

Busy Morning For Women

PLEDGES WERE WELCOMED with open arms and broad smiles Wednesday morning by Oregon's sororities at special breakfast honoring the freshman women. A typical scene is this one at Alpha Omicron Pi, where members of Sigma Phi Epsilon jazz band entertained happy pledges and members.

JAZZ BEFORE BREAKFAST was order of the day, with Sig Ep members playing such selections as "When the Saints Go Marching Home" to happy coeds. The jazz group will also play for University pep rallies during football season.

Woman Returns Abducted Baby

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A childless housewife who "just had to have a baby" remorsefully surrendered Robert Marcus to a priest in Stockton early Wednesday, nine days after the newborn boy was kidnaped in San Francisco.

Recovery of the healthy baby, now 11 days old, ended a nationwide hunt.

Dr. Sanford Marcus, 34, and his wife, Hanna, 29, sped in a police car the 82 miles to Stockton from San Francisco in 75 minutes for a joyful reunion with their son.

Gives Up Baby

Frightened by the earlier questioning of a deputy sheriff, Mrs. Betty Jean Benedicto, 27, plump and blonde, decided to give up the baby she had tended while police and the FBI hunted him from California to New York.

Police were closing in on Mrs. Benedicto when she stepped to a telephone in Stockton, called Dr. Marcus, told him the infant was safe and that she was leaving it at St. Mary's Church in Stockton.

Baby Sleeps Through All

Baby Marcus slept through it all. He was taken to the emergency ward of Stockton's St. Joseph Hospital, where Dr. Marcus and his wife were reunited with him.

Dr. Marcus said it took "only a few seconds" to "become at least 99 per cent sure" that the child was his son, stolen from San Francisco's Mt. Zion Hospital Sept. 19.

They Went That-Away

LONDON (AP)—It's enough to make a man hopping mad—someone with itchy fingers had stolen the flea circus Maurice Cheepen has taken days to bring up to scratch.

Cheepen, manager of the Troxy movie house at suburban Stepney, put his miniature performers out on display in the lobby to advertise a coming circus film. Overnight they disappeared.

"You've no idea how hard it is to find a nice juicy flea in London these days," he said.
