

100 Are Expected For Matrix Table

More than 100 guests from Eugene and around the state are expected to attend the annual Matrix Table here Tuesday. The traditional all-female formal banquet is sponsored by the campus chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary, and will start at 6:30 p.m. in the Student Union.

Marian Lowry Fischer, women's editor of the Salem Capitol-Journal, will be the guest speaker. She will discuss her job in relationship to the rest of the newspaper.

Mrs. Fischer is a graduate of the University school of journalism and was society editor of the Eugene Register-Guard for 23 years. She has won state and national recognition for her newspaper work.

An award of achievement will be presented by Theta Sigma Phi to some outstanding Oregon press woman at the banquet.

All undergraduate women in journalism have been invited to the Matrix Table. Theta Sigma Phi will present the annual awards for the outstanding freshman and sophomore women in journalism during the evening. The chapter will also tap new pledges.

Anne Hill, senior in journalism and Theta Sigma Phi vice-president, will be mistress of ceremonies for the banquet.

'Moses and Me' Browsing Topic

(Continued from page one) leader will be R. C. Gordon, assistant professor of English.

On May 16 the series turns to history. Gordon Wright, head of the history department, will present the topic, "Bullitt, Roosevelt and the Fall of France." E. S. Pomeroy, professor of history, will lead the discussion.

On Torchlight Parades

W. C. Jones, dean of administration, will speak on "The Torchlight Parade" on May 23. Robert B. Frazier, associate editor of the Register-Guard, will be the discussion leader.

Climaxing the spring term series of browsing room lectures, E.C.A. Lesch, professor of English, will speak on "Christopher Marlowe—Ghost Writer to William Shakespeare?" The final lecture will be held on Thursday, May 31. Leading the discussion will be F. M. Combella, professor of classical language.

Today's Staff

Makeup editor: Sam Vahey
News desk: Bill Mainwaring, Cornelia Fogle, Al Johnson
Night staff: Jeanette Bonney, Janet Church.

Jazz a la Carte Concert Tickets Going Very Fast

Ticket sales are going "very, very well" for next Tuesday's "Jazz a la Carte" presentation, according to SU program director Adelle McMillan.

The concert will be held in McArthur court, starting at 8 p.m. About three fourths of student reserved tickets already have been sold so far.

"Jazz a la Carte," an Irving Granz production sponsored by the SU board, features the music of five famous jazz acts.

Students will hear the Dave Brubeck quartet, Sarah Vaughn, Cal Tjader's Afro-Cuban combo, the Red Norvo trio, and the Buddy DeFranco quartet.

Student reserve seat tickets cost $2. Student general admission tickets are $1.

Tickets are on sale at Thompson's Record Shop, the Record Mart, Wilson's Music House, Eugene high school, and the SU main desk.

Honorary to Pick Six Semi-Finalists

Pershing Rifles, the Army ROTC society, will choose six semi-finalists in the contest for honorary sponsor of the local unit at a meeting in the Student Union Thursday at 6:15 p.m. The semi-finalists will be chosen from 24 sophomore girls nominated by women's living organizations.

The winner, who will hold the title of honorary captain, will be honored at the Military Ball May 4 and with a banquet in late April. Her picture will be entered in the national contest and will compete for the title of Honorary Brigadier General of Pershing Rifles.

+ Campus Briefs +

• Coordinators for Duck Preview will meet today on the third floor of the Student Union to discuss further plans for the weekend according to Jeanne Scales and Dick Blue, general co-chairmen for the event.

• All living organization float representatives for the Canoe Fete are urged to meet today at 4:30 in Student Union 333 and 334 to select the theme for the Fete.

• WUS Ugly Man committee will meet at 7 p.m. today in the YMCA office, according to Ron Rodner and Doug McKay, co-chairmen.

• All-campus clean-up committee will meet at noon today in the Student Union, according to Pat Cushnie and Bev Landon, co-chairmen.

• Vodvil representatives from each house will meet in the S.U. today at 4 p.m. Room number will be posted on the bulletin board.

• The Inter-fraternity council will meet tonight in the Student Union to nominate next year's officers. The room number will be posted.

• A special meeting of Young Democrats has been scheduled tonight at 7:30 in the Student Union.

• Ye Tabard Inn, men's literary honorary, will meet tonight at 7 upstairs in the College Side Inn.

• House librarians from every living organization are asked to meet Wednesday at 4 p.m. in the Student Union browsing room.

• Skull and Dagger will meet tonight at 6:30 in the Student Union, according to Chuck Cowen, president.

• Kwama will meet in the Student Union tonight at 6:30. The room will be posted.

• Student Union directorate will meet today at 4 in SU room 312.

• Rally board is meeting this noon in the Student Union.

Chairmen Name Speakers, Pairings for WUS Firesides

Speakers and pairings for the World University Service firesides for tonight have been announced by Flori Sloniger, firesides chairman, and Agnes Thompson, speakers chairman.

Fraternity members will eat at their own houses and go to the paired sorority house immediately following the meal. The program will consist of a panel, made up of an American student and several foreign students, and a movie outlining the purposes and aims of WUS.

Scheduled Tuesday for Alpha

Omicron Pi and Chi Psi are Miriam Vaaler, U.S., Nak Kwan Kim, Korea, and Art Selix Artolnex-Montero. Kappa Alpha Theta and Phi Gamma Delta will hear Jean Sandine, U.S., Pierre du Payrat, France, and Vishnu Wassiamal, Nigeria.

Members of Chi Omega and Tau Kappa Epsilon will hear Donna Douglas, U.S., Jon Aarts, Holland, and Elias Hamed. At Delta Zeta and Theta Chi will be Doris Allen, U.S., Cynthia Villa, Philippines, and Adebayo Ashiru, Nigeria.

When Spring's in the air
And you haven't a care,
Enjoy pleasure rare—have a CAMEL!

—Man, that's pure pleasure!

It's a psychological fact:
Pleasure helps your disposition.

If you're a smoker, remember — more people get more pure pleasure from Camels than from any other cigarette!

No other cigarette is so rich-tasting, yet so mild!

Camel