Christian House

Tonight at 7:30 Christian House is holding a progressive table-game party, with Jim Wear in charge of activities. Everyone is invited to attend.

Sunday morning Donut Hour will be at 9:15 followed by two Bible study classes at 9:45. Study on the Teachings of Jesus will be led by Victor P. Morris. Clarence Elliott will lead a group in studying the book of Acts.

The new student choir will hold its first rehearsal at 4:30 p.m. Sunday. Duane Mills, worship chairman, is in charge.

The annual student meeting at First Christian Church will be held at 5:30 p.m. Sunday. Theme for the dinner, which will replace the regular meeting at Christian House, is "Date-line, Eugene."

A program will be given featuring a skit by Weaver and Gregory Calvert. Students from other lands and Christian church preference students are invited to attend. Tickets are complimentary and must be procured in advance at Christian House or at the First Christian Church.

Sunday fireside at 9 p.m. will be Sunday of a series on the United Nations, Eileen Lindblad, YWCA director, leading.

Jane Copsy Shepard is in charge of a potluck dinner for graduate students, veterans, and interested upperclassmen at 5:30 Tuesday. Bob Randall will lead a discussion based on Chad Walsh's book "Campus Gods on Trial." Students are asked to bring a hot dish, salad or dessert.

The new hour for the executive council is 9 p.m. Wednesday, according to Jean Miller, president.

House devotions will be at 10 p.m. Thursday.

The fall retreat has been scheduled for Saturday, October 22, at Kitson Springs Resort.

Wesley Foundation

Wesley Foundation will have their second meeting of the Koinonia Klass at 9:30 a.m. Sunday. Reverend Kenneth Peterson will speak on "The Life and Teachings of Jesus." Transportation to the First Methodist Church will be furnished.

The Sunday evening program will begin at 5:30 p.m. with a light supper at a charge of 35 cents. R. R. Huestis, head of Biology Department will speak on "Science and the Christian Faith."

Roland Cross, Associate Secretary of the United Board of Christian Colleges in China, will be the guest speaker at a potluck dinner on October 4, at 5:30 p.m. He will speak on Christian education for Chinese refugees.

Thursday evening choir rehearsal will start at 8:30 p.m. with chapel service following at 9:30 p.m.

Christian Science

The Christian Science organization will meet every Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the men's lounge of Gerlinger Hall. All interested students and anyone connected with the University are welcome to attend.

Canterbury Club

Sunday evening prayer and worship for Canterbury students will be held from 6:30 to 8 p.m. at St. Mary's Episcopal church. The Eucharist Service and communion will be Wednesday at 7 p.m.

Newman Club

The Newman Club will hold a meeting Sunday, October 2, at 7:30 p.m. in the Student Union.

Westminster Foundation

"How and How Much—Can We Know About God?" will be the topic of a discussion beginning at 9:30 a.m. this Sunday at Westminster Foundation. It is the first in a series of Sunday morning discussions and study.

A second group will discuss

"Christianity and World Problems" at the same hour, using "Encounter with Revolution, Shock and Renewal" and "Revolution and Redemption," the S.V.M. texts for the year, as reference.

"Your God Is too Small," by J. B. Phillips, and "Crossroads" will be used as texts for the series on "Our Knowledge of God." A light breakfast from 9 to 9:30 a.m. will precede the discussion groups.

The regular Sunday supper is scheduled for 5:30 p.m. with a group discussion on "How Can You Know Yourself?" highlighting the evening program following vespers. J. R. Jewell, professor emeritus of education, will discuss the difference between reason and emotions.

Wednesday potluck supper is at 5:30 p.m., followed by discussion groups on elective subjects. Students are asked to complete a form indicating their study and interest group choices.

J. Stanley Barlow, Presbyterian University pastor, is available for conference during most of the week. Students are asked to drop a note in the appointment box on the door of the office in the event that he is not in.

DID JESUS REALLY LIVE?

New Evidence from the Dead Sea Scrolls.

The question of whether Jesus was a real person or a legendary messiah will be the sermon topic Sunday, October 2, at 11:00 a.m. New light cast by the discovery of these ancient scrolls will be considered.
