

Duck Tracks

By Jim Larimore
Emerald Sports Writer

The New York Yankees squared the World Series at three games apiece, exploding for five runs in the very first inning and hanging on to triumph 5-1 behind the stout four-hit hurling of southpaw Whitey Ford.

Back in Yankee Stadium after losing three straight at unfriendly Ebbets Field, the Bronx Bombers wasted no time in blasting young lefty Karl Spooner from the mound. Spooner, who had pitched brilliant relief ball in the second game, was coaxed for walks by Phil Rizzuto and Gil McDougal. Yogi Berra and Hank Bauer then produced run-scoring singles, and Bill (Moose) Showron topped things off with an opposite-field home run to the right field stands. That was the ball game, as Russ Meyer and Ed Roebuck came in to stop the Yankees cold the rest of the way.

Ford Was Tough

Ford walked four, hit Carl Furillo on the arm and uncorked a wild pitch, but was extremely tough in the clutch. He struck out eight and was ably assisted by the fine third-basing of Gil McDougal.

It was the 27 year-old Whitey's second victory of the 1955 classic and he now holds a 3-1 record in five starts in all series competition, 2-1 over the Dodgers.

A capacity crowd thronged the huge stadium and swelled the total attendance for this year's classic to 299,845 paid. The opposing athletes will split a melon of $654,853.59, and no matter who cops the duke today, there will be steak on the table this winter.

Records Falling

The excellent all-around play of both clubs is evidenced by the fact that both batting and fielding World Series records have gone by the wayside this year. The Yanks and Bums turned in a double play apiece to set a new record of 18 and Brooklyn set a team record by completing their tenth twin killing, Jackie Robinson unassisted to Hodges. The Dodgers surpassed their own National League homer mark of eight and need one more to tie the all-time record of ten set by New York at their expense in 1952.

The bookies are in a quandry covering the wagers on the seventh and deciding game with the odds switching to 6-5, take your chance.

This has been a southpaw series as portsideers have accounted for five of the six wins. Roger Craig of Brooklyn is the sole right hander to receive credit for victory. It is the same story tomorrow as veteran Tommy Byrne, who won the second game, faces youthful Johnny Podres who took the third game victory for Brooklyn.

Hard to Tell

It is difficult to predict a Dodger defeat, for the Brooks came back to take three straight at Ebbets field. Any manager who could go with a 24 year old rookie a year out of the Class B Piedmont league, as Alston did with Roger Craig (5-3), and get away with it, deserves a great deal of credit. Still, the Dodgers have failed so often, losing all seven previous series, that one has no confidence in what they might accomplish under pressure.

In fact, Joe DiMaggio, who (not discounting Marilyn) was almost famous as a Yankee outfielder, has suggested that the Dodgers suffer from a slight contraction of the esophagus upon viewing any uniform with the letters "N Y" across it in the World Series.

There is little reason to switch now, therefore your reporter will stick with the Yankees, although it appeared that he was up that well-known tributary without sufficient means of locomotion after this weekend's Dodger victories.

SERIES BATTING

	G	AB	R	H	2b	3b	HR	RBI	BB	SO	B.A.V.
New York Yankees
E. Robinson, 1b	4	3	0	2	0	0	0	1	2	1	.667
Carey	2	2	0	1	0	1	0	1	0	0	.500
Berra, c	6	20	5	9	0	0	1	2	2	1	.450
Bauer, rf	5	10	1	4	0	0	0	1	0	0	.400
Skowron, 1b	4	8	2	3	1	0	1	3	0	1	.375
Martin, 2b	6	22	2	7	1	1	0	4	0	5	.318
Rizzuto, ss	6	12	2	3	0	0	0	1	4	1	.250
Byrne, p	2	4	0	1	0	0	0	2	0	0	.250
Mantle, cf, rf	2	9	1	2	0	0	1	1	0	2	.222
Howard, lf	6	22	3	4	0	0	1	3	1	8	.182
McDougal, 3b	6	23	2	4	0	0	1	2	5	1	.173
Cerv, cf, lf	4	12	1	2	0	0	1	1	0	4	.167
Collins, 1b, rf	5	12	6	2	0	0	2	3	5	4	.167
Noren, cf, lf	5	16	0	1	0	0	0	1	1	1	.063
Totals	6	189	26	47	2	2	8	25	20	35	.249
Brooklyn Dodgers
Snider, cf	6	22	5	8	1	0	4	7	2	4	.364
Furillo, rf	6	24	4	8	1	0	1	3	2	5	.333
Amoros, lf	4	12	3	4	0	0	1	3	3	4	.333
Kellert	3	3	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	.333
Podres, p	1	3	1	1	0	0	0	0	0	1	.333
Reese, ss	6	23	4	7	1	0	0	2	3	4	.304
Gilliam, lf, 2b	6	20	2	6	1	0	0	3	7	1	.300
Zimmer, 2b	3	7	0	2	0	0	0	2	2	4	.286
Hodges, 1b	6	22	2	6	0	0	1	3	2	2	.273
Campanella, c	6	24	3	6	2	0	2	4	3	3	.250
J. Robinson, 3b	6	22	5	4	1	1	0	1	2	1	.182
Totals	6	194	29	53	7	1	9	28	28	34	.271

Indian, Spartan Intersectional Draws Attention

By the Associated Press

Stanford's Indians, already authors of one of the better upsets of the young season, carry the Pacific Coast conference football torch into Big Ten territory this week in the highlight game of another full schedule.

The Indians, who bewildered the Buckeyes of Ohio State with a 6-0 victory on Saturday, fly to East Lansing, Mich., to take on surprising Michigan State in the top intersectional tilt. The Spartans put up a tough fight before bowing to mighty Michigan, 14-7.

Three PCC Games Set

Three conference contests and a pair of non-league outings complete the weekend PCC slate.

UCLA's Bruins, rebounding sensationally from their defeat by Maryland a week ago with a 55-0 pasting of woeful Washington State, entertain Oregon State Friday night at Los Angeles. The Beavers had an open date Saturday.

USC, Washington Collide

Two unbeaten teams, Southern California and Washington, collide at Seattle in the feature game of the PCC card. The Trojans, who opened with a pair of conference triumphs, tamed Texas, 19-7, in an intersectional last week. The hungry Huskies, surprise team of the loop, trimmed Oregon, 19-7 on the heels of their Minnesota crusher.

The third PCC clash, despite its early date, might decide last place in the conference. Neither Pennsylvania, nor Washington State is going anywhere and the loser at Berkeley is almost a cinch for the cellar.

In non-conference billing, Oregon hosts Colorado of the Big Seven at Eugene, and Idaho, loser by 47-14 to Arizona, entertains independent College of the Pacific, 27-13 winner over Cincinnati, at Moscow.

Opening Day Turnout Less

PORTLAND (P)—The Oregon State Game commission reported Monday that there were fewer hunters in the field for the opening week end of deer season than last year.

And fewer deer were shot, a spokesman for the commission said.

"A lot of hunters apparently are waiting for the either-sex season, and this is a good thing in that it eliminates the usual opening week-end pressure," said John McKean, game division chief of operations for the commission.

Dry conditions in the forests and ranges as well as the full moon are causing deer to feed at night and bed down in the daylight hours, he said. This, with fewer hunters in the field to stir up the deer, was the reason for the decline in the number of deer bagged, he said.

He predicted that hunting would improve as the moon darkens.

Recommended as best areas for hunting were forest areas of Lake, Harney, Grant, Wheeler, Morrow and Crook counties.

The commission said that only six small hunter-set fires were reported. These were extinguished without serious damage.

Sports Staff

Desk editor: Jim Carter
Staff: Chuck Mitchelmore, Jim Larimore, Larry Sellers, Bob Rogers.

Shaw and Ameche Lead Redhot Colts

By the Associated Press

Led by a couple of yearlings, the frisky Baltimore Colts are kicking up their heels in the National Football league.

The youngsters, Alan Ameche and George Shaw, have accounted for all the Baltimore touchdowns in a surprising season in which the Colts find themselves in a three-way tie for the lead in the NFL's Western Conference after whipping Detroit, 28-13, over the weekend.

The Colts, like the Green Bay Packers and Los Angeles Rams, have 2-0 records, and the Colts meet the Packers Saturday night in the best game on the NFL card.

Green Bay kept pace by shelacking the Chicago Bears Sunday, 24-3, while the Rams cut it as close as humanly possible with a 27-26 victory over Pittsburgh, achieved on Les Richter's 33-yard field goal just as the gun sounded.

Washington, another surprise package, leads the Eastern Conference with a 2-0 mark after its wildly-exciting 31-30 squeaker over Philadelphia Saturday night. In other games Sunday, Cleveland's powerful Browns snapped back after an opening loss to crush San Francisco, 38-3, and the Chicago Cardinals upended New York, 28-17.

A record crowd of 40,030 watched in awe at Baltimore as the Colts manhandled the Lions. After all, the team had won only three games a year since coming back into the league in 1953. And these were the mighty Detroit Lions, whom they'd never beaten.

But Ameche and Shaw were not in the league during the past two seasons, and apparently they were too busy playing college ball—or studying—to read about the Lions' prowess.

In any event, Ameche bowled two yards through the Lion line for one touchdown and added another on a 52-yard gallop.

When Ameche, nicknamed "The Horse," before he ever became a Colt, wasn't running through the Lions, Shaw was passing over their heads. He hit two touchdowns and the 28 points the Colts accumulated so stimulated the defensive platoon that they stopped Detroit cold in the second half.

Stanky to Manage Giant Farm Club

NEW YORK (P)—Eddie Stanky, fiery former St. Louis Cardinal manager, was hired Monday by the New York Giants to manage their top farm club, the Minneapolis Millers of the Class AAA American Assn.

Stanky, who was ousted as Cardinal pilot May 28, will succeed Bill Rigney, promoted by the Giants to manage the big club after Leo Durocher announced his withdrawal as manager Sept. 24.

Students... Get Your Evening Snacks Delivered FREE... Courtesy

DICK-N-JIM'S DRIVE-IN

Free delivery on every order of $2.00 or more—Every hour on the hour—Daily from 6:00 p.m. 'til midnight

OUR MENU

AT DICK-N-JIM'S

AT DICK-N-JIM'S

El Pronto

19c Burgers

17th & Willamette 5-5101

18th & Oak 3-6324

- THE BEST IN THE WORLD HAMBURGERS 40c
- Cheeseburgers 50c
- Golden French Fries 25c
- Special Bar-B-Cue Beef Sandwiches 45c
- Chip Steak with French Fries 55c
- Bacon-N-Tomato 45c
- Tuna 40c
- Ham 40c
- Ham-n-Cheese 45c
- Egg Salad 35c
- Fish Sticks with Salad 65c
- FAT BOY BURGERS
- Excitingly Different 65c

- THE BEST 19c HAMBURGER IN THE WORLD—Plain or Regular 19c
- Cheeseburger 24c
- Hot Dogs 19c
- REAL CONEY ISLANDS 29c
- French Fries 11c
- Shakes 19c
- Malts 24c
- Assorted Cold Drinks 10c
- Coke or Root Beer
- By the gallon 65c
- Half gallon 35c

REMEMBER . . . All Oregon Team Members Receive a Discount and Credit, as usual (see Dick or Jim for setup)

Win a $5.00 Meal Ticket

Guess this week's football score between Oregon and Colorado and win a meal ticket worth $5.00 in trade!

DICK & JIM . . . Here is my prediction for this week's game. I understand this coupon must be presented to one of your car hops or delivery men before midnight, Friday, Sept. 30th.

OREGON
Colorado

Name _____
Address _____

DICK-N-JIMS DRIVE-INS

17th & Willamette 18th & Oak

