

New Panhellenic Officers Selected

New Panhellenic officers were chosen at a meeting of a committee from this year's Panhellenic council Tuesday evening.

They are Ann Stearns, president; Donna Miller, vice-president; Peggy Ragan, second vice-president; Connie Kennedy, secretary, and Leola Lorenzen, treasurer. All offices except second vice-president are chosen on a rotating basis, according to Olivia Tharaldson, this year's Panhellenic president.

Panhellenic secretary and treasurer are juniors chosen from the same house by the house members. They automatically move up to the offices of president and vice-president the next year. By this method of election, representatives from each house on campus hold the office of president and vice-president once every 16 years.

The second vice-president's job is automatically given to last year's junior Panhellenic president.

Chairmen chosen after interviews were Marian Baum, scholarship; Dorothy Gamblin, relations; Dorothy West, publicity; Mary Helen Williams, standards; Lorrie Whitten, social and activities, and Georgia Hemmilla, Mary Schulte and Frances Jacobs, members-at-large.

The girls will take office March 1.

SU CURRENTS

Approximately 100 members of the Student Union board, directorate, and committees attended the 40-minute film, "Living Room of a University" Tuesday. The movie is the story of the highly organized and successful Wisconsin university student union.

An executive meeting of the Student Union board will be held today at 4 p.m.

Petitions Due Today For AWS Offices

All petitions for AWS officers are due today at 5, according to Sally Ryan, AWS vice-president in charge of elections. Elected officers will serve for the 1956-57 year.

Junior women may petition for the office of AWS president, sophomore women for the posts of secretary and treasurer, and freshman women for the positions of editor and historian. The runner-up for president will be named vice-president.

A seventh cabinet position, Intercollegiate AWS representative, will be filled by the AWS cabinet after the election, Miss Ryan said.

Women must have a 2.0 GPA, both fall term and cumulative, to petition for the posts. Regular ASUO petition blanks should be used. They may be returned to Miss Ryan at Alpha Chi Omega or to the ASUO petition box on the Student Union third floor.

Petitioners will be interviewed by Miss Ryan and AWS president Jane Bergstrom, who then will recommend candidates to the AWS nominating committee.

Final elections will be held Feb. 21 during Women's Week, in conjunction with the YWCA and WRA elections.
