

On Campus Pix Set Next Week

For the first time, individual pictures for the Oregana will be taken in the Student Union rather than off campus, starting Monday.

Because of the convenience, the Oregana staff hopes that more married students and others living off campus will have their pictures taken.

Pictures will be taken in the SU basement from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. by Moderne Studio. A time schedule will be given to each living organization so that each person can sign up for a specific time.

Prices remain the same as last year: $1 for four poses, one of which will be chosen for use in the Oregana. Additional prints for students in activities are 10 cents apiece.

Pictures of students enrolling winter term will be taken in January.

Deer Hunter Tells Grim Experience

By the Associated Press

A deer hunter, one of at least seven wounded in the first weekend of the Oregon season, told the harrowing experience he went through in a vain attempt to keep from getting shot, apparently by another hunter.

Charles Drinkwater, Lakeview, in good condition in a hospital with a wound in the thigh, said he and his son, Richard, 8, were hunting in the North Crane area, 12 miles south of Lakeview.

A shot from across a canyon hit a rock at their feet, he said. Pushing Richard to the ground, Drinkwater dropped down to protect the boy. He attached his red hat to the end of his rifle and waved it, shouting at the same time for several minutes.

After while, thinking it safe, he stood up. He promptly was shot in the thigh. Police searched without success for the man who did the shooting.

Stop-Fire Week To Start Oct. 9

Fire kills 11,000 men, women, and children, and destroys $870,984,000 in property annually, reports the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

In hopes of reducing these figures, President Eisenhower has proclaimed the week of Oct. 9-15 as Fire Prevention week. This also includes the anniversary of the great Chicago fire of Oct. 9, 1871.

Everyone is urged to observe Fire Prevention week by thoroughly checking for fire hazards, correcting any unsafe conditions, and following safety precautions.

Carelessness with cigarettes, matches, electricity, portable oil heaters, stoves, and furnaces cause the most fires; so everyone should be extremely careful where these things are concerned, the board warns.

Lieutenant Helen L. Peterson, of the Women's Army Corps Officer Procurement Section, Headquarters Sixth Army, Presidio of San Francisco, will be in Eugene on Friday to interview members of the senior class of the University of Oregon concerning direct appointments as officers in the Women's Army Corps.

Returning varsity members are: Lee Tucker, Ben Kahalekulu, Gordon Nobriga, Norm Silliman, David Goode, and George Okamoto. Last year's varsity team finished second in the Willamette Valley League.

The army drill team will have its first special drill in Springfield Thursday at 12 noon. The special team will be composed of sophomores and juniors and the drill used in competition last year will be done.

Dance Pairings . . .

(Continued from page one) dancing will be in seven-minute periods with three minutes between to keep on schedule to rotate. To keep on schedule, men must move quickly from dance to dance.

Money collectors at women's organizations should have change ready before the Derby begins. Men should have sufficient change so no lines will form at doors.

The period from 11 to 12 p.m. will allow men to return to previously visited organizations if they wish.

Music for the Derby will be broadcast by KUGN and picked up by FM receivers. The entire dance will be recorded by KUGN staff members and broadcast for AM receivers Saturday night.

Trophies to the women's organization collecting the most money per member and to the men's group with the largest attendance will be awarded during the last five minutes of the half-time at the Oregon-Colorado football game Saturday.

Since some men's groups did not attend all women's organizations last year, each of the 34 men's groups must stop at each of the 23 women's organizations to be eligible for the trophy.

Eugene students will be included with their house or dorm. Any men's organization with more than 100 percent attendance will be eliminated from competition.

This is a required function for all men's and women's organizations. Tally sheets have been mailed to all women's organizations.

Pictures will be taken during the evening, some of which, will appear in the Oregana.
