

Much Discussion Reported Over Senate Problems

 nanced by the educational activities fund, about $1 more of each rush fee would revert back to IFC and Panhellenic.

There was much discussion, but little opposition to Whitty's motion. Most of the dissent came from Dick McDaniel, senator-at-large, who agreed that the $5 rush fee should not be used to finance an all-student activity, but questioned the use of the Educational Activities fund.

However, it was the feeling of most of the senate that this was the only logical fund for this purpose, now in existence on campus, and that the pre-freshman fund should be used by the Greeks to support Greek activities.

Under further discussion of orientation week, Hinkson announced McDaniel is handling an investigation of the entire frosh orientation, including the present counseling system. This will be taken up later.

Brenn, Hagedorn Elected

In its more than three-hour session, the senate also elected Bruce Brenn, transfer from Boise Junior College, as junior class vice-president and Nan Hagedorn, junior in English, as representative.

Sally Stadelman, junior in sociology, and Dick Blue, transfer from Portland State, were chosen co-chairmen of the 1955 Homecoming weekend.

Under committee reports Betty Anderson discussed the formation of a frosh rally squad by the rally board to promote school spirit among underclassmen. A white-shirt section is also being considered for all home games, from the 50 yard line to the 30. From the 30 yard line to the end zone is for married students and couples at the present time.

ASUO vice-president Sam Vahey reported that the survey report by engineers on the mill-race was completed, and it is expected the budget board will approve the use of $2,000 for a boathouse and canoe moorings, if the report is favorable. The cost of the report will not exceed $800 Vahey said.

Disapproved Drinking

The senate also went on record as unanimously favoring the resolution made by last year's senate, disapproving of drinking at football games.

Most of the senate felt that it put teeth into the resolution, for the athletic department to ask people with liquor to leave it outside the stands. The athletic department already has plans to do this.

While there was no opposition to this suggestion from Donald Dushane, director of Student Affairs, it was discussed whether the senate had the right to dictate student behavior.

Hinkson also received support on his previous action taking over the promotion of ASUO insurance. This promotion is paid for by the 25-cent rebate which the ASUO receives for each $4.50 policy.

The main program of these meetings is devoted to religious, social and cultural activities.

Somewhere deep within the confines of Carson hall . . . locked in a broom closet . . . are ten trophies stolen from Oregon fraternities nearly a week ago.

Now it can be told! Sometime between midnight and dawn last Saturday morning (fraternity preference night) a cardboard box containing the ten trophies was deposited on the porch at Carson. Just how the trophies got into the closet . . . and how the secret has been kept by over 300 Carson women . . . is still a mystery.

Sigma Alpha Mu, Phi Delta Theta, Delta Tau Delta and Delta Upsilon fraternities were the victims.

'Bicycle Thief'

"Bicycle Thief," starring Lamberto Maggiorani and Enzo Staiola, will be presented Sunday, in the Student Union ballroom at 2:30 and 5:00 p.m.

This Italian film is a story of a man, his son and their quest through the streets of Rome for his bicycle, stolen just when he must have it to qualify for a long-sought job.

Widely acclaimed as one of the great motion pictures of all time, it presents a simple story, but so creatively written and directed by two leaders in the new Italian realist school that the personal experience of the man and boy becomes a great human drama.

The film reveals the poignant and bitter irony of the little fellow buffeted by an indifferent world, the life of the city of Rome.
