

Variety Show Is Saturday Night

The University of Oregon football team and coaches will be special guests at the first annual Oregon Club Variety Show Saturday at 8 p.m. at McArthur Court.

Sponsored by the Oregon Club of Eugene, the eight-act show will benefit the university athletic program. The sponsoring organization is composed of Eugene businessmen interested in assisting and promoting athletics at the University.

The variety show, which is also planned as a football jamboree, will offer top talent from the fields of radio, television, movies and vaudeville. It will be presented on an arena-type stage in the court, so that the audience will be assured of good seats anywhere in the building.

Leading the talent parade will be the Ritz Brothers, a $25,000 a week comedy act fresh from the Flamingo Hotel in Las Vegas. Connie Haines, star of the Frankie Laine TV show and top recording vocalist, and the Hoosier Hotshots, masters of Zany music, will also be on hand.

Other top acts signed are Payo and Mai, European juggling and unicycle team; the Cordolins, musical quartet of young women; George Lee, outstanding juggler; and the Harmonettes, a vocal trio from Washington which has won many contests and now has a TV show out of Portland.

An act of special interest will be the Sing Lee Sings, a tumbling group from California. The six tumblers include two adults and four children, and their act has proved a sensation wherever they have appeared.

Variety Show tickets are on sale at the McArthur Court ticket office.

CONNIE HAINES
Vocalist from Frankie Laine TV Show

HOOSIER HOTSHOTS
Zany Music from Odd Instruments

Women's Rush Begins Today

Panhellenic's five-day rushing program for the 362 freshman women registered for formal rush begins today with ten-minute open house periods at each of the 16 sororities.

Approximately 60 more women will participate in rushing this year than last, according to Olivia Tharaldson, Panhellenic president. The increase is actually greater than it appears, she reports. Last year's number included upper-termers, whose rush period was held separately for the first time this year.

Open house today will be from 10 to 12 a.m. and 1 to 3 p.m. The six rushing dates Saturday will be held between the same hours. Four half-hour rushing periods will be held Sunday between 2 and 5 p.m.

Monday evening the women will visit three houses spending forty-five minutes at each. Tuesday evening they will spend forty-five minutes again with the houses of their first and second preference, following which they will fill out their preference cards at Gerlinger hall.

Wednesday pledges will attend breakfast at the chapter houses at 7:15 a.m.

Campus clothes will be in order for all dates except preference night, Miss Tharaldson said. Tuesday night the dress will be short silks.

Miss Tharaldson reminds the rushee that there will be no dating during the entire rush period with the exception of the Hello Dance.

Tryouts Scheduled For Monday Night

Tryouts for the first play of the season will be Monday night, according to Daniel Krempel, instructor of speech, who will direct. The play, "The Remarkable Mr. Pennyacker," was done last season on Broadway.

Roles for ten men and four to six women, as well as several children's roles will be cast for the production. All university students are eligible to try out, regardless of class or major. Tryouts will begin at 7:30 in the main auditorium of the University theatre.

Parade, Rally Planned Saturday at Airport

A car parade and surprise rally will welcome home the Duck varsity squad Saturday at the Eugene airport at 12:30 p.m.

Yell Dukes Don Soesbe and Dave Kjome will lead the rally and parade. They will be assisted by Yell King Ollie Urbigkeit when he arrives with the team on the chartered Pan American Airlines plane. Urbigkeit flew down with the team to lead southern California UO alums.

Because of women's rushing, this homecoming rally will be restricted to men on campus.

The Ducks new rally squad made their first appearance on campus Wednesday night at the freshman picnic in a sendoff rally

225 UO Students Have Scholarships

Karl W. Onthank, chairman of the faculty committee on scholarships and financial aid, said Thursday that more students are here on scholarships this year than any year previously.

Onthank said that more than 225 students are here on scholarships totaling approximately $50,000. Of this 160 freshmen have scholarships totaling nearly $30,000.

The Oregon Mother's club alone is presenting $5,000 worth of scholarships next year. Posters have already been sent to the high schools in the state to let outstanding students known about the scholarships offered by the university.

Onthank stated that many scholarships had been filled recently due to vacancies which developed over the summer. He also said that many new scholarship opportunities are opening up constantly.

UO Publications Set Open House Next Week

The Oregonian will hold an open house for all interested students in the Oregon office, 308 Student Union, Wednesday, September 28 from 8 to 10 p.m. The Oregon Daily Emerald will have open house Thursday, September 29, from 8 to 10 p.m. in 301 Allen Hall. Students interested in working on either publication are encouraged to talk to the staff on the publication of their choice.

for the varsity team.

New rally girls Sally Jo Greig, Sue Ramsby, Frances Heitkemper, Shirley McLean, Joan Palmer, Bobbye Harris, and Cindy Randall appeared in new white uniforms of a different style than last year's.

The rally board announced yesterday that sales will start next week on new rally hats for men on campus. These hats will be sold by the rally girls at the living organizations and are actually green fatigue hats with a lemon "O" painted on them. These hats will cost 75 cents and will be a requirement for a special mens' rooting section planned for this year.

Hello Dance Is Saturday in SU

The Hello Dance, honoring new students, will be held from 9 to 12 p.m. Saturday in the Student Union ballroom.

Campus clothes are in order for the dance, which is a no-date affair. There is no admission charge. Entertainment will be furnished by campus talent with Rob Roy as master of ceremonies.

Decorations will center around a theme of comic strip characters. Music for the dance will be furnished by the Tune-smiths, a Eugene group.

Chairman for the dance is Barbara Berwick, chairman of the SU dance committee. Working with her on the dance are Mary Jane Alexander, Diane Raoul-Duval, Pete Bluett, Louann Pearson and Joan Rainville.

Sophomore Honor Test Schedule Set

The dates of the fall term comprehensive examinations in Sophomore honors courses have been scheduled as follows:

Literature—Tuesday, October 11;
Physical Science—Thursday, October 13;
Biological Science—Thursday, October 13;
Study of Society—Wednesday, October 19;
History—Thursday, October 20.

All examinations are scheduled as three hour examinations to begin at 7 p.m. Qualified students who wish to take these examinations should notify Mr. Ghent or notify the faculty member listed for the subjects as follows:

Literature, J. C. Sherwood;
Physical Science, F. E. Dart;
Biological Science, J. R. Huestis;
Study of Society, E. S. Wengert;

History, L. R. Sorenson.
The place for the examination will be announced to the student when he registers for the examination.

The dates of the spring term comprehensives in Sophomore honors courses are as follows:

History—Tuesday, May 15;
Society—May 17;
Literature—May 22;
Science—May 24.

Freshman Week In Final Stages

Orientation week swings into the final stages this weekend with the ASUO assembly tonight and the Hello dance Saturday night being the major events scheduled.

New students attending the assembly tonight will meet the campus leaders and see a parade of campus talent. This assembly, unlike the others, is more for entertainment than information.

The Hello dance will be held in the Student Union ballroom from 9 to 12 p.m. Campus clothes are in order for this dance, a no-date affair.

Sunday has been designated as "Go-to-Church" Sunday. Students are urged to attend the church of their choice.

Men interested in rushing can receive the latest information about rushing and pledging procedures at an assembly sponsored by the Inter-fraternity council Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in the SU ballroom.

Student Fees Due

Fees must be paid by noon Saturday, the day registration ends. Classes begin Monday, which is the last day to register or freely change courses.

No Fraternity Men In Dorms, Says IFC

Fraternity men will not be tolerated inside freshman dorms for the next ten days, Inter-fraternity council officers announced at a meeting Wednesday night.

Frosh counselors are obligated to turn in names of any fraternity men seen inside units of Earl hall, Cherney hall or French hall. Strict enforcement of this IFC regulation is promised.

President Kent Dorwin briefed house presidents and rush chairmen on the schedule for rush week. Freshmen will be given rushing rules at the IFC assembly at 8 p.m. Sunday in the SU ballroom.

All rushees will sign for up to 6 dates Monday afternoon from 2 to 5. During this period fraternity men must sit behind desks in the SU ballroom and are not allowed to pressure rushees on the main floor. Monday night from 7-10 rushees sign up for 6 more dates, at which time one man per house can be on the floor to actively solicit dates.

Rushees are allowed to make 12 dates during the four-day rush period. To be eligible for pledging a man must visit at least three different houses, and cannot have more than four dates with any one house.

A complete list of rush rules will be printed in Monday's Emerald.

Gordon Nobriga, president of Phi Kappa Sigma, was elected secretary-treasurer of the organization. Nobriga replaces Irwin Caplan of Sigma Alpha Mu, who did not return to school.

Dorwin urged all members to be present at a meeting Sunday night immediately following the assembly at the SU. Rushing quotas, based on house capacity, number of men living in each house, and expected losses within the next year, will be determined at this meeting.