Band to Give Public Performance To Observe the Mozart Festival

The University of Oregon Concert Band, conducted by Robert Wagner, will present a public concert Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Student Union ballroom in conjunction with the Mozart Festival.

Musical offerings by the band include Titus Overture from the opera "La Clemenza di Tito" of Mozart and five clarinetists. Larry Sowell, Gerald Feldkamp, Marlene Bronson, Guy Beachler, and Waldo King, will be featured in an "Adagio" of the famous composer. Also included in the evening performance will be ballet music from "William Tell" by Rossini; Frederick H. Clark's Symphony for Band in one movement; three selections by Moussorgsky; two preludes by Shostakovich; and First Suite in E flat by Holat. Selected marches will close the concert.

This will be the second appearance of the Oregon band on the campus this year and the first full concert of the group this season. There will be no charge for the tickets which may be obtained at the desk of the Student Union.

Nominations To Be Thursday For Democrats

Young Democrats will meet Thursday evening in the Student Union to nominate officers for the forthcoming election year. Election of the officers will take place the following Thursday.

The club will discuss the organizational meeting of the College Federation of Young Democratic clubs. The meeting is scheduled for Friday and Saturday on the Reed College campus in Portland.

Campus Young Democrats will be sending three or four observers to the meeting, however it is doubtful if the club will become a member of the Federation.

Rated last year as one of the finest organizations of its kind in the nation by famed band leader Edwin Franko Goldman, the University Concert band also received similar accolades from musicians and educators who heard the band's performances at the Northwest Conference in Eugene last April.

Seven concerts on a state-wide tour are scheduled for the band next month as well as several appearances during spring term.

Agenda Listed For SU Board

The Student Union board will convene today at 4 p.m. Listed on the agenda for discussion are:
