The Oregon Webfoots won the unofficial Northern division dual meet championship Friday, walloping the Oregon State Beavers 19½-7½ on the Eugene Country Club course.

This gave the Ducks a record of four wins, no losses and one tie (Washington) in ND competition. The Huskies had a 3-0-1 record, only one half game behind Oregon.

The sensational sophomore from Salem, Bob Prall, was medalist with an even par 72 over the 6,584 yard links, taking all three points from OSC's ace, Ray Lindquist.

Linksmen Top Seattle; Prall Takes Medalist

The well-balanced Duck varsity golf team celebrated their Northern division dual meet championship Saturday by crushing the Seattle Chieftains 13-9 at Eugene. It was the first match defeat Seattle has suffered since the Webfoots beat them two years ago.

Sharpening up for the Northern division medal play championship next weekend, the red hot Ducks took a commanding 8-1 lead in the best-ball play and then fought off a determined comeback bid by the Chiefs in the individual matches to cop the win.

Again it was Bob Prall leading the way with a two-under par 70 to tie with Chuck Briggs of Seattle for medalist honors. Prall was six under for the day as he shot 68 in the morning.

Art Abrahamson came within 1/1000 of an inch of making it a three-way tie as his birdie putt on 18 hung incredibly upon the lip of the cup. No amount of histrionics could get the ball to drop and "Abe" had to settle for a fine 71.

matches of the day took place between Chuck Huggins of the Ducks and Miss Ruth Jessen of Seattle. Miss Jessen is one of the top women amateurs in the Northwest and played as number five man on the Chieftains team.

Huggins, with some fine clutch putting, was forced to shoot 72 to defeat Miss Jessen one up. The power-hitting lass stroked her way to a neat 73, remarkable golf considering that the wind came up quite strong on the back nine.

UCLA Wins PCC Meet; Ducks Place Fourth

By Phil Knight

The University of Oregon track squad, led by distance aces Bill Dellinger and Jim Bailey, scored 21 points to finish in fourth place in the Pacific Coast conference meet at Berkeley Saturday. The Ducks trailed winner UCLA, which posted 69½ points to dethrone USC for the first time since 1938, USC with 67, and Stanford with 29½ points.

Once again the Webfoots of Bill Bowerman dominated the distance events. Jim Bailey, defending Coast 880 champ, clipped off a 56.6 last lap to edge UCLA's Bobby Seaman in the mile run. Bailey's time for this event was 4:06 breaking teammate Bill Dellinger's old mark of 4:09.

Dellinger, the defending mile king, ran the two mile Saturday and put on a tremendous finish to win the eight lap event handily in the respectable time of 9:05. After staying in the pack for the first mile, which he ran in 4:42.8, Dellinger spurred to the front and turned in a 4:22 last mile. Dellinger proved he had plenty left by running the final 880 in 2:04.8, and the last quarter in 59.3. Little Max Truex, who has a 9:01.5 to his credit, was expected to set a fast pace and give Dellinger a tough fight, but Truex failed to set the pace and finished only third in the race. The slow first mile eliminated all chances of Dellinger breaking the NCAA record of 8:57.7 or the Coast mark of 9:02.6.

Oregon's mile relay of Gordon Dahlquist, Dave Talbot, Arden Christensen and Bailey finished a surprising third in the relay behind USC and UCLA. Bailey turned in an outstanding 440 of 47.8 and the Ducks' overall time in this event was an outstanding 3:16.8.

Jack Morris, Oregon's elderly sophomore from Medford, sprinted to fifth place in the 100 yard dash, and then finished third in the low hurdles behind UCLA's brilliant Rafer Johnson and USC's Bill Swisshelm. Ed Bingham added more points to the Oregon cause by throwing the javelin 202 feet 5¼ inches for third place.

Oregon's only other placer was broad jumper Don McClure. McClure got off the best jump of his life, 23 feet, 7½ inches, to finish fifth in this event.

The other members of Oregon's 14-man traveling squad failed to place in the meet. Dahlquist, who was figured for points in the 440 had the unfortunate luck of drawing the eighth lane and finished in sixth place. Five places were given in the meet.

Christensen, the other Duck entry in the 440, failed to qualify for the finals as did Webfoot broad jumper Denny George. Martin Pedigo, who finished second in the PCC meet last year, jumped 23 feet, 6 inches in the broad jump, but that was good only for sixth place. Jack Brown got off to a poor start and could not make up the lost ground in the 100 and also finished sixth. Brown qualified in the 220 also, but finished in seventh place.

Oregon's two pole vaulters, Sam Whitney and Bob Reid failed to clear 13-6, the height that was needed to place in this meet. Doug Basham ran the fastest high hurdle race of his career, 15.1, to qualify for the finals, but ran out of the money in the strong finals field.

Amazing Pirates Drub Milwaukee

By Jack Hand
Of the Associated Press

Milwaukee and St. Louis lost doubleheaders Sunday letting Brooklyn move into the thick of the National League battle with a double sweep over the last-place Chicago Cubs.

Pittsburgh's surprising Pirates knocked off Milwaukee 6-3 and 5-0 with Dale Long hitting a home run in each game before 32,346, largest Forbes Field attendance since May 20, 1951.

Duke Snider's two-run homer gave the Dodgers the first over Chicago and Sandy Amoros' two-run triple won the second game of a pair of 5-3 decisions.

The big excitement of the day was at Pittsburgh where Bob Friend and Ronnie Kline were the winners. Although Friend allowed nine hits, he earned his sixth victory over Ray Crone. Kline gave up six hits to beat Warren Spahn. Long's two homers boosted his total to nine.

Despite the defeats Milwaukee remained in first place by 26 percentage points over Brooklyn. St. Louis was another seven points behind Brooklyn. Cincy was one half game off the pace and Pittsburgh, cellar club for four straight years, was only one game out of first place.
