Senator Argues For Wes Santee

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Carlson (R-Kan), Monday denounced as "cruel and unfair" the barring for life from track events of Wes Santee, America's main hope for the 4-minute mile.

The Amateur Athletic Union, by its action, Carlson said, is "setting the stage for one of the most cutting Russian propaganda coups ever knowingly and unnecessarily given." He said the AAU's expense rules are "decadent."

The AAU's action was taken Sunday after its Executive Committee heard a report by an investigating committee that Santee received about $1,500 more than the allotted expenses for participating in track meets.

Santee's attorney, Charles P. Grimes of New York, has announced that the courts will be asked to enjoin the AAU from carrying out the suspension. If this move fails, Santee will be barred from further participation in track, including this year's Olympics in Australia.

The speedster has come closer to the 4-minute mile than any other American, in 4:00.5. He was this country's main hope in the 1,500-meter run in the Olympics, in which the Iron Curtain countries have several top runners.

Carlson, taking the Senate floor to express his shock at the AAU's action, said the ruling places "a blight for life" on the Kansas athlete.

"I would be less than frank if I did not state I think he has taken more money than is allowed under the decadent rules of the AAU for amateur standing," Carlson added. "But let us be practical about the matter."

"Here is one of the nation's outstanding athletes who is in demand by promoters all over the nation, urging him to attend meets, if for no other reason than as a drawing card."

"In all fairness, I would suggest that the AAU review its rule in regard to payments that could be made to athletes of amateur standing, without violations of their rules or the loss of participation for life that has just been given Wes Santee."

USF Remains Unbeaten Team

By the Associated Press

San Francisco goes breezing along in front in college basketball, but while the top teams continue knocking one another about without rhyme or much reason, it's hard to say who is second to the unbeaten Dons.

Illinois moved into the No. 2 spot in this week's Associated Press poll of sports writers and broadcasters mainly because the other leading contenders managed to get beaten.

As a result of all that, only San Francisco among the first 10 teams retained the ranking it held a week ago.

San Francisco, breezing to its 20th victory of the season and its 46th in a row, naturally dominated the balloting. The Dons drew 86 of 144 first place votes and 52 for second, third or fourth. On the usual scoring basis of 10 points for each first place vote, nine for second, etc., they piled up 1,301 points. Illinois, with 18 votes for first and 57 for second, drew 1,078 points. From there on down the voting was close.

Duck Grapplers Face Bears, LC

Oregon's varsity wrestlers, still unbeaten in collegiate competition, meet Lewis and Clark in McArthur court Wednesday at 8 p.m. in their last week of mat action before the Pacific Coast intercollegiate championships in San Luis Obispo, March 9 and 10.

Bill Hammer's grapplers test the Pioneers and host California Saturday before a week's layoff in preparation for the PCI tournament.

Lewis and Clark, loser to the Southern Oregon College of Education crew last Saturday, is paced by veteran heavyweight standout Mike Clock.

PARRY O'BRIEN of the U. S. Air Force puts the shot during National A.A.U. Championships at Madison Square Garden Feb. 18, to top every shotput record in the books. O'Brien, who has been trying for years to break the 60-foot mark indoors, topped every world record—indoors and outdoors—when he got off a heave of 61 feet, 5 1/4 inches. (AP Wirephoto).
