

Themes Chosen For 'Fete' Floats

Themes conforming to past Walt Disney movies and television productions have been announced for the Canoe Fete floats by Marls Claussen and Tom Moreland, co-chairmen of the float committee.

Preliminary drawings of the floats are due from each float group Tuesday, April 17 at the float representative meeting. These drawings should be as detailed as possible showing the type of structure and materials to be used.

Floats will be judged equally on design, color, effective interpretation of the theme, quality of workmanship and audience acceptance.

The following themes will be seen in the form of a float at the 1956 Canoe Fete.

"Dumbo," Highland House, Kappa Alpha Theta, Phi Kappa Psi; "Cinderella," Delta Upsilon, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Pi Kappa Phi; "Bambi," Alpha Delta Pi, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Alpha Gamma Delta; "Mr. Toad's Car," Ann Judson House, Gamma Phi Beta, Sigma Chi; "Frontierland," Delta Gamma, Chi Psi, Phi Kappa Sigma; "Main Street USA," Theta Chi, Alpha Phi, Lambda Chi Alpha; "Alice in Wonderland," Zeta Tau Alpha, Ordes, Campbell Club.

CMA Concert To Feature Kabuki Dancers

The Civic Music association will present the Japanese Azuma Kabuki Dancers and Musicians Tuesday at 8 p.m. in McArthur Court. The performance is for Civic Music members and University of Oregon students who will be admitted free with student body cards.

The dancers and musicians will appear in a fusion of dance, drama, music and scenic art. The New York Times has described the Kabuki dance as a program of continuous musical accompaniments, both vocal and instrumental, which play a remarkable part in creating dramatic and emotional atmosphere.

Skits Planned for Preview Dinners

Flying skits are being planned to present at fraternities and sororities during Duck preview dinners April 21.

Skits will provide entertainment as well as trying to interest the visiting high school seniors in attending the University, according to Tom Harding, exchange dinner co-chairmen.

Women interested in participating in the flying skits should pick up and return petitions in the ASUO petition box on the third floor of the Student Union by Monday at 5 p.m.
