-mile and Bailey the 880-yard dash in the PCC meet. At Los Angeles Reiser walked off with two-mile honors and Bailey upset Dellinger and UCLA's Bob Seaman to take the mile in 4:05.9.

Sophomore standouts Martin Pedigo and Ed Bingham added valuable points with places in the broad jump and javelin respectively.

Dellinger Beters Time

Dellinger ran the best Oregon mile in history in the PCC-Big Ten meet following the NCAA competition, but lost out in a stretch battle to his old rival, Seaman. His second place time was 4:04.6.

Bailey ran the best half mile ever run by an Australian runner in winning the PCC-Big Ten 880 with a 1:51. The record will probably not be recognized, however, as Bailey was racing in a United States collegiate meet.

Reiser had a bad day in the PCC-Big Ten two mile, in contrast to USC's Fernando Ledesma, who set a new collegiate mark with a terrific 8:58 clocking.

Reiser Tours Europe

Following the collegiate meetings, Reiser left on a tour of European competitions with other United States track stars and competed in Finland, Czechoslovakia, Scotland and England before returning to go on active duty as an Army second lieutenant in Kentucky.

Bailey spent some time in Canadian meets during the summer, as did Doug Clement, Duck middle distance star, who broke two records in the Canadian pentathlon championships, and pole vaulter Bob Reid, who reached the top height of his career at 13'6".

Reiser and Clement will not return to Duck competition, but Dellinger and Bailey will be back in action this fall when cross-country season begins. Next spring should find Bailey in the mile spot and Dellinger filling Reiser's two-mile shoes if predictions run true to form.

Senior Gridders Active

George Shaw and Jack Patera were members of the College All-Star squad in the annual collegiate-professional football game in Chicago last August. Shaw saw no action for the Stars as Notre Dame's Ralph Guglielmi quarterbacked the entire game.

Patera, who was named captain of the All-American Sigma Chi team, was in the game briefly. Both Shaw and Patera have played in exhibition action for the Baltimore Colts.

Last year's Duck grid captain, Ron Pheister, was drafted by the San Francisco 49ers as a center, but accepted a coaching job at Tigard high school.

One to Get Ready Moore's Gotta Go

"That's my boy," says Al Weill, manager of heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano, as he gives his fighter a good-luck sendoff before his Tuesday night fight with light-heavyweight king Archie Moore. The 15-round bout will take place in Yankee stadium and will be carried by radio and closed television circuit tonight beginning at 6:30 P.S.T.

Red Hat Day Set For Game Hunters

Friday has been designated as "Red Hat Day" throughout Oregon for all hunters of deer, birds and other game.

Governor Paul Patterson set the day aside following suggestions made by sportsmen and conservation groups in the state.

Lane county chairman of the project is John B. Smith, fire control officer of the Willamette National Forest.
