

'Women's Place' Tonight's Topic

Ruth Rose Richardson, prominent Portland attorney at law and public accountant, will address women students tonight at the first annual Women's Week assembly, which will be held at 7 p.m. in the Student Union ballroom.

Mrs. Richardson will speak on the subject of "The Woman's Place." Freshman closing hours will be extended so that girls may attend the talk and the coffee hour following the assembly. The coffee hour will be held in the Dads' lounge.

Election Results

The new AWS, YWCA and WRA officers will be announced at the conclusion of the assembly.

The guest speaker was a municipal judge in Portland for five years, but is presently an attorney and CPA. She is also serving, by mayoral appointment, on the City Inter-Racial commission and on the City Zoning commission.

Mrs. Richardson has also been active in the Daughters of the American Revolution organization. She is presently an honorary state regent in that organization. Earlier she served for three years as a national officer. She also was national chairman of Americanism of the DAR for three years.

Speaker's Activities

For seven years Mrs. Richardson was chairman of the women's division of the Republican state central committee of Oregon.

She has also been active in the restoration of state landmarks. She served as chairman of the restoration of the home of Dr. John McLoughlin at Oregon City, and is presently serving as head of restoration of the Robert Newell house at Champoeg.

Mrs. Richardson is also a member of many civic and patriotic organizations.

Alphaholics Pick 'Toast' Finalists

Three finalists have been named by the members of Alpha hall in their quest for a 1956 "Toast of the Alphaholics," with Mary McClosky, Susan Campbell Hall; Mary Lou Glass, Delta Gamma, and Jody Klahre, Pi Beta Phi, in the running.

The three girls will be entertained at the formal dance sponsored by Alpha hall on March 3. The winner will be announced at the dance.

This marks the second year of the "Toast" selection. Last year's winner was Joan Hay, Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Two Fraternities On Social Pro At Oregon State

CORVALLIS (AP)—Two Oregon State college fraternities were placed on probation Monday by Dean of Men Dan W. Poling, one of them because a student was hurt in a hazing prank.

The fraternities punished are Phi Sigma Kappa and Delta Upsilon.

The dean said Phi Sigma Kappa was denied social privileges because a student was hurt when struck by a paddle in a pre-initiation ceremony. The announcement said the student, whose name was not disclosed, "suffered an aggravation of an existing medical condition." He was held at the college infirmary for one day of treatment.

Violation of college regulations on the use of alcohol was given as the cause for denying Delta Upsilon social participation.

The report said the violation occurred when some of the fraternity members took liquor on a ski outing.

Suspension of both fraternities will be effective for the year.

Brown Lectures Thursday in SU

John Mason Brown, a contributing editor of "The Saturday Review of Literature," will be the guest lecturer at the first winter term assembly, set for Thursday at 1 p.m. in the Student Union ballroom.

Brown will speak on "Seeing Things," which is also the title of his weekly column. He is a Harvard graduate and specializes in literature and the theater.

All Thursday classes at 1 p.m. will be moved to Tuesday at one o'clock for this week only.

Women to Vote For AWS, YW, WRA Leaders

Benefit Proceed Indicate Deficit

Early returns on the Millrace Benefit dance indicate a deficit for the senior class-sponsored affair, according to Dick McDaniel, dance ticket sales chairman.

Replacing the traditional Senior Ball, the Millrace Benefit received approximately $165 in ticket receipts. The cost of Wally Heider and his band came to $300.

Staged as a gift to the school in the form of a boost for the restoration of the Millrace, the dance took place Saturday night in the Student Union ballroom.

Along with the dance receipts, the senior class has $400 in its treasury for the Millrace fund.

Eighteen Teams Enter Tourney

A duplicate contract bridge tournament was held Monday night in the Student Union, with scores of eighteen teams being recorded and sent to the National Intercollegiate bridge tourney in Texas.

Results of the local play will be known about March 20, according to Sue Walcott and Bruce Brenn of the S.U. recreation committee.

The score cards of the contestants will be determined on campus, regional and national levels, with the titles to be awarded thusly. The hands from which the players competed were prepared in advance by the national authority.

Entered in the local tourney were Alpha Chi Omega: Lou Ringette and Nancy McRae, Diane Kuhl and Tish Lambert; Delta Gamma: Bev Braden and Pat Donovan, Carol Aiken and Denny Kenyon; Delta Zeta: Pat Hoy and Sue Carothers, Lelda Dickie and Jackie Ferris; Gamma Phi Beta: Judy White and Mary Egan, Polly Crooker and Claire Helm; Pi Beta Phi: Pat Southworth and Nan Leaverton.

UO President To Give Lecture

O. Meredith Wilson, University of Oregon president, will speak at the Wednesday night browsing room lecture on the topic of "Berlin and Biography."

President Wilson took graduate study in Germany in 1936 at the University of Heidelberg.

The talk will be given at 7:30 in the browsing room of the Student Union.

Recorders Finish Two-Day Meeting

City recorders of Oregon will conclude their two-day meeting on the University campus today, with closing sessions set for the Student Union.

Sponsored by the Bureau of Municipal Research and Service in cooperation with the League of Oregon cities, the meeting heard addresses by William C. Jones, dean of administration, and E. S. Wengert, head of the political science department.

Tickets Available For Student Plays

Tickets are now available in the speech office for two student theatre productions to be presented by the techniques of acting class, Wednesday at 4 and 8 p.m.

"Dark Lady of the Sonnets," by Bernard Shaw and a one-act version of William Inge's "Bus Stop," will be presented by the students under the direction of Horace W. Robinson, associate professor speech.

The plays will be presented in the lab theatre, Villard 102.

There is no charge for admission, but tickets are needed to assure seating in the theatre.

Thursday Class To Be Held Today

Regular Thursday 1 p.m. classes will be moved up to 1 on Tuesday this week, the administration has announced.

An assembly speaker Thursday necessitated the change.

APPROXIMATELY 400 STUDENTS attended the Appie Polish party held Monday afternoon in the SU fishbowl. Twenty professors served coffee to the students, and twenty-five more were in attendance, according to Gloria Begenich, chairman. Above, left to right, E. R. Bingham, assistant professor of history; and students Pat Holley, Gwen Samuelson, Charmion Ford, Allen Schleifer, Marilyn Docke, and Norm Ross.
