Westminster Foundation

Arrangements are being made by Doug Burns, chairman of the study and interest committee, for a day retreat to be held April 14 at Westminster house. Addison H. Leitch, president of Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological seminary, Pittsburgh, Penn., will be the featured guest at the retreat. The fellowship committee is in charge of recreation and the lunch period. For information call either Doug Burns or the House, DI 4-4143.

The following appointments to committees have been made by Glen Goff, newly elected moderator for the Westminster Student association: house committee: Coleen Jacobson, Leeta Linn, and Mimi Goodwin, chairman; publicity and public relations committee: Lee Hansen, Mary-Verne Allen, and Kay Josselyn, chairman; finance committee: Bob Snyder, and Bob Decker, chairman; worship committee: Dick Harper, Marnie Avery, chairman; study and interest committee: Rodger Person, and Doug Burns, chairman; fellowship committee: Mary-Verne Allen, Dave Goode, and Jim Fratzke, chairman; service committee: Wynn Dahlgren, Bob Snyder, Dave Goode (chairman to be appointed).

Sunday morning coffee and rolls will be served at 9 o'clock and there will be a short worship service at 9:30 a.m. A student-lead discussion will follow at 9:45 a.m. The topic for this discussion is "Albert Schweitzer, Christian Revolutionary."

The council of the Student Association will meet Sunday afternoon at 4.

Sunday's supper will be at 5:30 p.m., followed by Vespers at 6:30 p.m. The Fireside at 7 p.m. will be a student discussion lead by Doug Burns on "Does History Show any Indication of Spiritual Progress?"

Sunday at 8 p.m. the Campus Advisory Committee will meet at Westminster house. Vernon Snow, instructor in history, is chairman of the committee.

There will be a fellowship supper (at cost) on Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. Study groups will meet afterwards. On April 13 at 8 p.m. the members of the faculty and Religious Directors Association are invited to a coffee hour with Addison Leitch to discuss questions about contemporary religious trends.

Today there will be an open house at Westminster house. All students are welcome to attend.

Christian House

An evening of fun is in store for all persons who wish to attend the 7th birthday party at Christian house Saturday at 7:30 p.m. Sally Byron, Martha Crumroy and Jim Wear are in charge of the recreation.

Sunday evening at 5:30 o'clock a color film which was filmed in southeast Asia will be shown. The film presents the story of a man who found the difference between Pseudo-Christianity and World Christianity. Gennie Eachus arranged for the film to be shown.

Sunday morning worship service begins with the Donut Hour at 9:15 o'clock followed by the Bible classes with Clarence H. Elliott, dormitory storekeeper, and Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business administration, leading the discussion. Following the Bible classes, transportation will be furnished to the First Christian Church and will leave Christian house at 10:30 a.m.

Registration for the Regional Conference of the disciples Student Fellowship at Menucha, April 13 through 15 are due by Sunday and may be paid to June Fulco, registration chairman. Program theme is "To Every Man a Nation" with emphasis on the student's part in the present revolution. Program participants from Eugene are Doris Allen, Wally York, Mary Ihle, Roger Weaver, Bob Randall, Shirley Goff, and Mrs. Clarence H. Elliott.

Executive council will meet at 8:45 o'clock Monday evening with Don Smith in charge. House devotions will be Thursday evening at 10 p.m.

First Baptist Church

The annual youth banquet sponsored by the college class will be held April 13 at the Lynwood Restaurant on highway 99. Guest speaker this year will be Jack Mayhall, former all conference quarterback from Wheaton college. Entertainment will be provided by Charlie Franklin's quartet. The dress will be informal, and tickets are $1.65 per person. Tickets may be obtained by contacting Jim Hansen at Philadelphia House or Dick Engdahl at McClure Hall.

Sunday at 9:45 a.m., Bob Gillikin will present the lesson from the book of John. Sunday evening after the 7:30 o'clock church service there will be an "All City Sing" in the main auditorium of the church.

American Baptist

The Roger Williams fellowship of the Emerald Baptist church meets regularly at 9:45 a.m. for a Bible study of the book of John.

The Sunday morning worship service will begin at 11 o'clock with the Rev. Charles W. Moore speaking on "Spiritual Aurgery" based on the Sermon on the Mount. At the evening service at 7:30 Rev. Moore will speak on the topic "The Last Night on Earth" which is one in a series of sermons on "Night Scenes in the Bible."

Sunday services are being held at Roosevelt Jr. High School, 24th and Hilyard Sts. Persons desiring transportation may call Rev. Charles W. Moore at DI 3-3198.

Christian Science

Christian Science organization is sponsoring a free lecture on Christian Science entitled "Christian Science—God's Promises Fulfilled" which will be given by Walter S. Symonds, C.S.B., of San Antonio, Texas. The lecture will be on Monday at 8 p.m. on the second floor of Gerlinger hall. Symonds is a member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

Tuesday evening at 7:30 the organization will hold its regular weekly meeting in the men's lounge of Gerlinger hall. Anyone connected with the University is invited to attend both the lecture and the meeting.

Newman Club

Election of officers for next year and a record dance will highlight activities at the Newman Club this week.

Today is the first Friday of the month and Mass will be celebrated at 4:15 p.m. in the Sacred Heart hospital chapel. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be at 4 p.m.

Now that Lent is over, more social events are being planned and students are urged to participate in the programs. Card parties, informal dances, and a picnic on the McKenzie River are just a few of the coming events.

Sunday Mass will be said at 10:30 a.m. and the weekly dinner will be at 5:30 p.m. The elections and dance will follow the dinner.
