

Registration Opens Soon For Adult Night Classes

Registration for fall term night classes at the University will be done during the first two meetings of each course. The fee is $8 per credit hour or class hour for all students, regardless of academic status. Minimum fee is $16 per term.

Students may not take more than 6 term hours if employed full time. Veterans may use benefits available under the Federal and State laws for General Extension Division work.

Available under the Business Administration school are Constructive Accounting and Elements of Marketing.

Education courses being offered include Special Teaching Methods in art, School Law and Organization, Supervision of Student Teachers in Elementary School, School Finance, Measurement in Education and Public and Professional Relations.

Under Health Education are courses in First Aid and Health Education Workshop, with Body Conditioning for Women being taught under Physical Education.

Speech department classes are Speech for Business and Professional people, and Principles and Techniques of Speech Correction.

Science courses available are Foundations of Physical Science, and Biological Science Survey.

History offers History of Western Civilization and Oregon History. The Romance Language department has First-Year Spanish, First-Year French and an advanced First-Year French course.

Under psychology is Psychology of Small Groups, a seminar; under general science is Natural History of Oregon; law, Law for Laymen; philosophy, Elementary Logic; sociology, The Family in American Culture; art and architecture, Jewelry and Metalsmithing; art education, Creative Art and Crafts for the Elementary Teacher, and geology, Economic Mineralogy.

Instructors for night classes program include:

R. E. Babcock, instructor in Business Administration; E. R. Bingham, assistant professor of History; Ely Chertok, instructor in Sociology; Francis E. Dart, assistant professor of Physics;

Ned J. Davison, instructor in Romance Languages; Patricia M. Gathercole, instructor in Romance Languages; Robert C. James, instructor in Art; Bertram Jessup, professor of Philosophy; Louis Kollmeyer, graduate assistant in Allied Arts; A. S. Luchins, associate professor of Psychology;

Roy W. Mallery, instructor in Education; Thomas F. Marshall, instructor in Romance Languages; Bonita Miller, instructor in Science; Jenette Moohead, associate professor of Health Education;

W. Scott Nobles, assistant professor of Speech; John Pierce-Jones, assistant professor of Psychology and Education; Miles

Romney, associate professor of Education;

Robert W. Smith, assistant professor of History; Lloyd W. Staples, professor of Geology; Marion Taylor, professor of Education; Sanford Tepper, assistant professor of Biology; Paul Washke, professor of Physical Education, and Norton Young, instructor in Speech.

Administrators are Viron A. Moore, Assistant Dean of the extension division and head of the department of state-wide services.

Howard J. Akers is administrative assistant for the department of state-wide services.

Campus Briefs

• Petitions for secretary of the Student Union directorate are available in the program director's office on the third floor of the SU. Lucia Knepper, directorate chairman has announced.

• All IFC members will meet Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in the Student Union ballroom, according to Kent Dorwin, president.

Professor's Story To be Included in Forthcoming Book

A new publication, to be called the Reporter Reader, will soon be published by Doubleday and Company. It contains selections from past editions of the Reporter magazine.

Robert Gordon, assistant professor of English at the University, is author of one of the short stories in the collection. It appeared in the magazine under the title "The Ordeal of Henry Duffill."

UO Placement Office Now Open for Seniors

Karl W. Onthank, placement director, states that anyone who will graduate this year should come in soon and fill out data in his office pertaining to the kind of job wanted upon graduation.

Onthank said that students who have their preferences on file early will have a better chance of obtaining the job they want, as the placement office can notify them when something in which they are interested comes to its attention.

Onthank's office is Emerald 207.

Civil Service Commission To Open Eugene Branch

The Oregon State Civil Service Commission is establishing a part-time branch office in Eugene, according to Charles W. Terry, Director.

The office, which will go into regular operation on Monday, will be maintained by Wilfred B. Swenson, University of Oregon senior.

Swenson is a major in political science and was employed by the Civil Service Commission in Salem this summer in connection with the State's Public Administration Internship program.

The Eugene Commission office is located at the rear of the University Business office in Emerald Hall. Swenson keeps office hours there between 3 and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Persons interested in employment with the State should visit Swenson during the hours he has scheduled or phone between 3 and 5 at Ext. 206. There is particular demand at present, especially on campus for typists and stenographers.

UT Calls for Season Ticket Representatives

Each campus living organization should send a member to the University theatre to act as its representative in the season ticket contest. Representatives should come to the box office next week between 1 and 5 p.m. for their instructions and receipt books.

READ EMERALD WANT ADS

HELLO... from the LEMON-O CLASS OF '59 drop in for Magazines — Ice Cream — Pop — Snacks We're Here to Serve You!

Corner 13th and Alder — Across from Sigma Chi

UNIVERSITY JEWELRY

849 East 13th Avenue

The Place to Go for

Expert Watch Repair

and all of your

Jewelry Needs

strictly entre nous...

Who'd know . . . who'd guess . . . that a girl could dress so smartly without spending a fortune? . . . and in clothes from one of the greatest fashion stores in the Northwest, right here in Eugene! Its a secret Kaufman Bros. will love to share with you during the school year just starting. We look forward to having you come in just to say "hello."

Kaufman Bros.

Eugene's Fashion Center

Emerald Want Ads

Will discuss business proposition with two students who need to make money in spare time. Prefer majors in business administration, but not essential. Call 4-4821 between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. for appointment. 9-27

Royal quiet Deluxe portable typewriter. Excellent condition. Reasonable. Call 5-8694. 9-23 tf

Used Desks and Chairs. Phone 4-1238.