Westminster Foundation

Sunday is the last day of planned activities for fall term at Westminster House. Coffee and rolls at 9 a.m.; student led worship at 9:30, and the two study groups will meet at 9:45 a.m. The first group will be discussing the theme of the Student Volunteer Movement conference meeting in Athens, Ohio, at Christmas time to which thirty students from the University are planning to attend.

This Sunday, the discussion will be opened by a student panel using J. B. Phillips' "Your God is too Small." Members of the panel are Alexa Hibbard, John Gregor and Leeta Linn. Marten Oosterkamp, graduate student from the Netherlands, is convener of the West-M group and Mr. Barlow, the Presbyterian University pastor, will meet with those discussing the "Quest for Personal Faith."

The last fellowship supper for the term will be at 5:30 p.m. Sunday with the ladies of Central Presbyterian church preparing the meal. Vespers will follow in the large chapel with Marilyn Avery in charge.

Students are reminded of the college age conference at Menucha from Dec. 28 through 31. Information about the conference, along with registration blanks, may be obtained from the display table at Westminster House.

The cabinet meets Friday at noon for lunch to discuss the program for winter term. Members include John Gregory, president; Mimi Goodwin, secretary; Bob Williams, treasurer; Ralph Kingman, house chairman; Marten Oosterkamp, study and interest chairman; Bob Rogers, service chairman, and Frances Ann Putnam, URC representative.

Lutheran Student Center

"Did Jesus Really Become a Baby?" is the question which will be answered by Rev. Edwin Svendsen at the regular Sunday evening meeting on Dec. 11. His talk will be preceded by a cost supper at 5:30 p.m.

Students are invited to attend the all-city Lutheran choir concert at Central Lutheran church beginning at 8 p.m.

The regular Wednesday noon luncheon will be held for the last time this term at noon Dec. 14. Speaker will be E. S. Wengert, head of the University political science department.

The annual Christmas caroling party will be held Saturday night, Dec. 17. Caroling will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will be followed by a party at the Student center.

Christian House

Sunday morning services at Christian House will continue for the remainder of the term. The two Bible classes led by Dr. Victor P. Morris and Clarence H. Elliott will feature pre-Christmas discussions.

The 5:30 p.m. meeting Sunday will be the second in a series of discussions on the "Coming of Christ" led by Rev. Donald Helseth. Rev. Helseth is the pastor of the First Christian church of Corvallis and will speak on "Fulfilling the Message of the Prophets."

The final Fireside study group on the Student Volunteer Movement conference textbook will be led by Wynn Dahlgren at 8:45 p.m. Sunday.

The annual Christmas dinner will be held Sunday, Dec. 18 at 5:30 p.m. with Mary Jane Eldridge as chairman. The program will be an informal singing of Christmas carols, closing with a special service of worship led by Joan DeBolt and Gennie Eachus. A Christian House offering will be taken for the 'Share Our Surplus' program in which each dollar contributed provides twenty dollars of food for overseas relief. Reservations for the dinner must be made by Wednesday, Dec. 14 by calling 5-3491.

Work on the Christmas door swags is being done daily under the direction of Carolyn Fredrickson. Proceeds from the swags go to the Interdenominational chapel at the University of the Philippines.

Nine representatives from Christian House are planning to attend the Ecumenical Student Conference at Athens, Ohio, Dec. 27 through Jan. 1. Mary Ihle, John Ihle, Roger Weaver, Jim Wear, Jim Oglesby, Walter York, Doris Allen, Janice Milton and Robert Randall are the students planning to attend.

First Baptist Church

"What Shall a Man Give in Exchange for His Soul?" is the topic of the lesson to be given by Bob Gillikin, youth director at the First Baptist church, Broadway and High St., Sunday morning. Bob Reid will be in charge of opening ceremonies and there will be group singing of Christmas carols. A special solo will be given by Mary Lou Teague.

Everyone is invited to the regular Sunday morning Bible class which set a record attendance of 82 last Sunday.

Rev. John Henderson will speak at the regular Sunday morning worship service at 11.

A Fellowship hour for all college students is held at 6:30 every Sunday night. This Sunday the film "Miracle of Love" will be shown.

Transportation to the William Schich home will leave the church at 9 p.m. for the Singspiration. Refreshments will be served.

Wesley Foundation

Sunday, Dec. 11, at 5:30 p.m. Wesley will have their annual Christmas banquet. The Wesley choir and quartet will sing with the plan "A Child Is Born" by Stephen Benet. Tickets are: under 12, free, students $1.00, others $1.50. All tickets must be reserved by Friday, Dec. 9 and may be reserved by calling 4-1043. Sunday, Dec. 18 at 6 p.m. Wesley Foundation will have their fall quarter communion service in the chapel. This service is open to all denominations.

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship

Mel Donald, missionary on furlough from Ethiopia, will speak at the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 8 in the SU.

Reverend Donald is interested in young people and will be willing to answer any question that those might have concerning his work. He is presently on tour of Oregon and Washington telling of his work in Ethiopia.

The film "Missionary Problems in Ethiopia" will be shown.
