Westminster Foundation

Sunday's activities at Westminster house begin with coffee and rolls at 9 a.m. followed by a short worship service at 9:30. Two discussion groups will meet at 9:45 to discuss comparative religion. Student leaders for these groups will include Ki Jik Han of Korea, Douglas Burns, Sharon Ellison, Jack Kirkwood, and Krishna Aryal of Nepal.

The young adults group of Central Presbyterian church will serve at the fellowship supper at 5:30 p.m. Dave Goode and John Gregor are in charge of the supper program. Reservations are not necessary and the cost is 30 cents per plate. Guests for supper will be faculty members of the departments of religion and philosophy from Lewis and Clark college.

Vespers at 8:30 will be conducted by students and will be important in orienting the group to Religious Evaluation week.

Westminster house will not schedule any events which will conflict with the Parliament of World Religions. The discussion group on "The Thought of Paul Tillich" which has been meeting on Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. will not meet. Tillich is a guest of the University this week and will speak at the Student Union ballroom Sunday at 8 p.m. for the opening of Religious Emphasis week. Students may also hear him on Wednesday in the SU at 4 p.m.

At a recent meeting of the Westminster student association the following officers were elected: Marnie Avery, worship chairman; Dave Goode, fellowship chairman and Glen Goff, study and interest chairman.

Luthern Student Center

Students will meet at the center at 5:30 p.m. Sunday for a cost supper and a short business meeting which will precede a speech given by Paul Tillich at 7:30.

The regular Wednesday noon luncheon will be held Jan. 25.

The time for council meetings has been changed to 12:30 p.m. on Tuesday.

A group study on "Great Teachings of the Bible" will be held at 9 p.m. every Thursday evening. This Bible study is led by Pastor Ed Swendson. All persons interested are invited to attend.

Two other Bible study groups have been organized which meet on Wednesdays at 4 p.m. and on Tuesdays at 11 a.m. Interested students have been urged to sign up now as the groups will begin next week.

Christian House

Square dancing tops the program Friday evening at Christian house. Gary Crook and Jim Wear are in charge of the party which is to be held in the Coburg area. Cars will leave the house between 7 and 7:30 p.m. Experienced callers will direct the folk games, and refreshments will be served.

Saturday is work day with the work party beginning at 9 a.m. according to Carl Flesham, chairman. As this is the last chance to do repairs and paint-up jobs before Dad's Day, everyone is urged to help. A list of jobs will be posted for students who cannot come at the scheduled time.

Sunday morning is "Donut Hour" at 9:15 followed by two Bible study groups on the "Origin of the Church" and "The Gospel of John." The 5:30 discussion program will be led by James Perkins, acting head of the department of religion, on "How Shall We Approach the Parliament of World Religions?" At 7 p.m. the group will adjourn to hear the opening speaker of the Parliament, Dr. Paul Tillich of Harvard university, whose address will be given in the Student Union ballroom at 7:30.

Most weekday activities have been cancelled or postponed to enable students to hear the Parliament speakers. However, the choir will rehearse at 6:15 p.m. Thursday under the direction of Duane Mills.

Lewis Deer of Indianapolis, Ind., director of Social Education for the United Christian Missionary society, will be in Eugene Monday, to meet persons interested in Christian social action. His first session will be at 10 a.m. with individual and small group interviews following. Interested students should contact Christian house or Doris Allen, social action chairman.

First Baptist Church

University Bible class will meet at 9:45 Sunday morning under the leadership of Bob Gillikin who will give the lesson from the book of Mark. Special music will feature a solo by E. A. Plussey and a duet by Bob Gillikin and Bob Reid.

The regular Sunday morning worship service will be held at the church at 11.

At the 6:30 Fellowship hour Herb Jachin, a Eugene businessman, will speak on the topic, "An Element of the Christian Life."

"Singspiration" will be immediately after the evening worship service. Transportation will leave the church at 9 p.m.

Wesley Foundation

The annual winter term ski retreat will be held Saturday and Sunday at Suttle lake for the students of Wesley foundation. Because of the retreat, there will be no Koinonia Klass on Sunday morning. Students going on the retreat plan to return to Wesley by 7 p.m. Sunday to attend the opening assembly in Religious Evaluation week in the Student Ballroom at 8 p.m.

The theme of Religious Evaluation week is "Parliament of World Religions." The assembly will continue Monday through Thursday. Speaker for the opening assembly is Paul Tillich who will speak on Protestantism.

Tuesday the weekly potluck will begin at 5:30 p.m. The program will feature ecumenical students who will give their "Impressions of Athens Students." The regular rehearsal of the Wesley choir will be at 8 p.m. Thursday.

The choir is preparing to give a program, "Wesley Presents." Chapel will follow at 9:30.

Friday, Jan. 27, will be a "Westward Ho" party which will include entertainment, games, and refreshments in accordance with the theme. The party will begin at 7:30 and the dress is western style.

Newman Club

Newman Club will hold its regular Sunday meeting at 5:30 p.m. A light supper will be served. The program will be a discussion which will continue the series on marriage and the family.

Sunday Mass will be at 9 and 10:30 a.m.
