

Contest Narrowed To 12 Contenders

Twelve finalists have been chosen in the Betty Coed and Joe College contests which are being held in connection with the Sophomore Whiskerino.

The titles will be awarded at the Whiskerino Saturday evening.

Voting will take place at the dance from 9 to 10 p.m. as the couples arrive. Women will vote for Joe College and men will vote for Betty Coed.

Finalists for Betty Coed are Helen Huse, Evelyn Nelson, Joan Palmer, Joan Rainville, Sue Ramsby, and Janet Somers. Finalists for Joe College are Ron Brown, Chuck Cowan, Roger Long, Chuck Mitchelmore, Jim Perry, and Gordon Summers.

Interviews of two more women finalists and two more men finalists are as follows:

Joan Rainville

Joan is from Eugene and a member of Kappa Alpha Theta. She is a journalism major and hopes to work on the staff of a magazine after graduating from college.

Activities are an important part of Joan's college life and she has an impressive list of them. She is a member of Kwama, activity editor of the Oregonian, assistant advertising manager of the Emerald, and was co-chairman of the bunion derby this year. She is also a member of Gamma Alpha Chi, an advertising honorary.

In the leisure time she finds, Joan enjoys water skiing, painting, and sewing.

Chuck Mitchelmore

Chuck's home is in North Bend but on campus he lives in Philadelphia House. Majoring in journalism, he wants to go into newspaper or magazine editorial work.

Campus activities take up a great deal of Chuck's time. A few of these activities include membership in the ASUO as a senator-at-large, Skull and Dagger, band, sports editor of the Emerald, Air Command Squadron secretary, and YMCA cabinet. He is also a member of Phi Eta Sigma, a scholastic honorary.

Photography and music are his favorite activities when he isn't busy with his campus activities.

Joan Palmer

A member of Delta Gamma, Joan is from Portland. She is majoring in English literature, and her ambition is to be an airline stewardess and travel.

Joan takes an active part in campus life and may be seen at the football games as a member of the rally squad. She is also on the Student Union music committee and is in charge of the luncheon for the chairmen of the Homecoming committees. Last year she was a member of Amphibians and the YWCA.

For relaxation Joan enjoys music, and collects records. Dancing and skiing are her other outside interests.

Roger Long

This Phi Kappa Psi is from Oswego. Roger is majoring in Business Administration, and hopes to go into interior decorating in the Northwest with a fraternity brother.

Many of his activities center around the Air Force ROTC. Roger is assistant wing commander in the Air Command Squadron honorary, technical sergeant for the air force second year drill team, and public information officer for the army and air force ROTC for the second year. Also he was co-chairman of the canoe fete property committee.

Swimming, water skiing, and writing skits are a few of the many other activities Roger enjoys.

'The Whisperers' To Play Dance

"The Whisperers," a local band, has been contracted to play for the Sophomore Whiskerino, being held Saturday evening, Oct. 22, in the Student Union Ballroom. This band appeared at the University last year during Greek week and has played for several house dances on campus.

The decorations are also under construction for the Whiskerino. According to Diane Raoul-Duval and Jim Highlands, co-chairmen for the decoration committee, the decorations will depict various pre-dance scenes, in the light of a couple's plans for the dance, and a few scenes from the dance itself.

It has also been announced that the voting for Betty Coed and Joe College will take place from 9 to 10 p.m. at special tables at the door. At the same time the sophomore men will be able to register for the beard growing contest. Prizes and awards will be presented during the intermission show.

Tickets for the Sophomore Whiskerino are now on sale for $1.65 at the Student Union desk and at a special table at the Co-op.

SU Board Approves Delegates, Music

University delegates to the SU regional conference at Missoula, Montana, were approved by the SU board at its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon.

The board also recommended a schedule for the ringing of the bells to the music committee.

Students can expect to hear the bells from 4:50 to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and 10:30 a.m. Sunday. The bells will be rung tentatively on the Tuesday and Wednesday preceding Thanksgiving, and from December 17 to December 20.

The recommendations further urged that all University-recognized organizations submit a date, time, and selections to the music committee at the beginning of each term.

The chairmen of other large scheduled events such as Jr. Weekend, Homecoming, etc., must submit requests one week in advance.

Named as delegates to the Montana confab:

Jack Socolofsky, Dick Gray, Lucia Knepper, Marlis Claussen, Dick Hyder, Barbara Berwick, Jeanne Scales, Darlene Leland, and Karen Johnson, alternate.

A list of tentative rules for the annual Barbershop Quartet contest given by Jeanne Scales, music committee chairman, gained favorable comment from the board.

Under the recommendations, judging would be done by a city of Eugene resident and two School of Music faculty members, except on the night of the finals.

On that night, six judges will be used: one member of the school of music faculty; one resident from Eugene; and four members of a visiting professional quartet.

It was announced at the meeting that the Millrace committee would meet that night (Wednesday) and that it should have a report for the next board meeting.

Other announcements made at the meeting:

● Progressive jazz will be given in small doses at first during Friday at Four gatherings. If the music catches on, more of it will be featured later.

● The music listening room will be open soon from 1 to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday and from 7 to 10 p.m., Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday.

● SU board executives will meet October 31, at 4 p.m. in the board chairman's office at 4 p.m.

The SU board will hold session November 2, at 4 p.m.

Pix Garb Wanted; Schedule Listed

Any woman student who has a navy blazer with white trim which she would be willing to loan for Oregonian pictures is asked to contact the photographers in the basement of the SU.

If a woman loans her blazer, she will receive a free 8 by 10 portrait in oil, and her jacket will be cleaned.

The schedule for pictures the rest of the week is as follows:

- Thursday: Carson 4, 8-12, 1-2:30; Chi Omega, 2:30-5:30; Rebec House, 6:30-8.
- Friday: Carson 5, 8-12, 4-5:30, 6:30-8; Delta Zeta, 1-2:30; Zeta Tau Alpha, 2:30-4.
