

Browns; Bears Lead Pro Ball

National Football League

By the Associated Press

Eastern Conference

	W	L	T	Pct.
Cleveland	7	2	0	.778
Washington	6	3	0	.667
Pittsburgh	4	5	0	.444
New York	4	5	0	.444
Chicago Cards	3	5	1	.375
Philadelphia	3	5	1	.375

Western Conference

	W	L	T	Pct.
Chicago Bears	6	3	0	.667
Los Angeles	5	3	1	.625
Green Bay	5	4	0	.555
Baltimore	4	4	1	.500
San Francisco	3	6	0	.333
Detroit	2	7	0	.222

By Orlo Robertson
Of the Associated Press

Chicago's astounding Bears wrapped up their sixth straight victory to take undisputed possession of first place in the Western Conference of the National Football League Sunday while the battle for the Eastern Conference lead remained a nip and tuck tussle between Cleveland's defending Browns and Washington's surprising Redskins.

The Bears turned back the Detroit Lions 24-14 to post a 6-3 record as the Los Angeles Rams lost a chance to keep pace by playing a 17-17 tie with the Baltimore Colts. The tie left the Rams with a record of 5-3-1.

Cleveland rebounded from last week's defeat by the Philadelphia Eagles by romping over the Pittsburgh Steelers 4-14. But the Redskins remained only a game back as they shut out the Chicago Cardinals 31-0.

Giants Move Up

The New York Giants jumped into a third place tie with Pittsburgh in the Eastern section with a surprise 3-7 whipping of the Eagles. Green Bay remained in contention for the Western title by edging the San Francisco 49ers 27-21.

In posting their seventh victory in nine games, the Browns broke open a close game in the last half on a great display of passing by Otto Graham and George Ratterman and some flashy running by Curly Morrison.

Banquet Formally Ends Grid Season

Football at Oregon comes to an official close tonight when the Hoffman award for the most outstanding senior player is given during the Oregon club banquet in the Student Union ballroom at 6:30.

Gen. Don Zimmerman, dean of the faculty at the Air Force Academy, will be the guest speaker on the program. President O. Meredith Wilson will also speak and track coach Bill Bowerman will be the master of ceremonies.

Five senior gridgers will be in line for the coveted award given each year by Vern Hoffman, local jeweler and a former Oregon athlete. Halfback Dick James, tackles Jim Potter, Lon Stiner and Harry Johnson and center Art Weber are eligible.

A stag affair, the banquet will be opened later in the evening to allow women and children to witness the presentations. Tickets, priced at $2.75, will be available at the door.

Last year's winner, determined by vote of the team, was Baltimore Colt quarterback George Shaw. He received an engraved wrist watch. Former winners include the late Ken Sweitzer in '53, Monte Brethauer in '52, Dick Patrick in '51, Ray Lung in '50, Woodley Lewis in '49 and Brad Ecklund in '48.

Bruins Halt Coast Race

By Al Johnson
Emerald Ass't Sports Editor

Pacific Coast Conference

Team	W	L	T	Pct.
UCLA	6	0	0	1.000
Oregon State	5	2	0	.714
Stanford	3	2	1	.600
Oregon	4	3	0	.571
Washington	4	3	1	.571
USC	3	3	0	.500
California	1	5	1	.200
WSC	1	5	1	.200
Idaho	0	4	0	.000

The Coast conference season is at last finished and dreams of Rose Bowl contenders have all faded under the relentless record of the winners, UCLA.

With their weekend win over Southern California by a decisive 17-7 count, the Bruins moved into the host spot in the Bowl where they will face a Michigan State team that got the nod from the Big Ten conference.

USC fell to sixth place in the final standings with their loss, the third for them in the conference campaign. Last year's Trojans represented the coast in the Bowl and were beaten by Ohio State, who captured the Big Ten title again this season.

In the other traditional games, California lost to Stanford for the first time in several years, 19-0; Oregon walloped Oregon State, 28-0; Idaho bashed Montana, 35-0; and Washington blanked Washington State, 27-0.

Probably the weekend's most spectacular play was in Los Angeles, where USC's Jon Arnett ran the opening kickoff back 97 yards for a touchdown, only to have it nullified by an offside penalty by his own front line.

Suspension on Santee Lifted

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Missouri Valley AAU board of managers Sunday decided to lift the amateur suspension of Wes Santee, this country's fastest miler.

The managers voted 21-7 to reject the decision of the Missouri Valley AAU registration committee which suspended Santee on Oct. 30 on grounds he had accepted excessive expense allowances for three California track meets last month.

Santee's suspension will be lifted automatically if no one appeals Sunday's decision to the board of governors of the National AAU within 10 days.

Santee, former University of Kansas star who now is a marine lieutenant stationed at Quantico, Va., was unable to attend Sunday's meeting but was represented by Bill Easton, his former coach at Kansas.

Told by The Associated Press of the lifting of the suspension, Santee said "I'm very pleased, naturally. Now at least I'll have a running chance in the Olympic Games."

The suspension would have barred Santee from participating in the 1956 Olympics in Australia. He had said previously that he would hate to miss that contest.

Harlon Hill, an elusive end from little known Florence Teachers College of Alabama, twice fooled Detroit pass defenders in the third quarter as the Bears moved into first place.

He picked off tosses of 20 and 10 yards from Ed Brown for his seventh and eighth touchdowns of the season to bring the Bears from a 14-10 halftime deficit.

Two long passes from Bobby Layne accounted for Detroit's two touchdowns. The first went to Doak Walker and covered 70 yards and the second to Dave Middleton. It was good for 77.

Graham, although tossed for a 52-yard loss on attempted pass plays, tossed two touchdown aeriels to Dante Lavelli, one for 6 yards and another for 41, and scored another himself on an end run.

Groza String Ends

Other Cleveland touchdowns came on a 15-yard pass interception return by Ken Konz, a 3-yard plunge by Ed Modzelewski and a 5-yard plunge by Maurice Bassett. But Lou Groza's string of consecutive conversions was halted at 29 when his fourth attempt was blocked.

The Steelers, who trailed only 2-14 at the half, first tallied on a 16-yard pass from Jim Finks to Elbie Nickel and again on a 30-yarder from Ted Marchibroda to Nickel. Both were set up by Graham fumbles.

George Shaw, rookie Baltimore quarterback, was alternately the star and the goat in the tie with Los Angeles. His 28-yard pass to Jim Mutscheller in the last quarter put the Colts ahead 17-10. But then he fumbled on his 16 and the Rams went for the tying touchdown.

The Giants, leading only 10-7 at the half, poured across three touchdowns in the third period against the Eagles as they held Philadelphia's vaunted attack to almost a complete standstill.

Eagle Offense Stopped

Philadelphia completed only 15 of 37 passes and the Eagles' ground attack was limited to 54 yards. The Giants intercepted six Eagle passes and set up their first touchdown with a recovered fumble.

Bert Zager's 55-yard return of a punt for a touchdown the first time Washington had possession sent the Redskins off on the right foot against the Cardinals.

The Packers tallied 14 points in the final period in their come-from-behind triumph over the 49ers. Tobin Rote set up the deciding touchdown by taking a lateral from Breezy Reid and carrying the ball 49 yards to the 49ers' 6. Howie Ferguson went over from there to settle the issue.

Rote also had a hand in two other Green Bay touchdowns while Y. A. Tittle, San Francisco's veteran quarterback, pitched two to Carroll Hardy, the plays covering 33 and 58 yards.

READ EMERALD CLASSIFIED

UCLA Bruins; MSU Spartans Bound for Pasadena; Roses

By Jack Stevenson
Of the Associated Press

Official selection Monday by the Pacific Coast Conference of UCLA to meet Michigan State is a foregone conclusion like taxes. After the Bruins whipped Southern California 17-7 Saturday it appeared a waste of time and money to poll the conference members on the bowl situation.

The Uelans finished with their third straight PCC championship and unbeaten in loop play. Their only setback in two years was the 7-0 one by Maryland early this season.

A surprising Oregon State outfit, coached by Tommy Prothro who last year was a UCLA aide, finished second in the conference with a 5-2 record compared with the Bruins' 6-0. But OSC completed its season on the short end of a 28-0 count against traditional rival Oregon.

Stanford finished in third place and had a happier ending by beating its traditional foe, California, 19-0, the first victory for the Indians over the Bears since 1946. Stanford had a 3-2-1 PCC mark and an early season non-conference victory was a 6-0 count over Ohio State, the Big 10 champion.

In order came Oregon, Washington (winner 27-7 over Washington State) and Southern California. Cal and WSC managed to win only one conference game each and little Idaho didn't win any. The Vandals did whip Montana 31-0 in Saturday's finale.

The champions, UCLA, scored 285 points to 57 for opponents in their 10 games this season.

Coach Jess Hill of USC perhaps put it correctly when he said the Bruins this year are the weakest in the past three seasons. But the men of Coach Red Sanders managed to come up with the knockout blow when it was needed.

For instance: Against Washington a week ago, senior wingback Jim Decker booted a field goal in the last 18 seconds to win 19-17. He hadn't kicked a three-pointer before, either in high school or college. Saturday he booted his second, a placement that traveled 29 yards.

Also against Washington, passing star Ronnie Knox broke a bone in his leg. Saturday the Bruins passed only twice, both times by halfback Sam Brown and both completed, one for 21 yards and the other for 29. Both kept scoring drives rolling.

Brown also had a field day running against the big Trojan defenders. He gained 150 yards making his 10-game total 829 for a new school record.

Sanders had troubles at the start of this season. He's lost nine of 11 starters from his undefeated 1954 outfit including the line, the blocking back and the tailback, the latter being the fellow largely responsible for making the single wing move.

Brown filled that slot and Hill says, with some regret, "he can run rings around Primo Villanueva." Primo was last season's all-conference tailback.

Sanders also has fullback Bob

Davenport, a hard runner and blocker who knocks ends on their ends so Brown can continue his travels.

Players Jubilant After HC Victory

If a person entered the University of Oregon football player's dressing room just after Saturday's "Civil War" classic, he would have seen a jubilant bunch of Webfoots.

Written across the dressing room blackboard was "We beat them Aggies! and how, 28-0!" Perhaps no team has been much happier than those six seniors who wound up their Duck gridiron careers in the "only way." A pendeonium followed Coach Len Casanova's announcing of Senior halfback Dick James being selected to play in the East-West shrine game at San Francisco.

The "old pro" James said afterward that he would like to go on and play either professional baseball or pro football. He says that he is still undecided, but that if he does go into professional athletics it will probably be football. "I think that I would have a better chance at pro football, because my injured wrist is still pretty weak," said the rugged Webfoot. James said that his weak wrist would hinder his baseball performance more than it would his football.

Commenting on Oregon State's playing James said, "I figured those Beavers would be pretty tough, and at half-time I was still worrying; we only had seven points on them. In the second half, like the first, after we slapped them around a bit, they seemed to stop driving. They weren't as rugged as I thought they'd be."

Happy and smiling, senior captain Lon Stiner said that there would be no professional football for him. Tackle Stiner explained, "The Army comes first; I'd like to get in and get my two years over with."

The Duck captain added "I plan to go on to law school as soon as possible, though. That's what I came to school for, and that's what I'm going to do." Stiner commented on the Beaver's defeat by admitting he didn't know what was wrong with them. He said, "Oregon State played like we did against Stanford; I can't quite understand it."

Big senior tackle Harry Johnson simply said, "Oregon State just didn't want to win as bad as we did." When asked about whether his future plans included football, Johnson said, "This—today—was it!" The giant Johnson of a relatively small Oregon line said that he intends to try to get into the UO dental school. He doesn't know how he stands with the draft.

Perhaps no one was happier than "workhorse" Don Sullivan. Sullivan, senior team manager, plans to return to Los Angeles where he has been offered a couple of jobs. Like the others, "Sully" really doesn't know how he and Uncle Sam stack up.

FEARLESS FOSDICK
by AL CAPP

"I'LL BASH IN YOUR HEAD, AN' WIN A PRIZE AT TH' SAME TIME, FOSDICK!!"

"HIM!!—BY DEFLATING ONE OF MY LUNGS—"

"I WILL REFLECT MY COURSE, AND LAND ON THE RASCAL!!"

MISSION ACCOMPLISHED!! NO DOLL, THANK YOU!!—I'LL TAKE WILDROOT CREAM OIL AS MY PRIZE!! REMOVES LOOSE UGLY DANDRUFF!!

KEEPS HAIR NEAT AND NATURAL!!—WITH WILDROOT, A MAN CAN ATTRACT ANY DOLL!!—GET WILDROOT CREAM-OIL, CHARLIE!!—

BUT THAT WOULD BE ILLEGAL MY NAME IS CATHIE!!

ONLY CREAM-OIL GROOMS AND CONDITIONS HAIR THE NATURAL WAY