

'Greens' Wallop 'Whites' In Final Spring Action

Veteran footballers Chuck Osborne, Phil McHugh and Jim Shanley led the "greens" to a 30-0 triumph over the scrub "whites" Saturday morning in the climax to a 20-day spring football practice. Osborne scored twice for the "greens" on runs of nine and 17 yards, and returned a pass 36 yards to set up the final touchdown, while McHugh caught a pass for another TD. Shanley raced for several good gains, one for 24 yards.

The "greens," made up of last fall's lettermen were outplayed by the predominantly frosh-led "whites" in the first half and led 6-0. A strong defensive showing from graduates of last year's frosh team held the veteran team against the wall until the second half when Osborne and Shanley reeled off their long runs.

Missing from the scrimmage were a half dozen lettermen, including both holdover quarterbacks Tom and Jack Crabtree, sidelined with injuries. Also missing from the scrimmage were tackle John Raventos and center Nick Markulus, while fullback Jack Morris and halfback Jack Brown were with the track team at Berkeley.

Besides Osborne's touchdowns, McHugh, Leroy Phelps, and Marlan Howard scored for the "greens." McHugh caught a pass from Compton JC transfer Roger Daniels, Phelps scored on a seven yard run off right end, and Holland scored the only first half TD, a two-yard plunge up the middle.

Duck coach Len Casanova was not too impressed with the offensive showing of either of the two clubs, but the strong defensive playing of three 1955 freshmen caught his eye. Tackle Bob Grotkau, fullback Will Reve and center Pete Welch were the three mentioned by Casanova.

Ducks, Cougars Divide Games

Northern Division Standings
	W	L	Pct. GB
WSC	10	3	.769
Oregon	7	3	.700 1½
OSC	6	8	.429 4½
Washington	4	8	.338 5½
Idaho	4	9	.308 6

Don Kirsch's University of Oregon baseball team kept their Northern division pennant hopes alive Saturday afternoon when they dumped the Washington State Cougars, 4-2, avenging an 8-6 defeat on Friday. It was the third Oregon ND victory in four "Inland Empire" games and moved the Ducks with 1½ games of the league-leading Cougars.

Washington State, who has but two games left to play in conference competition is still a strong favorite to dethrone the Ducks as the ND champion. Oregon, however, with two games left to play against Washington today and tomorrow and two games against Oregon State still has a chance to repeat as the ND titlists. In order for the Ducks to win, WSC must lose to at least one of the Idaho games. Assuming that neither WSC or Oregon loses another game, the Cougars will have won one more game and will have a percentage edge on the Ducks.

Oregon's game today against the fourth place Huskies, marks the first time that these two squads have met this year. In their previously scheduled games, they were stopped by rain and ND rules forbid make-up games.

WSC 8-Oregon 6

WSC thwarted the Oregon Ducks' chance of taking over the Northern division leadership when they climbed on Oregon pitcher Stan Dmochowsky for five runs in the first inning with four singles and three walks and for three runs in the third inning on a flurry of hits, including a double and a triple.

Jack Henkel, who relieved Dmochowsky in the fourth inning, held the Cougars scoreless but the damage was done and Oregon hitters were unable to get more than six runs off Boldt, the WSC chucker.

Oregon got a run in each of the first, third and eighth innings. They rallied, moreover, in the ninth for three more but John Freeman, the Cougar relief pitcher put out the fire and the Ducks fell short with an 8-6 score.

John Keller lead the Oregon hitting attack, garnering three of the Ducks' nine hits. He was followed by the Oregon first baseman, Dick Schlosstein, who hit two for four.

Oregon 4-WSC 2

Although he needed the help of two Oregon relievers, lefty sophomore Don Lane pitched his fourth conference victory, his second in four days, to lead the Ducks to a 4-2 decision over Washington State college and keep Oregon's title hopes burning.

The three Oregon pitchers limited Washington State to only five hits. Oregon also got only five hits but bunched them when they needed them.

The Ducks got off to a quick lead in the second inning, pushing across two runs. Dick Schlosstein singled and scored on Jim Pingree's triple. Pingree scored on Jerry Ross' sacrifice fly to right field.

The Cougars bounced right successful WSC pickoff play and scored when Don Lane flied out to center field.

Terry Maddox tripled in the back to get one run in their half of the second to make the score 2-1.

In the fifth Ross walked, stole second, went to third on an un-sixth inning and scored on Pingree's single.

WSC got to Lane in the bottom of the sixth. With two out, Joe Trembly doubled and scored on Bill Mashburn's single. Lane managed to retire the next Cougar batter but then walked Ron Aiken and Gordon Hershey, filling the bags.

Coach Don Kirsch quickly substituted reliefer Denny Olson who struck out pinch hitter Henry Legge to retire the side and protect the all important Duck lead.

WSC failed to get any runs off either Olson or Jim Lehl who came on in the bottom of the ninth inning to get the Cougars out.

Pingree with two RBI's and two hits lead the Oregon hitting attack. Mashburn was the lone WSC hitter to get more than one bingle.
