

Religious Notes

By Shirley Saunders
Religious Notes Editor

Note: Deadline for Religious Notes is 3 p.m. Wednesday.

Westminster Foundation

Addison Leitch, president of Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological seminary, Pittsburgh, Pa., will be the featured guest at two Westminster house events this weekend. Tonight at 8 Leitch will meet with all University faculty members and religious directors for an informal coffee hour where he will discuss current theological trends and religion in higher education.

Saturday a Day Retreat will be held at Westminster house from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. During three separate periods, Leitch will discuss Martin Luther and John Calvin, and then he will compare the two. A registration fee of 50 cents will cover the cost of the luncheon. All students have been invited to attend. Further information may be obtained by calling Westminster house, DI 4-4143.

Sunday morning, Leitch will give the sermon at both morning services (9:30 and 11) at Central Presbyterian church.

Activities at Westminster house on Sunday morning include coffee and rolls at 9, worship at 9:30 and a student lead discussion on Peter Marshall at 9:45. There will be a car pool to church at 10:40.

Sunday evening a cost fellowship supper will be held at 5:30 which will be prepared by the ladies of the First Presbyterian church of Springfield. Vespers will be at 6:30 under the leadership of the worship committee.

The World University Service committee will lead a fireside discussion at 7.

Students have been invited to attend the dedication services at the Westminster Presbyterian church, Coburg and Harlow Roads on Sunday at 7:30 p.m. The Rev. David B. White is minister.

Canterbury Club

Sunday evening at 6, vespers will be chanted by Father Walster at St. Mary's church. A garden party will follow at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. Walster. Transportation will be provided from the church.

Father Walster will continue his Enquirers class on Tuesday from 6:30 to 7 p.m. in the Student Union. The room number will be posted. The class is studying the history, government, faith, worship and ritual of the Episcopal church. All interested persons have been invited to attend.

Wednesday at 7 a.m. Holy Communion will be celebrated in Gerlinger hall with Father Walster as Celebrant and Father Smith assisting. A breakfast will follow the mass.

A regular Sunday evening meeting will be held at 6 p.m. in St. Mary's church. Officers for next year and URC representatives will be elected.

Emerald Baptist

Sunday is Baptist Education day at the Emerald Baptist church. The Roger Williams Fellowship will conduct opening devotions at the 9:45 a.m. Sunday School hour.

Guest speaker at the 11 a.m. worship service will be J. A. Jonasson, dean of administration at Linfield college. Speaker for the evening service at 7:30 will be Linnea Nelson of Central Philippine college, Iloilo, P.I.

Students have been invited to attend these services. Services are being held temporarily at Roosevelt junior high school, 24th and Hilyard Sts. Students needing transportation may call DI 3-3198.

First Baptist

The annual youth banquet sponsored by the college age class will be held tonight at the Lynwood restaurant. Dress will be informal.

The lesson Sunday from the book of John will be presented by Bob Gillikin. The COS Sunday school class will begin at 9:45. Wes Roop will lead the singing.

A group of foreign students representing "World University Service" will present the evening program for the youth group at 6:30 p.m.

Transportation for the "Sing-espionage" will leave the church at 9:15 p.m. immediately following the evening church service which will begin at 7:30.

Christian House

This weekend the Regional conference of the Disciples Student Fellowship will open at Menucha on the Columbia river. Twenty Christian house delegates will attend. Cars will begin leaving at 3 p.m. today and will return early Sunday afternoon. Delegates are asked to call June Fulco at DI 5-9177 or Christian house at DI 5-3491 about transportation.

Sunday morning donut hour will be at 9:15 followed by the Bible study period led by Victor P. Morris. The 5:30 program will be a double feature including a "Little Menucha" given by the returning conference delegates, and a World University Service panel discussion by four foreign students. Gennie Eachus and Roger Weaver are in charge.

The executive council will meet at 8:45 Monday evening. Tuesday, Christian house students will join with other members of the University Religious Council in the URC potluck dinner at St. Mary's Episcopal church at 5:30 p.m. for the installation of new officers. Christian house representatives are Don Smith and Roger Weaver.

Congregational

Sunday morning at 11 the University class will study the personal philosophy of Jesus from three of the Gospels of the New Testament. The three gospels will be compared as to their views of Jesus' philosophy. Group discussion will be held in the minister's study. The Congregational church is located at 13th and Ferry. All interested students have been invited to attend.

Newman Club

Sunday evening meetings of Newman club during spring term have been cancelled due to the heavy schedules of the students.

Replacing Sunday evening meetings will be meetings held during the week. A social hour of dancing or recreation will be held following each weekly meeting. The meeting this week is planned for Wednesday at 7 p.m. if there are no conflicts for that hour. Father Murane has started a Catholic Enquiry class for all Catholic or non-Catholic students on campus who are interested. All phases of Catholic life, religion, art, literature, and culture will be discussed by the group. The class will be held Thursday at 6:45 p.m. at Newman hall which is located near the campus on 749 E. 15th St.

Southern Baptist

Sunday school at the First Southern Baptist church at 25th and Haryist St. will begin at 9:45 a.m. and church will follow. Busses will pick up students wishing transportation in front of the Student Union at 9:30 a.m. Bus rides will also be furnished to the Sunday night service for Training Union, evening worship and youth fellowship. The Sunday evening bus will leave the SU at 6:45.

This is a new program and any interested students have been invited to attend.
