

Spring Opening

Section II

Oregon

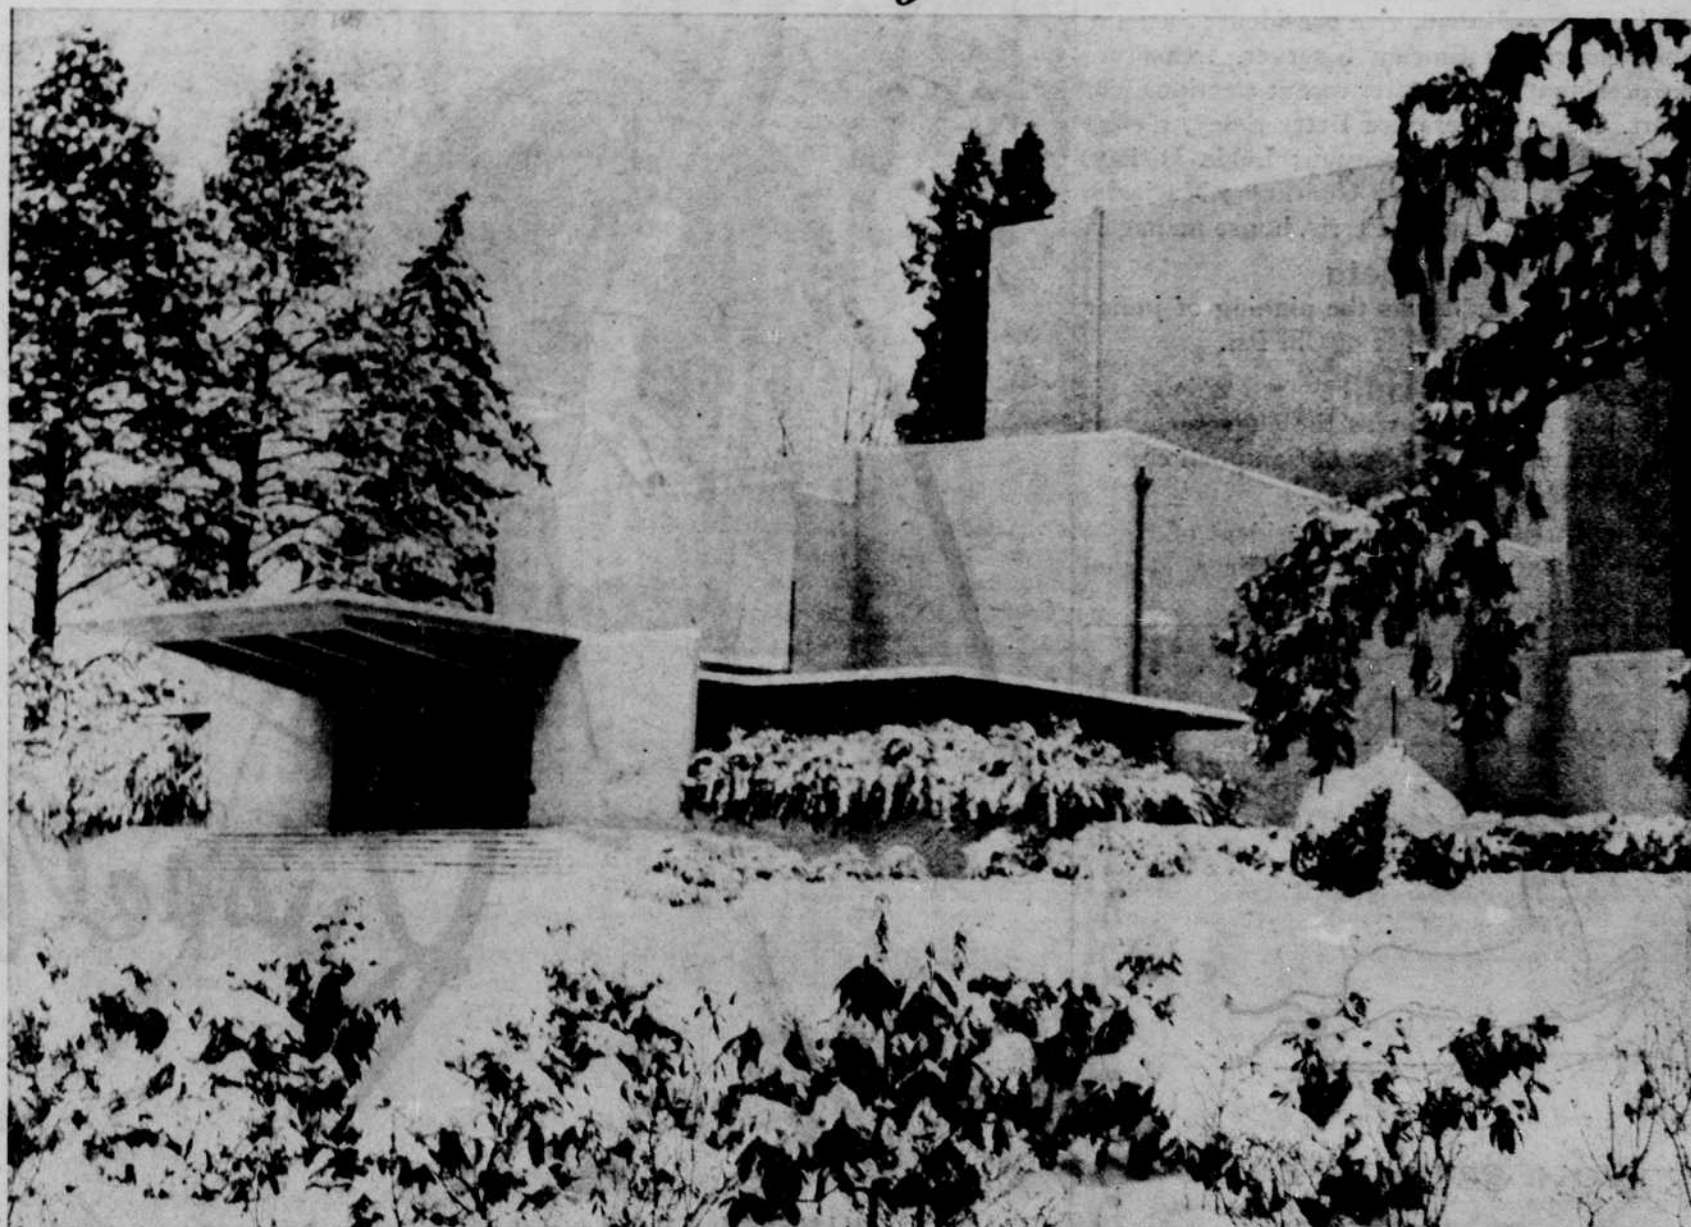

daily
EMERALD

WITH CONSTRUCTION of the Millrace boathouse by spring term, scenes such as this will be familiar on the stream. The Student Union recreation committee will operate a canoe rental in the new boathouse. There is over a mile of stream accessible to canoe traffic, and there are spots on the upper portion suitable for small picnics.

... Maybe

IN LIKE A LION, out like a lamb . . . goes the old saying about the month of March, and it couldn't be truer than at the University. The new month heralded in almost three inches of snow; and wind reaching hurricane velocities caused severe damage to trees on the old campus. This picture shows the front of the University Theatre blanketed under March's snowy cold Tuesday morning.