

Top Movie Continues at Mac

By Dave Sherman
Amusement Page Editor

Paramount's wonderful travelogue of the Riviera, called "To Catch a Thief" continues over the weekend at the McDonald.

Cary Grant and Grace Kelly, beautiful and rich winner of last year's academy award, provide most of the interest in Alfred Hitchcock's "danger affair of the year!" Mr. Grant portrays an ex-jewel thief gone good who has to capture another thief whose methods are much like his own. Miss Kelly is an American heiress who wants to be around all the time.

Local interest may or may not be found when Grant claims to be "an Oregon-born lumberjack." The film is worth viewing for the camera shots of the Riviera. Apparently there is no other reason.

College Life View

Hollywood's version of college life will be on view at the North End drive-in. Betty Grable and Sheree North become very, very popular when they run away from a murder and hide out in a man's dormitory on a California college.

The murderer also wants to make a hit with the two girls, as do everyone else. Finally, though not much in the way of trumped up plot line, the happy ending is finally reached.

Bob Cummings plays an architecture major who has been on campus for 17 years. He and Miss Grable seem to hit it off all right. Sheree North takes up bumping and grinding as a means to overcome shyness. Freshmen women take note.

Bigger Than Shane

At the Fox we are offered something "bigger than 'Shane,' bigger than 'High Noon.'" It's Joel McCrea in "Wichita." We also get to hear Tex Ritter sing

"Wichita." That may be all we can stand.

Those who are dog fanciers will enjoy "The Bar Sinister," at the Heilig through Saturday. It is advertised as being "decidedly worth seeing." You make your own decisions.

Sunday at the Heilig Audie Murphy will blaze across the screen in "To Hell and Back," in connection with the feature, a contest to win a free trip to Hollywood is being run. Entry blanks ask for "your most thrilling experience in so many words or less." The film is at regular prices. Also playing is "Combat Squad."

Best of Weekend

Undeniably the best movie of the weekend is a second-run showing of "Mr. Roberts." This is a fairly faithful reproduction of the smash Broadway play starring Henry Fonda. James Cagney plays the Captain and Jack Lemmon is very funny as Ensign Pulver. This starts Sunday at the Eugene Drive-in.

There is also a co-feature — some may consider this an advantage. It is called "The Golden Mistress."

Judy Garland sings "Over the Rainbow" and is wonderfully supported by Bert Lahr and Ray Bolger in "The Wizard of Oz" through Saturday at the Mayflower. Those who wish to re-live a small portion of their "lost youth" may enjoy the filmed fairy-tale.

Maugham's 'Beachcomber'

Sunday the Mayflower presents W. Somerset Maugham's "The Beachcomber," and English import starring Robert Newton. "One-expression" Jack Webb plays horns and Pete Kelly in "Pete Kelly's Blues," through Saturday at the McKenzie in Springfield. Peggy Lee is the best thing in the film. Also there is Janet Leigh and Edmond O'Brien. Unfortunately, so is Mr. Webb.

Oregon history students may wish to see "Far Horizons" at the "Firs." Its only claim to fame is that it's based—loosely no doubt—on the Lewis and Clark story.

50 Prize Photos Now on Display

Some 50 prize-winning photos will be on display in the reading room of the school of journalism when the 29th annual high school press conference convenes on the University campus Oct. 7 and 8. Oregon high school yearbooks will also be on display during the conference.

Pictures which are to be displayed include reproductions of prize-winning prints which were entered in the annual national high school photography contest sponsored by the National Scholastic Press association and Eastern Kodak Co.

Several hundred high school students are expected to be on campus for the conference. Staff members of high school yearbooks and newspapers who attend the conference will hold roundtable and panel discussion on all phases of publication of yearbooks and school newspapers during the meeting.

SU Petition Deadline Set

Petitions for positions on Student Union standing committees are available now on the third floor of the Student Union. Deadline for turning them in is noon Oct. 4.

Petitioners should mark the committees in which they are interested in the order of their preference. They will be notified as to interview time, according to Marlis Claussen, SU personnel chairman.

UO Poets Invited To Submit Work

The National Poetry Association invites all college students to submit original manuscripts to be considered for publication in the Annual Anthology of College Poetry.

Students may submit as many manuscripts as desired. Stories must be typed or written on one side of paper, and the student's home address, name of college and college address must appear on each manuscript.

Mail entries to the association at 3210 Selby Avenue, Los Angeles 34, Calif., by Nov. 5.

Chairmanship Open For Nursery School

Petitions are being called for a chairman of the co-operative mother's nursery school at Plymouth House in the first Congregational Church from 8:45 to 11:45 a.m. daily.

The chairman of this group will work under the service chairman of the YWCA and will have a committee to help plan times for girls to work at the nursery and organize special projects.

Those who are interested in this chairmanship may call the YWCA office or contact Brenda Blaesing at 5-6326.

Law Students Told About Honor System

President William F. Frye of the law school student body addressed the incoming class of law students at 9 a.m. today on the traditional honor system.

This system of giving tests with no professor or proctor in the room and without signed "no help" pledges, was initiated 30 years ago. It has been the topic of annual initiation assemblies.
