Christian House

Friday and Saturday evenings will be fun nights of informal activities and recreation at Christian house according to Jim Wear, recreation chairman. Everyone has been invited to attend.

The Sunday morning program begins with the 9:15 "donut hour" followed by two Bible classes led by Victor P. Morris and Clarence H. Elliott. Choir rehearsal will be at 4:30 p.m. under the leadership of Duane Mills.

At 5:30 p.m. Sunday, Harold Johnson Jr., Eugene lawyer, will lead a student panel composed of Jean Miller, Sally Byron, and Carl Fleshman, in a discussion on the topic, "How Shall I Choose My Church?" Refreshments will be served.

Weekday activities include the executive council meeting at 9 p.m. Wednesday and house devotions at 10 p.m. Thursday with other committees meeting throughout the week.

Christian House delegates to the Ecumenical Student conference held in Athens, Ohio, will hold a special meeting early in the week.

American Baptist

Sunday will be student Sunday at the Emerald Baptist church, Roosevelt junior high school, 24th and Hilyard St. Students will take part in the morning worship service with the pastor speaking on the topic, "Be True to Yourself."

The evening service at 7:30 will feature a panel of students discussing "A Student and His Faith." Students may call 3-3198 for transportation.

Newman Club

Several new activities will begin at Newman Hall this week. Mass will be said Sunday mornings at 9 and 10:30 a.m. These masses have been especially arranged by the Newman club for the convenience of campus students.

A Sunday evening supper is to be served at 5:30 p.m. followed by a short talk and discussion period. A small charge is to be made to help defray the costs of the meal. The speaker for this Sunday will be Dr. Thomas A. Kearns, who will begin a series of talks on marriage and the family.

Today is the first Friday of the month and Mass will be at Sacred Heart hospital at 4:15 p.m. Benediction will be at 4 p.m.

Canterbury Club

Sunday the Episcopal students will meet at 6 p.m. at St. Mary's for their worship service, the Feast of Lights, which is being conducted by the high school students. This will take the place of the college students evening prayer service.

Westminster Foundation

First Sunday evening of the term at Westminster House, 1414 Kincaid, will include fellowship supper at 5:30 Vespers and fire-side discussion. Reservations for the supper, which is being prepared by the ladies of the Westminster Presbyterian church, will not be necessary this week.

Delegates to the College Age conference at Menucha during Christmas vacation will be in charge of the Sunday program.

Delegates are Marnie Avery, who was elected moderator for Oregon at Menucha, Bob Rogers, Mimi Goodwin, Rodger Person, Warren McClure, Dave Goode, Dick Harper and John Gregor, president of the local student group.

Most of the events at Westminster house from now until

Jan. 22 will be directed toward the Parliament of World Religions, which is a campus-wide event.

Sunday morning after coffee and doughnuts at 9, and 9:30 worship, the discussion groups will begin a series on the religions of mankind. During the Sunday morning session Dick Harper will meet with persons interested in forming a Westminster choir. There will be a car pool to church at 10:30.

Wednesday Supper club will meet at 5:30 p.m. with Jack Mason in charge. After supper Rev. Barlow, Presbyterian University pastor, will speak on the first of a series of talks on Paul Tillich's book, "The Courage To Be." Tillich will serve as the representative of protestantism in the Parliament of World Religions.

The student cabinet will meet for lunch on Friday at Westminster house. The campus advisory committee will meet at the house Sunday at 8 p.m.

Christian Science

The Christian Science organization will hold its regular weekly meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the men's lounge of Gerlinger hall. All interested persons connected with the University are welcome to attend.

First Baptist Church

The University Bible class will meet at 9:45 a.m. Sunday with Bob Reid in charge of the opening ceremonies which will include a song by the "Jubilantes" who are June Kelso, Aldyne Rady and Beth Teague.

The class lesson given by Bob Gillikin, youth director, will be on the topic "Christ—the Most Important." Vance H. Webster will preach at the regular Sunday morning worship service.

The college fellowship hour will begin at 6:30 p.m. with Dick Engdahl in charge. Speaker for the evening will be Vance H. Webster, pastor of the First Baptist church in Eugene. Webster recently returned from a world tour and this is the first opportunity since the tour for University students to hear him speak. All young people are invited to attend.

The "Singspiration" will be held at E. L. Sundquist's home immediately following the Sunday evening church service. Transportation will leave the church at 9 p.m.
